Eyer, 2014-05-02 Pastoral Care Under the Cross points to the cross as the paradigm for pastoral care when counseling suffering people This book offers insight that is useful not only for pastors but also Christian counselors chaplains nurses doctors and social workers who interact with the elderly dying mourning mentally ill or depressed The expanded edition features A variety of common pastoral situations Christian responses to medical ethical questions Resources for pastoral care of those suffering from difficulties of body or mind Counseling Under the Cross Bob Kellemen, 2017-08-14 Martin Luther not only reformed theology Luther reformed pastoral counseling Through lively vignettes real life stories and direct quotes from Luther Counseling Under the Cross equips us to apply the gospel richly relevantly and robustly to suffering and sin so that we find our hope and help in Christ alone Pastoral Care, Health, Healing, and Wholeness in African Contexts Tapiwa N. Mucherera, Emmanuel Y. Lartey, 2017-02-28 Pastoral theologians from Congo Ghana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe address in this book the issues of leadership Ubuntu community gender based violence political violence healing and deliverance faced by pastors and ministers in African contexts today Drawing on biblical theological social scientific and cultural contextual perspectives these African Christians offer much needed insights to assist in the care and counseling of persons towards healing health and well being Clothed in Nothingness Leonard M. Hummel, Clothed in Nothingness provides practical and theological considerations for pastoral care and insights from the Lutheran tradition for coping with suffering The Living Church, 1943 The American Church Almanac and Year Book, 1911 Crimes of the Cross Anne Manne, 2024-03-26 A searing expose of institutional child abuse and the remarkable story of the survivors who would not be silenced A unique story of pain and triumph told superbly by Anne Manne who follows victims of abuse as they shatter an old alliance between leading citizens of Newcastle and its Anglican cathedral on the hill which for decades protected brazen paedophile priests In all the writing of the last few years about clerical child abuse there s nothing like Crimes of the Cross David Marr For many years Newcastle was the centre of a sinister paedophile network run by members of the Anglican Church and protected by parishioners and community members who looked the other way In this gripping book Anne Manne reveals how this network avoided detection for so long and how its ringleaders were finally exposed and brought to justice At the heart of the story is a survivor Steve Smith who endured years of childhood abuse but refused to be silenced Drawing on extensive research and interviews with survivors clergy lay people police and others Manne explores how the network operated and how it became entrenched in the upper echelons of Newcastle society She offers deep insights into the minds and strategies of abusers and pays tribute to the victims and their tireless struggle for justice Child sexual abuse has previously been thought of as an individual crime Manne pioneers an examination of it as part of a network This is an unforgettable story of courage in the face of unthinkable evil This story gripped me from the first page and refused to let go The courage expressed the clear criminality within the Anglican Church the vividness of the writing all of it has remained with me ever since This book is a singular achievement and I cannot recommend it more highly Jess Hill I found myself repeatedly moved by Anne Manne's tenderness towards Steve Smith and her moral incredulity in the face of the conduct of representatives of the church Scott Stephens Australian Book Review told in clear heart rending prose while Manne lays bare the egregious attempts by some diocese figures to protect and excuse the perpetrators Jason Steger Sydney Morning Herald Manne has immersed herself in the diocese and in the victims stories Her narrative is all the more powerful for being mostly matter of fact and unemotional The bald narrative contains all the power she needs and I confess it brought me to tears several times Barney Zwartz The Age Shortlisted for the 2024 Walkley Book Award Longlisted for the 2024 Australian Political Book of the Year Longlisted for the 2024 Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award Funeral Rites Reformation for Any African Ethnic Community Based on the Proposed New Funeral Practices for the Agikuyu Johnson Nganga Mbugua,2016-06-17 This book has been written on the premise that the mode of coping with death of virtually all African ethnic communities has taken proportions and turns that are neither cultural scriptural nor necessary Current rites are complicated time consuming expensive and are leaving most families and their neighbors impoverished They have been extremely commercialized and a large number of Africans do not have resources to bury their dead the modern way Were the Agikuyu read Africans to curb numerous funeral demands which they deem necessary and customary when in actual fact they are not funerals for them would become cheaper faster and simpler would be decent enough for the dead would take care of those left behind and would be environmentally friendly How Africans in the Diaspora away from their ancestral homeland should cope with death is also addressed Also addressed is the issue of cremation It is shown that at the resurrection God will accord us new spiritual bodies which will have no bearing with the material substance of our earthly mortal bodies The Works of Augustus Toplady ... of the reign of Fernando III king of Castile León from 1217-1252. The essays collected here address the conquest of al-Andalus and the policies of Fernando III, Christian-Muslim relations in the Peninsula, the creation and curation of royal networks of power, the role of women at the Castilian court, and the impact of religious change in Castile León. Assembling an international group of eleven leading scholars on this period of Iberian history, this volume combines military and religious history with a variety of novel approaches and methodologies to ask new and exciting questions about the reign of Fernando III and his place in medieval European history. Journal of the ... Annual Convention, Diocese of New York, 1911. Fiji and the Fijians Thomas Williams, James Calvert, 1859. New York's Burned-over District Spencer W. McBride, Jennifer Hull Dorsey, 2023-08-15. In New York's Burned over District, Spencer W. McBride and Jennifer Hull Dorsey invite readers to experience the early American revivals and reform movements through the eyes of the revivalists and the reformers themselves. Between 1790 and 1860, the mass migration of white settlers into New York State contributed to a historic Christian revival. This renewed spiritual interest and fervor occurred in particularly high concentration in central and western New York, where men and women actively sought spiritual awakening and new religious affiliation. Contemporary observers referred to the region as burnt or infected with religious enthusiasm; historians now refer to it as the Burned over District. New York's Burned over District highlights how Christian revivalism transformed the region into a critical hub of social reform in nineteenth-century America. An invaluable compendium of primary sources, this anthology revises standard interpretations of the Burned over District and shows how the putative grassroots movements of the era were often coordinated and regulated by established religious leaders.
