Off The Wall Fashion From East Germany 1964 To 1980:

Off the Wall Bloomsbury, 2005-11-15 East Germany may be most remembered for the activities of the Stasi but now for the first time its secret short flirtation with fashion is revealed For a short period the notoriously repressive bureaucrats who ran East Germany decided to bring some color into their otherwise drab lives They commissioned two photographers hired St Pauli Girls as models and chose the locations that represented their greatest socialist achievements oil refineries worker canteens concrete office buildings airports to shoot their daring photographs The result cunning and original uses for tartan little hats and jaunty caps bold florals and more swatches of pumpkin tomato and lemon yellow than you might find at a country fair For years these alarming examples of a zeitgeist unleashed have been hidden from Western eyes but not anymore From blindingly bright mod go go girls to demure peasant lasses posed with that most German of animals the Llama these images reveal another side of what went on behind the Berlin Wall World Clothing and Fashion Mary Ellen

Snodgrass, 2015-03-17 Taking a global multicultural social and economic perspective this work explores the diverse and colourful history of human attire From prehistoric times to the age of globalization articles cover the evolution of clothing utility style production and commerce including accessories shoes hats gloves handbags and jewellery for men women and children Dress for different climates occupations recreational activities religious observances rites of passages and other human needs and purposes from hunting and warfare to sports and space exploration are examined in depth and detail Fashion and design trends in diverse historical periods regions and countries and social and ethnic groups constitute a major area of coverage as does the evolution of materials from animal fur to textiles to synthetic fabrics and production methods from sewing and weaving to industrial manufacturing and computer aided design Dress as a reflection of social status intellectual and artistic trends economic conditions cultural exchange and modern media marketing are recurring themes Influential figures and institutions in fashion design industry and manufacturing retail sales production technologies and related fields are also covered
