Courses on Latin America in Institutions of Higher Education in the United States Pan American Union. Division of Education, 1948 The Cambridge Companion to American Utopian Literature and Culture since 1945 Sherryll Vint, 2024-05-16 Providing a comprehensive overview of American thought in the period following World War II after which the US became a global military and economic leader this book explores the origins of American utopianism and provides a trenchant critique from the point of view of those left out of the hegemonic ideal Centring the voices of those oppressed by or omitted from the consumerist American Dream this book celebrates alternative ways of thinking about how to create a better world through daily practices of generosity justice and care The chapters collected here emphasize utopianism as a practice of social transformation not as a literary genre depicting a putatively perfect society and urgently make the case for why we need utopian thought today With chapters on climate change economic justice technology and more alongside chapters exploring utopian traditions outside Western frameworks this book opens a new discussion in utopian thought and theory

A Companion to the Literature and Culture of the American South Richard Gray, Owen Robinson, 2008-04-15 From slave narratives to the Civil War and from country music to Southern sport this Companion is the definitive guide to the literature and culture of the American South Includes discussion of the visual arts music society history and politics in the region Combines treatment of major literary works and historical events with a survey of broader themes movements and issues Explores the work of Edgar Allan Poe Mark Twain William Faulkner Zora Neale Huston Flannery O Connor and Eudora Welty as well as those black and white male and female who are writing now Co edited by the esteemed scholar Richard Gray author of the acclaimed volume A History of American Literature Blackwell 2003 Multiculturalism, Multilingualism and the Self: Literature and Culture Studies Jacek Mydla, Małgorzata Poks, Leszek Drong, 2017-07-31 This edited collection explores the conjunction of multiculturalism and the self in literature and culture studies and brings together essays by prominent researchers interested in literature and culture whose critical perspectives inform discussions of specific examples of multicultural contexts in which individuals and communities strive to maintain their identities The book is divided into two major parts the first of which comprises literary representations of multiculturalism and discussions of its impasses and impacts in fictional circumstances In turn the second part primarily focuses on culture at large and real life consequences Taken together the two complementary parts offer an illuminating and well rounded overview of representations of multiculturalism in literature and contemporary culture from a variety of critical perspectives

Undergraduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn, 1997 Managing the Post-Colony: Voices from Aotearoa, Australia and The Pacific Gavin Jack, Michelle Evans, Billie Lythberg, Jason Mika, 2024-05-10 This edited book is the second in the book series Managing the Post Colony The book series is co edited by Nimruji Jammulamadaka IIM Calcutta India and Gavin Jack Monash University Australia The book series seeks to present cutting edge critical interdisciplinary and geographically and culturally diverse perspectives on the contemporary nature experience and theorisation of managing and organising under conditions of postcoloniality This book specifically presents voices and perspectives from Aotearoa New Zealand Australia and The Pacific locations with shared and distinctive histories and present day experiences of colonisation and imperialism Ways of managing organising and doing business in these places demonstrate cultural continuity and change in such histories present sites of postcolonial struggle and diverse prospects for self determined future making The book explores struggles and prospects of managing in the post colony through qualitative empirical cases historical and legal studies conceptual essays and provocations and interviews with Indigenous business leaders It contributes to the ongoing diversification provincialisation and decolonisation of management and organisation studies and practice A strong focus is placed on diverse Indigenous knowledges and experiences including those of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Pasifika and M ori peoples and insights into the capacity for Indigenous culture specific modes of business to offer decolonising futures

The Routledge Companion to Marine and Maritime Worlds 1400-1800 Claire Jowitt, Craig Lambert, Steve Mentz, 2020-05-21 This book has been nominated for The Mountbatten Award for Best Book in the Maritime Media Awards 2021 The Routledge Companion to Marine and Maritime Worlds 1400 1800 explores early modern maritime history culture and the current state of the research and approaches taken by experts in the field Ranging from cartography to poetry and decorative design to naval warfare the book shows how once traditional and often Euro chauvinistic depictions of oceanic mastery during the early modern period have been replaced by newer global ideas This comprehensive volume challenges underlying assumptions by balancing its assessment of the consequences and accomplishments of European navigators in the era of Columbus da Gama and Magellan with an awareness of the sophistication and maritime expertise in Asia the Arab world and the Americas By imparting riveting new stories and global perceptions of maritime history and culture the contributors provide readers with fresh insights concerning early modern entanglements between humans and the vast unpredictable ocean With maritime studies growing and the ocean s health in decline this volume is essential reading for academics and students interested in the historicization of the ocean and the ways early modern cultures both conceptualized and utilized seas

Alexander the Great from Britain to Southeast Asia Su Fang Ng, 2019-04-04 No figure has had a more global impact than Alexander the Great whose legends have encircled the globe and been translated into a dizzying multitude of languages from Indo European and Semitic to Turkic and Austronesian Alexander the Great from Britain to Southeast Asia examines parallel traditions of the Alexander Romance in Britain and Southeast Asia demonstrating how rival Alexanders one Christian the other Islamic became central figures in their respective literatures In the early modern age of exploration both Britain and Southeast Asia turned to literary imitations of Alexander to imagine their own empires and international relations defining themselves as peripheries against the Ottoman Empire s imperial center this shared classical inheritance became part of an intensifying cross cultural engagement in the encounter between the two allowing a revealing examination of their cultural convergences and imperial rivalries and a remapping of the global literary networks of the early modern world Rather than absolute alterity or strangeness the narrative of these parallel traditions is one of contact familiarity and proximity unexpected affinity and intimate strangers Transatlantic Practices of Fascism(s) and Populism(s) from the Margins Reindert Dhondt, Monica Jansen, Maria Bonaria Urban, 2025-09-11 This volume brings together leading international experts in politics discourse memory and culture to examine the complex entanglements of populism s and fascism s in political thought and cultural productions The starting point is Argentine historian Federico Finchelstein s assertion that the dynamics of transnational fascism and populist movements become clearer when viewed from the margins Indeed it was in Latin America not Europe where fascism and populism first intersected with Argentine Peronism as the paradigmatic case Building on this perspective the volume explores Europe s political and cultural legacy of fascism within the context of globalised mobilities linking its totalitarian roots to the Latin American genealogies of populism s Adopting an interdisciplinary transnational and transhistorical approach and cultural transfer as a method it investigates cultural representations and practices that both reflect and challenge the divisive Us versus Them rhetoric central to fascist and populist discourses Particular attention is given to how cultural artefacts and practices memorialise remediate and oppose narratives of fascism s and populism s with the assumption that anti fascist art and activism still move along transatlantic trajectories This book will be of interest to researchers of fascism populism social and cultural history European and Latin American history literature art and activism Working-Class Women in Irish Literature and Theatre Clara Mallon, Salomé Paul, 2025-07-25 Working Class Women in Irish Literature and Theatre critically engages with works of theatre both by and about working class women historically and presently Addressing professional and community theatre productions from both textual and performative perspectives this volume focuses on works of theatre by practitioners directors playwrights and performance artists across rural and urban contexts Irish theatre has a long history of signifying social class Yet the representations of working class women in Irish theatrical history also encompass several problematic issues starting with the fact that these depictions were created by male writers like J M Synge and Se n O Casey to name but a few Nonetheless the theatre s emphasis on embodied performance and its ability to reach its public in an unmediated way has attracted working class engagement perhaps more than other art forms in Ireland Contemporary playwrights in the Republic and the north of Ireland have tirelessly striven to illuminate working class women s lived experiences and have reframed the characterisation of working class women by drawing out the intersection of social class with sexualities ethnic minorities and racial identities This edited collection also includes the voices of directors playwrights and performers who identify with a working class social background offering first hand accounts of their lived experience in the theatre industry Cultural Pearls from the East: In Memory of Shmuel Moreh (1932-2017) , 2021-04-26 Cultural Pearls from the East offers fascinating insights into Muslim Arab culture and the evolution of its intellectual nature and literary texts from early Islam to modern times The textual analysis of largely unexplored literary works and chronicles that epitomize this volume highlight the affinity between culture society and politics exploring these issues from both thematic and comparative perspectives Among the topics examined in depth Arabic poetry of warfare at the dawn of Islam medieval poems about venerated sites and saints Ottoman and Egyptian chronicles portraying the socioreligious landscapes of Egypt and the Fertile Crescent under the Ottoman Empire and in the shadow of growing European encroachment and Arab Jewish literature dealing with suppression exile and identity Contributors Ghaleb Anabseh Albert Arazi Meir M Bar Asher Peter Chelkowski Geula Elimelekh Sigal Goorj Jane Hathaway Meir Hatina Yair Huri Horesh Amir Lerner Menachem Milson Gabriel M Rosenbaum Joseph Sadan Yona Sheffer Norman Noam A Stillman Ibrahim Taha Michael Winter Eman Younis

Visions of Queer Martyrdom from John Henry Newman to Derek Jarman Dominic Janes, 2015-04-27 Dominic Janes is at pains here to highlight the role played by Christianity in the history of homosexuality in Britain His story deals not merely with genital relations but also with identities both embraced and refused Necessarily coded expressions of desire as well as creative blurrings between religious idealism and queer gender and sexuality are integral to Janes s account A special focus for Janes is the way in which visual images and imaginary visions of suffering in ecclesiastical contexts were used to develop concepts of male same sex desire that projected the self as dutiful and penitent rather than shameful And so a model and in ways a substitute for same sex relationships was readily available in idealizations of the person and body of Christas unmarried queer martyr Homosexual desires and identities prove to have unfolded in creative dialogue with religion during and since the 19th century Various figures enter into Janes s history from Cardinal Newman and Oscar Wilde to artists such as Simeon Solomon and Frederick Rolfe and the plot thickens with forays into Victorian monasteries that functioned as queer families with fascinating side trips into Rolfe s Christmas cards as expressions of queer aesthetic identity He brings the account full circle with a concluding chapter on the life and works of Derek Jarman Janes uses this case to show that the experience of the AIDS epidemic led to a reconnection with older modes of queer self expression specifically concerned with the endurance of suffering The religious roots of queer creativity are a vital resource for modern churches and openly gay men and women to learn from Appletons' Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events ,1896

Appletons' Annual Cyclopædia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1897 Victorian Material Culture Tatiana Kontou, Kara Tennant, 2022-07-14 From chatelaines to whale blubber ice making machines to stained glass this six volume collection will be of interest to the scholar student or general reader alike anyone who has an urge to learn more about Victorian things The set brings together a range of primary sources on Victorian material culture and discusses the most significant developments in material history from across the nineteenth century The collection will demonstrate the significance of objects in the everyday lives of the Victorians and addresses important questions about how we classify and categorise nineteenth century things This collection brings together a range of primary sources on Victorian material and
