Old Beijing Postcards From The Imperial City:

Old Beijing Felicitas Titus, 2012-11-27 This collection of rare and vintage postcards offers a unique look at a vanished China and its storied capital. Comprising 355 black and white and hand tinted Beijing photography postcards that span the period from the last years of Imperial China to the Japanese invasion of 1937, it is a treasure trove for buffs of Beijing history, collectors, Sinophiles, and anyone fascinated by people and cultures from times past. Readers will enjoy the wide selection of images showing different aspects of the life of old Peking: from the arrival of a camel train at a city gate to hand-colored views of the Forbidden City and an array of vendors, street performers, officials, gentry, commoners, and foreign tourists. Several chapters present the city's distinctive Beijing architecture: its walls and gates, towers, fountains, temples, pagodas, memorial arches, and public or imperial buildings, including the Summer and Winter Palaces and the Ming Tombs. Other chapters of Chinese photography look at the Manchu rulers, street life, the Legation Quarter, and Western presence and the Great Wall. Included are some rare scenes depicting the aftermath of the Boxer Rebellion and 1911 revolution, Manchu fashion, colorful means of transportation, and the coming of the railroad. Of particular note are images of the Empress Dowager, the child emperor Puyi, and other personalities at the Manchu Court. The book also includes eight color postcards of paintings by the famous artist Carl Wuttke and rare cards showing etched drawings of the Old Summer Palace, now only a field of ruins. The author, who was born and lived in China before 1949, has written an informative introduction to each chapter as well as a general introduction to classical Beijing. A foreword by historian and Beijing expert Susan Naquin situates this collection at once as a precious record of old Peking and a revealing snapshot of Western views of China in the first golden age of tourism. Old Beijing Postcards from the Imperial City offers a visual time capsule of both Beijing's history and traditional Chinese culture in a unique and revealing postcard format. Vintage Postcards from the African World Jessica B. Harris, 2020-05-15

For over forty years, professor and culinary historian Jessica B. Harris has collected postcards depicting Africans and their descendants in the American diaspora. They are presented for the first time in this exquisite volume Vintage Postcards from the African World: In the Dignity of Their Work and the Joy of Their Play, which brings together more than 150 images providing a visual document of more than a century of work in agricultural and culinary pursuits and joy in entertainments, parades, and celebrations. Organized by geography (Africa, the Caribbean, and the United States) as well as by the types of scenes depicted (the farm, the garden, and the sea; the marketplace; the vendors; and the cooks, leisure, entertainments, and festivities), the images capture the dignity of the labors of everyday life and the pride of festive occasions. Superb and rare images demonstrate everything from how Africans and their descendants dressed to what tools they used to how their entertainments provided relief from toil. Three essays accompany the postcards: one of which details Harris's collection and the collecting process; a second presents suggestions on how to interpret the cards; a final essay gives brief information on the history of postcards and postcard dating and its increasing use and value to scholars. Water Lords Lei Zhang, 2025-02-27 Water Lords presents the untold story of drinking water and its carriers in Beijing from the imperial Qing to the Republican period. It adds an ecological perspective to existing studies by foregrounding water as a distinctive force that shaped urban life in the realms of technology, society and politics. With this book, Lei Zhang makes a new and meaningful contribution to the field of Chinese environmental history by attending to water as a daily necessity and examining the previously neglected arrangements that provided urban denizens with predictable access to this critical resource. Bygone Shanghai: A Postcard History from 1890 to 1945 Felicitas Titus, 2017-03-22. A beautiful comprehensive collection of antique China and Shanghai specific postcards which takes you through the colonial era of China 1890-1945. The text is written by Felicitas Titus, M.A. in German and French Languages from U.C. Berkeley who was born and raised in China during the years of 1925-1950 and who is an expert on Chinese history. Her commentary provides just enough explanation of the events and people of that period to make the postcards come alive. The entire book is filled with historically significant and lovely images capturing Chinese life at that time. Fashion, Identity, and Power in Modern Asia Kyunghye Pyun, Aida Yuen Wong, 2018-10-25. This edited volume on radical dress reforms in East Asia takes a fresh look at the symbols and languages of modernity in dress and body. Dress reform movements around the turn of the twentieth century in the region have received little critical attention as a multicultural discourse of labor, body, gender, identity, colonialism and government authority. With contributions by leading experts of costume, textile history of China, Korea and Japan, this book presents up-to-date scholarship using diverse methodologies in costume history, history of consumption and international trade. Thematically organized into sections exploring the garments and uniforms, accessories, fabrics and fashion styles of Asia, this edited volume offers case studies for students and scholars in an ever-expanding field of material culture including but not limited to economic history, visual culture, art history, history of journalism and popular culture. Fashion, Identity, and Power in Modern Asia stimulates further research on the impact of modernity and imperialism in neglected areas such as military uniform, school uniform, women's accessories, hairstyles and textile trade. Pacific Strife Kees Dijk, 2025-10-01. In the late 1800s and early 1900s, colonial powers clashed over much of Central and East Asia. Great Britain and Germany fought over New Guinea, the Bismarck Archipelago, Fiji and Samoa. France and Great Britain competed over control of continental Southwest Asia, and the United States annexed the Philippines and Hawaii. Meanwhile, the possible disintegration of China and Japan's growing nationalism added new dimensions to the rivalries. Surveying these and other international developments in the Pacific basin during the three decades preceding World War I, Kees van Dijk traces the emergence of superpowers during the colonial race and analyzes their conduct as they struggled for territory. Extensive in scope, Pacific Strife is a fascinating look at a volatile moment in history. Brides from Bridewell Walter Hart Blumenthal, 1998-10-15. Brides from Bridewell is the story of the female felons from England and France who were sent to Colonial America to serve their prison sentences. It sets forth the harsh, often inhuman, penal conditions then prevailing in those lands and the fact that these thousands of feminine felons constituted one of the primary marital elements in the mothering of early America Many women whose offenses were minor were deported Others were confessed criminals The facts constitute one of the neglected or hidden retrospects to the American past Descent from the Mayflower lineage is stressed by genealogists but the fact is forgotten that many unknowing present day Americans of colonial descent derive their American beginnings from female prisoners sent against their will Says the author Many of the transported felons after their servitude had expired became reputable dwellers in the new environment and if not they then their offspring No stigma attaches to their descendants But the tale needs telling
