Paths To Justice Paths To Justice:

Paths to Justice Hazel Genn, Sarah Beinart, 1999-11 Effective policy making in the administration of justice requires a solid understanding of public behaviour This book presents the results of the most wide ranging survey ever conducted by an independent body or government agency into the experiences of ordinary citizens as they grapple with the kinds of problems that could ultimately end in the civil courts Funded by the Nuffield Foundation the survey identifies how often people experience problems for which there might be a legal solution and how they set about solving them Revealing crucial differences in the approach taken to different kinds of potential legal problems the study describes the factors that influence decisions about whether and where to seek advice about problems and whether and when to go to law In addition to exploring experiences of courts tribunals and ADR processes the study also provides important insights into public confidence in the courts and the judiciary For the first time the study reveals the public s perspective on access to civil justice and makes a significant contribution to debate about how far civil justice reforms coincide with public experience and expectations about resolving justiciable problems Back cover

The Path of Justice Becca Stevens, 2010-09-01 It s easy to get lost in the busyness of every day But taking a walk and discovering God s presence along the way will bring you back to where you need to be The Walking Bible Study a series of short readings and meditations is your field guide to learning more about Scripture as you travel through nature and life Wherever you walk take it along with you and follow the paths of God Walking changes us it can transport our spirits from being weighed down by life into the joy of God s presence Becca Stevens Each study consists of four sessions Sessions include prayer Scripture Becca s thoughts and stories questions to think about or discuss and activities The Path of Justice Becca teaches that God will let justice roll like a river and that the diversity of nature its order and chaos should call us to walk in humility Nature reveals a just God who will hold creation accountable for its behavior But because God s justice is balanced by love and mercy new creation is all around us and we have reason to celebrate all the springs in our lives

A Handbook for Measuring the Costs and Quality of Access to Justice Martin Gramatikov, 2010 This handbook was developed by the Tilburg Institute for Interdisciplinary Studies of Civil Law and Conflict Resolution Systems The Netherlands It offers practical information on the use of a methodology for measuring the cost and quality of paths to justice from the perspective of users How do clients of justice systems like the way in which their needs and concerns are voiced Do they feel they received sufficient information about the procedure Do they think the outcome was fair and did it help to solve their problem Do they think the procedure was a value for their money How much time did they spend This methodology provides answers to such questions so that citizens using the justice system can voice their needs and providers of justice services can improve their processes

Reimagining Justice, Human Rights and Leadership in Africa Everisto Benyera,2019-08-08 Failed attempts in Africa to develop democratised and instil virtues of a just state and society which promote benevolent leadership and advance political and economic rights and freedoms call for a new imagination By exploring a wide range of issues concerning justice human rights and leadership this book makes two major contributions to the extant literature in each of these areas Firstly as a project in decoloniality it constitutes an epistemic break from mainstream logics and approaches to understanding state society and development in Africa presenting an approach that is filtered through a Euro American lens that reifies the hegemony of a particular spatio temporality In other words it emphasises the importance of situatedness by thinking from rather than about or with Africa And secondly it addresses a fundamental shortcoming in decolonial thought which is often criticised for rejecting western paradigms of thought without providing viable alternatives The issues covered include state failure in Africa the geopolitics of US and NATO military interventions on the continent individual states responses to international law indigenous moral political leadership authentic inclusion of marginalised voices in development practice an endogenous approach to environmental ethics and a spiritualist reflection on the need for Africa to chart her own course to political social and economic redemption By searching for alternative paths to justice human rights and leadership this book represents an effort to actualise the core vision of the African Renaissance to find African solutions for African problems
