churchgoers rarely if ever think to question it scholarly research shows with the utmost clarity that from a historical standpoint Jesus was not raised from the dead In fact it is almost universally recognized among scholars of New Testament textual criticism that the gospel narratives describing the resurrection appearances are not reliable eyewitness accounts but expressions of faith written by the first Christian believers long after the death of Jesus In this thorough exegesis of the primary texts dealing with the resurrection of Jesus New Testament expert Gerd L demann University of G ttingen presents compelling evidence that shows the resurrection was not a historical event and further argues that this development leaves little if any basis for Christian faith as presently defined Beginning with Paul s testimony in 1 Cor 15 3 8 in which the apostle declares that Jesus has been raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures L demann systematically evaluates every reference to Jesus resurrection in the New Testament as well as apocryphal literature He examines the purpose of the text writers the ways in which they reworked tradition and the historical value of each account Through this approach he offers a reconstruction of the probable course of events as well as the circumstances surrounding Jesus death on the cross the burial of his body his reported resurrection on the third day and subsequent appearances to various disciples Since the historical evidence leads to the firm conclusion that Jesus body was not raised from the dead L demann argues that the origin of the Easter faith must be sought in the visionary experiences of Christianity s two leading apostles From a modern perspective this leads to the inescapable conclusion that both primary witnesses to Jesus resurrection Peter and Paul were victims of self deception In conclusion he asks whether in light of the nonhistoricity of Jesus resurrection thinking people today can legitimately and in good conscience still call themselves Christians Gerd L demann is a professor of the history and literature of early Christianity at the University of G ttingen Germany Professor L demann s published conclusions about Christianity aroused great controversy in his native Germany where the Confederation of Protestant Churches in Lower Saxony demanded his immediate dismissal from the theological faculty of his university Despite this threat to his academic freedom he has retained his post at the university although the chair he holds was renamed to disassociate him from the training program of German pastors L demann is also the author of Jesus After 2000 Years Paul The Founder of Christianity and The Resurrection of Christ A Historical Inquiry The Athenaeum ,1857 Athenaeum ,1858 An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures Thomas Hartwell Horne,1852 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1857 The Literary World Evert Augustus Duykinck,Charles Fenno Hoffman,George Long Duykinck,1847 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America,2002 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1836
