Sensational Piety Murtala Ibrahim,2022-08-11 Grounded in anthropological comparison and the concept of materiality this book offers an in depth ethnographic study of the similarities and differences among various forms of religious practices in a Pentecostal Church Christ Embassy and an Islamic group NASFAT in the Nigerian capital of Abuja Scholarship in this area tends to focus on inter religious contestations and conflicts however this book proposes that another dynamic is unfolding between Christians and Muslims that is characterised by conviviality interfaith joint action programmes mutual influences and even the exchange of religious forms The comparative approach reveals that notwithstanding the seemingly opposed worldviews and divergences between Muslims and Christians they all face similar challenges and apply similar techniques for meeting the challenges posed by the precarious Nigerian urban environment It is through practices especially those conducted in semi public settings that people from different religious persuasions define encroach on and feel the weight of each other s presence

What the Bible Says Randy L. Henne,2020-11-12 What the Bible Says takes the reader beyond the old familiar Bible stories to examine its fundamental messages What is God like Why is the world in the mess it s in Does God have a solution What does He want us to do Why should we care The Bible is not just a book of ancient stories it has real meaning and purpose for us today

Christianity and Social Change in Contemporary Africa: Volume One B. Nyamnjoh,A. Carpenter,2020-05-25 This volume brings together seven empirically grounded contributions by African social scientists of different disciplinary backgrounds The authors explore the social impact of religious innovation and competition in present day Africa They represent a selection from an interdisciplinary initiative that made 23 research grants for theologians and social scientists to study Christianity and social change in contemporary Africa These contributions focus on a variety of dynamics in contemporary African religion mostly Christianity including gender health and healing social media entrepreneurship and inter religious borrowing and accommodation The volume seeks to enhance understanding of religions vital presence and power in contemporary Africa It reveals problems as well as possibilities notably some ethical concerns and psychological maladies that arise in some of these new movements notably neo Pentecostal and militant fundamentalist groups Yet the contributions do not fixate on African problems and victimization Instead they explore sources of African creativity resiliency and agency The book calls on scholars of religion and religiosity in Africa to invest new conceptual and methodological energy in understanding what it means to be actively religious in Africa today
