Always Becoming, Never Arriving David J. Mulder, 2024-12-19 Does Jesus care how I arrange the desks in my classroom How I evaluate student work The way I interact with students and colleagues What if all these small moment by moment classroom decisions a Christian teacher makes are actually the evidence of living discipleship Teaching Christianly does not just happen it is the result of deliberate choices to work toward shrinking the gap between what we say we believe and what we actually do in our teaching This book is an exploration of the teaching profession through the lens of living out our calling through teaching as discipleship Whether you are new to the profession or a seasoned veteran you will find ideas to expand your imagination about what teaching Christianly looks like considering topics that run the range from professionalism and ethics to a biblical view of learners and learning to content knowledge and curriculum to planning instruction and assessment Teaching Christianly is a journey a process of growing as a more faithful disciple and more closely following Jesus day by day Learning to teach Christianly is an adventure of always becoming and never arriving until that day when we meet the Lord face to face Welcome to the adventure

Working At Night Ger Duijzings, Lucie Dušková, 2022-10-03 The night represents almost universally a special liminal or out of the ordinary temporal zone with its own meanings possibilities and dangers and political cultural religious and social implications Only in the modern era was the night systematically colonised and nocturnal activity normalised in terms of industrial labour and production processes Although the globalised 24/7 economy is usually seen as the outcome of capitalist modernisation development and expansion starting in the late nineteenth century other consecutive and more recent political and economic systems adopted perpetual production systems as well extending work into the night and forcing workers to work the night shift normalising it as part of an alternative non capitalist modernity This volume draws attention to the extended work hours and night shift work which have remained underexplored in the history of labour and the social science literature By describing and comparing various political and economic regimes it argues that from the viewpoint of global labour history night labour and the spread of 24/7 production and services should not be seen only and exclusively as an epiphenomenon of capitalist production but rather as one of the outcomes of industrial modernity Saints Herald, 1888
