Offending Women Power Punishment And The Regulation Of Desire:

Offending Women Lynne Haney, 2010-02-10 Offending Women is an eye opening journey into the lived reality of prison for women in the United States today Lynne Haney looks at incarcerated mothers housed together with their children who are serving terms in alternative community based prisons a type of facility that is becoming increasingly widespread Incorporating vivid sometimes shocking observations of daily life she probes the dynamics of power over women's minds and bodies that play out in two such institutions in California She finds that these alternative prisons contrary to their aims often end up disempowering women transforming their social vulnerabilities into personal pathologies and pushing them into a state of disenfranchisement Uncovering the complex gendered underpinning of methods of control and intervention used in the criminal justice system today Offending Women links that system to broader discussions on contemporary government and state power asks why these strategies have arisen at this particular moment in time and considers what forms of citizenship they have given rise to

Offending Women Lynne Allison Haney, 2010 Lynne Haney is already an important voice in the sociology of welfare but this book marks her debut as a major figure in the sociology of punishment and the study of governmentality Offending Women is a fascinating work that combines rich ethnographic detail with a structural account of the changing contours of contemporary governance Its original contributions to prison ethnography women's studies and the sociology of the penal welfare state will make it a reference point in each of these disciplines David Garland author of The Culture of Control Offending Women is an exemplary piece of work Haney's writing is engaging crisp and smart She brilliantly assesses the various intentions of the state and incarcerated women and clarifies how these intentions are based on orientations toward punishment and healing that demand fundamental rethinking Rickie Solinger author of Pregnancy and Power and co editor of Interrupted Life Experiences of Incarcerated Women in the United States Lynne Haney brings together her stupendous skills as an ethnographer and her theoretical insights into how states work to explain how the treatment of imprisoned women has changed over the past decade An altogether brilliant book Myra Marx Ferree University of Wisconsin

The Oxford Handbook of U.S. Women's Social Movement Activism Holly J. McCammon, Verta Taylor, Jo Reger, Rachel L. Einwohner, 2017-05-05 Over the course of thirty seven chapters including an editorial introduction this handbook provides a comprehensive examination of scholarly research and knowledge on a variety of aspects of women's collective activism in the United States tracing both continuities and critical changes over time Women have played pivotal and far reaching roles in bringing about significant societal change and women activists come from an array of different demographics backgrounds and perspectives including those that are radical liberal and conservative The chapters in the handbook consider women's activism in the interest of women themselves as well as actions done on behalf of other social groups The volume is organized into five sections The first looks at U S Women's Social Activism over time from the women's suffrage movement to the ERA radical feminism third wave feminism intersectional feminism and global feminism Part two

Holding On Tasseli McKay, Megan Comfort, Christine Lindquist, Anupa Bir, 2019-07-30 Holding On reveals the results of an unprecedented ten year study of justice involved families rendering visible the lives of a group of American families whose experiences are too often lost in large scale demographic research Using new data from the Multi site Family Study on Incarceration Parenting and Partnering a groundbreaking study of almost two thousand families incorporating a series of couples based surveys and qualitative interviews over the course of three years Holding On sheds rich new light on the parenting and intimate relationships of justice involved men challenging long standing boundaries between research on incarceration and on the well being of low income families Boldly proposing that the failure to recognize the centrality of incarcerated men s roles as fathers and partners has helped to justify a system that removes them from their families and hides that system s costs to parents partners and children Holding On considers how research that breaks the false dichotomy between offender and parent inmate and partner and victim and perpetrator might help to inform a next generation of public policies that truly support vulnerable families

The SAGE Handbook of Resistance David Courpasson, Steven Vallas, 2016-09-19 Chosen by Library Journal as one of the best reference texts of 2016 Occupy Indignados The Tea Party The Arab Spring Anonymous These and other terms have become part of an emerging lexicon in recent years signalling an important development that has gripped many parts of the world millions of people are increasingly involved whether directly or indirectly in movements of resistance and protestation However resistance and its conceptual companions protest contestation opposition disobedience and mobilization all seem to be still mostly seen in public and private discourses as illegitimate and problematic forms of action The time is therefore ripe to delve into the concerns themes and legitimacy The SAGE Handbook of Resistance offers theoretical essays enabling readers to forge their own perspectives of what is resistance and emphasizes the empirical and experiential dimension of resistance making strong choices in terms of how contemporary topics related to resistance help to rethink our societies as protest societies The coverage is divided into six key sub sections Foundations Sites of Resistance Technologies of Resistance Languages of Resistance Geographies of Resistance Consequences of Resistance

Building the Prison State Heather Schoenfeld,2024-05-31 The United States incarcerates more people per capita than any other industrialized nation in the world about 1 in 100 adults or more than 2 million people while national spending on prisons has catapulted 400 percent Given the vast racial disparities in incarceration the prison system also reinforces race and class divisions How and why did we become the world s leading jailer And what can we as a society do about it Reframing the story of mass incarceration Heather Schoenfeld illustrates how the unfinished task of full equality for African Americans led to a series of policy choices that expanded the government s power to punish even as they were designed to protect individuals from arbitrary state violence Examining civil rights protests prison condition lawsuits sentencing reforms the War on Drugs and the rise of conservative Tea Party politics Schoenfeld explains why politicians veered from skepticism of prisons to an embrace of incarceration as the appropriate response to crime To reduce the number of people behind bars Schoenfeld argues that we must transform the political incentives for imprisonment and develop a new ideological basis for punishment

Redistributing the Poor Armando Lara-Millán,2021 Whenever the topic of large jails and public hospitals in urban America is raised a single idea comes to mind It is widely believed that because we as a society have disinvested from public health the sick and poor now find themselves within the purview of criminal justice institutions In Redistributing the Poor ethnographer and historical sociologist Armando Lara Mill n takes us into the day to day operations of running the largest hospital and jail system in the world and argues that such received wisdom is a drastic mischaracterization of the way that states govern urban poverty at the turn of the 21st century Rather than focus on our underinvestment of health and overinvestment of criminal justice his idea of redistributing the poor draws attention to how state agencies circulate people between different institutional spaces in such a way that generates revenue for some agencies cuts costs for others and projects illusions that services have been legally rendered By centering the state's use of redistribution Lara Mill n shows how certain forms of social suffering the premature death of mainly poor people of color are not a result of the state's failure to act but instead the necessary outcome of so called successful policy

The Handbook of Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Ramiro Martinez, Jr., Meghan E. Hollis, Jacob I. Stowell, 2018-06-08 This Handbook presents current and future studies on the changing dynamics of the role of immigrants and the impact of immigration across the United States and industrialized and developing nations It covers the changing dynamics of race ethnicity and immigration and discusses how it all contributes to variations in crime policing and the overall justice system Through acknowledging that some groups especially people of color are disproportionately influenced more than others in the case of criminal justice reactions the War on Drugs and hate crimes this Handbook introduces the importance of studying race and crime so as to better understand it It does so by recommending that researchers concentrate on ethnic diversity in a national and international context in order to broaden their demographic and expand their understanding of how to attain global change Featuring contributions from top experts in the field The Handbook of Race and Crime is presented in five sections An Overview of Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice Theoretical Perspectives on Race and Crime Race Gender and the Justice System Gender and Crime and Race Gender and Comparative Criminology Each section of the book addresses a key area of research summarizes findings or shortcomings whenever possible and provides new results relevant to race crime and justice Every contribution is written by a top expert in the field and based on the latest research With a sharp focus on contemporary race ethnicity crime and justice studies The Handbook of Race and Crime is the ideal reference for advanced undergraduate students graduate students and scholars interested in the disciplines such as Criminology Race and Ethnicity Race and the Justice System and the Sociology of Race

Trapped in a Vice Alexandra Cox, 2018-01-30 Trapped in a Vice explores the consequences of a juvenile justice system that is aimed at promoting change in the lives of young people yet ultimately relies upon tools and strategies that enmesh them in a system that they struggle to move beyond The system rather than the crimes themselves is the vice Trapped in a Vice explores the lives of the young people and adults in the criminal justice system revealing the ways that they struggle to manage the expectations of that system these stories from the ground level of the justice system demonstrate the complex exchange of policy and practice

Prisons of Debt Prof.

Lynne Haney, 2022-05-10 A profound portrait of the hidden injustices that trap fathers in a cycle of punishment and debt In the first study of its kind sociologist Lynne Haney travels into state institutions across the country to document the experiences of the millions of fathers cycling through the criminal justice and child support systems Prisons of Debt shows how these systems work together to create complex entanglements rather than piling up in men's lives these entanglements form feedback loops of disadvantage The prison child support pipeline flows in both directions deepening parents' debt and criminal justice involvement Through moving accounts of men struggling to be fathers from behind prison walls and under the weight of support debt Prisons of Debt exposes how the criminalization of child support undermines the most essential of familial relationships Haney argues that these state systems can end up producing exactly the kind of parent they fear and loathe bitter unreliable and cyclical fathers Based on observations of 1 200 child support cases and interviews with 145 indebted fathers in New York California and Florida Prisons of Debt reveals the actual practices of child support adjudication and enforcement alongside the lived realities of fathers trapped in those systems The result is a rigorously documented analysis of how poor men are too often denied their rights of citizenship and of fatherhood

Wayward Girls in Victorian and Edwardian England Tahane Alghrani, 2024-04-04 Exploring the reform and regulation of juvenile females in the Victorian and early Edwardian era this book presents the first hand experiences of incarcerated girls to shed new light on youth criminalisation in the past and the present Focusing on three industrial schools in Bristol and Manchester Wayward Girls in Victorian Era pays particular attention to gender age and class to understand how these factors impacted an individual's passage through the Victorian juvenile system Using both qualitative and quantitative data it examines representations of deviance and immorality as well as behaviour regulation to bring girls into a field of study previously dominated by male and adult offenders Asking questions about how to reform delinquent juveniles this book also uses history to rethink the present and contribute to current debates about juvenile delinquency and reform

Carceral Mobilities

Jennifer Turner, Kimberley Peters, 2016-12-01 Mobilities research is now centre stage in the social sciences with wide ranging work that considers the politics underscoring the movements of people and objects critically examining a world that is ever on the move At first glance the words carceral and mobilities seem to sit uneasily together This book challenges the assumption that carceral life is characterised by a lack of movement Carceral Mobilities brings together contributions that speak to contemporary debates across carceral studies and mobilities research offering fresh insights to both areas by identifying and unpicking the manifold mobilities that shape and are shaped by carceral regimes It features four sections that move the reader through the varying typologies of motion underscoring carceral life tension circulation distribution and transition Each mobilities led section seeks to explore the politics encapsulated in specific regimes of carceral movement With contributions from leading scholars and a range of international examples this book provides an authoritative voice on carceral mobilities from a variety of perspectives including criminology sociology history cultural theory human geography and urban planning This book offers a first port of call for those examining spaces of detention asylum imprisonment and containment who are increasingly interested in questions of movement in relation to the management control and confinement of populations Making Motherhood Work Caitlyn Collins,2020-05-05

The work family conflict that mothers experience today is a national crisis Women struggle to balance breadwinning with the bulk of parenting and social policies aren't helping Of all Western industrialized countries the United States ranks dead last for supportive work family policies Can American women look to Europe for solutions Making Motherhood Work draws on interviews that Caitlyn Collins conducted over five years with 135 middle class working mothers in Sweden Germany Italy and the United States She explores how women navigate work and family given the different policy supports available in each country Taking readers into women's homes neighborhoods and workplaces Collins shows that mothers' expectations depend on context and that policies alone cannot solve women's struggles With women held to unrealistic standards the best solutions demand that we redefine motherhood work and family Female Offenders and Reentry Lisa M. Carter,Catherine D. Marcum,2017-07-20

Often research concerning the female offender is scarce This book adds to the criminological literature on the topic of reentry for women focusing on the barriers women face as they return to society and adjust to life after incarceration Each chapter addresses specific issues challenges and obstacles affiliated with the hindrance of successful reentry processes associated with female offenders as well as data driven empirical studies While corrections has often misunderstood or overlooked the needs of returning offenders the shortcomings of the institutions have a greater impact on women than on their male counterparts particularly regarding the occurrence of social and medical problems especially those related to mental health and substance abuse Female Offenders and Reentry helps criminal justice students and practitioners see the full picture when considering the challenges faced by female offenders reintegrating into society The Bloomsbury

Handbook of Religion, Gender and Sexuality Sonya Sharma,Dawn Llewellyn,Sían Hawthorne,2024-06-13 Bringing together disciplines across the arts humanities and social sciences this Handbook presents novel and lively examinations of the dynamic ways religion gender and sexuality operate Applying feminist intersectional and reflexive approaches the volume aims to loosen imperialist and exclusionary figurations that have underwritten and tethered religion gender and sexuality together While holding onto the field of inquiry the Handbook offers contributions that interrogate and untie it from the terms and conditions that have formed it The volume is organized into thematic sections Forces and Futures Activisms and Labors Agencies and Practices Relationships and Institutions Texts and Objects Chapters range across religious geographical historical political and social contexts and feature an array of case studies experiences and topics that exemplify the reflexive intention of the volume including explorations of race whiteness colonialism and the institutional intolerance of minority groups Contributors also advance new areas of research in religion including artificial intelligence farming migrant mothering child sexual abuse mediatization national security legal frameworks addiction and recovery decolonial hermeneutics creative arts sport sexual practices and academic friendship This is an essential contribution to the fields of religious studies and gender and sexuality studies Disciplining the Poor Joe Soss, Richard C. Fording, Sanford F. Schram, 2011-10-20 Disciplining the Poor explains the transformation of poverty governance over the past forty years why it happened how it works today and how it affects people In the process it clarifies the central role of race in this transformation and develops a more precise account of how race shapes poverty governance in the post civil rights era Connecting welfare reform to other policy developments the authors analyze diverse forms of data to explicate the racialized origins operations and consequences of a new mode of poverty governance that is simultaneously neoliberal grounded in market principles and paternalist focused on telling the poor what is best for them The study traces the process of rolling out the new regime from the federal level to the state and county level down to the differences in ways frontline case workers take disciplinary actions in individual cases The result is a compelling account of how a neoliberal paternalist regime of poverty governance is disciplining the poor today Enforcing Freedom Kerwin Kaye, 2019-12-17 In 1989 the first drug treatment court was established in Florida inaugurating an era of state supervised rehabilitation Such courts have frequently been seen as a humane alternative to incarceration and the war on drugs Enforcing Freedom offers an ethnographic account of drug courts and mandatory treatment centers as a system of coercion demonstrating how the state uses notions of rehabilitation as a means of social regulation Situating drug courts in a long line of state projects of race and class control Kerwin Kaye details the ways in which the violence of the state is framed as beneficial for those subjected to it He explores how courts decide whether to release or incarcerate participants using nominally colorblind criteria that draw on racialized imagery Rehabilitation is defined as preparation for low wage labor and the destruction of community ties with bad influences a process that turns participants against one another At the same time Kaye points toward the complex ways in which participants negotiate state control in relation to other forms of constraint in their lives sometimes embracing the state's salutary violence as a means of countering their impoverishment Simultaneously sensitive to ethnographic detail and theoretical implications Enforcing Freedom offers a critical perspective on the punitive side of criminal justice reform and points toward alternative paths forward
