Nathaniel Hawthorne presents an evocative collection of reflections and writings that capture his observations during his time in Europe. Characterized by a richly poetic style, the text seamlessly weaves narrative and observation, showcasing Hawthorne's keen insight into human nature, culture, and the landscapes of France and Italy. This work stands as a testament to the author's appreciation for the subtleties of beauty and his philosophical musings, positioning it within the broader context of 19th-century American literature, where the exploration of identity and experience was gaining momentum. Hawthorne, an emblematic figure of American Romanticism, was profoundly influenced by his Puritan heritage and his fascination with morality, sin, and redemption. His travels through Europe, particularly in France and Italy, provided him not only inspiration for his literary endeavors but also a lens through which to examine his own life and the complexities of human existence. These notebooks reveal the depth of his introspection and his struggle with the balance between personal conviction and societal pressures, reflecting the profound impact these experiences had on his writing. This exquisite collection is highly recommended for readers who wish to delve deeper into Hawthorne's thoughts and stylistic evolution, offering a unique glimpse into the mind of one of America's greatest literary figures. It serves not only as a travelogue but as a philosophical exploration, making it a treasure trove for anyone interested in the intersections of place, identity, and human emotion.

Passages from the English Notebooks Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2017-10-06

Nathaniel Hawthorne was an American novelist, dark romantic, and short story writer. He was born in 1804 in Salem, Massachusetts, to Nathaniel Hathorne and the former Elizabeth Clarke Manning. His ancestors include John Hathorne, the only judge involved in the Salem witch trials who never repented of his actions. Nathaniel later added a 'w' to make his name Hawthorne in order to hide this relation. He entered Bowdoin College in 1821, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa in 1824, and graduated in 1825. He published his first work in 1828, the novel Fanshawe; he later tried to suppress it, feeling that it was not equal to the standard of his later work. He published several short stories in periodicals, which he collected in 1837 as Twice Told Tales. The next year he became engaged to Sophia Peabody. He worked at the Boston Custom House and joined Brook Farm, a transcendentalist community, before marrying Peabody in 1842. The couple moved to The Old Manse in Concord, Massachusetts, later moving to Salem, the Berkshires, then to The Wayside in Concord. The Scarlet Letter was published in 1850, followed by a succession of other novels. A political appointment as consul took Hawthorne and family to Europe before their return to Concord in 1860. Hawthorne died on May 19, 1864, and was survived by his wife and their three children. Much of Hawthorne's writing centers on New England, many works featuring moral metaphors with an anti-Puritan inspiration. His fiction works are considered part of the Romantic movement and more specifically dark romanticism. His themes often center on the inherent evil and sin of humanity, and his works often have moral messages and deep psychological complexity. His published works include novels, short stories, and a biography of his college friend Franklin Pierce, the 14th President of the United States.

Passages from The English Notebooks of Nathaniel Hawthorne Nathaniel Hawthorne,1871 Passages from the French and Italian Notebooks, Complete Nathaniel Hawthorne,2015-12-24 As one of America s most famous writers and novelists Nathaniel Hawthorne needs no formal introduction He worked at a Custom House and joined Brook Farm a transcendentalist community before marrying Peabody in 1842 The couple moved to The Old Manse in Concord Massachusetts later moving to Salem the Berkshires then to The Wayside in Concord The Scarlet Letter was published in 1850 followed by a succession of other novels A political appointment took Hawthorne and family to Europe before their return to The Wayside in 1860 Hawthorne died on May 19 1864 leaving behind his wife and their three children Much of Hawthorne s writing centers on New England many works featuring moral allegories with a Puritan inspiration His fiction works are considered part of the Romantic movement and more specifically dark romanticism His themes often center on the inherent evil and sin of humanity and his works often have moral messages and deep psychological complexity Even today several of them are considered examples of the finest American literature Passages from the French and Italian Notebooks, Complete Nathaniel Hawthorne,2010-01 Imperfectionist Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life Peter Cheyne,2022-12-30 This book presents interdisciplinary research on the aesthetics of perfection and imperfection Broadening this growing field it connects the aesthetics of imperfection with issues in areas including philosophy music literature urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies The contributors to this volume argue that imperfection has value in being open and inclusive The aesthetics of imperfection is typified by organic unpolished production and the avoidance of perfect finish instead representing living and natural change and opposing the consumerist concern with the flawless and pristine The chapters are divided into seven thematic sections After the first section on imperfection across the arts and culture the next three parts are on imperfection in the arts of music visual and theatrical arts and literature The second half of this book then moves to categories in everyday life and branches this further into body self and the person and urban environments Together the chapters promote a positive ethos of imperfection that furthers individual and social engagement and supports creativity over mere passivity Imperfectionist Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life will appeal to a broad range of scholars and advanced students working in philosophical aesthetics literature music urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies
