Patrons Of Women Literacy Projects And Gender Development In Rural Nepal:

Patrons of Women Esther Hertzog, 2013      Patrons of Women Esther Hertzog, 2011-05-01 Assuming that women's empowerment would accelerate the pace of social change in rural Nepal the World Bank urged the Nepali government to undertake a Gender Activities Project within an ongoing long term water engineering scheme The author an anthropologist specializing in bureaucratic organizations and gender studies was hired to monitor the project Analyzing her own experience as a practicing development expert she demonstrates that the professed goal of women's empowerment is a pretext for promoting economic organizational goals and the interests of local elites She shows how a project intended to benefit women through teaching them literary and agricultural skills fails to provide them with any of the promised resources Going beyond the conventional analysis that positions aid givers vis vis powerless victimized recipients she draws attention to the complexity of the process and the active role played by the Nepalese rural women who pursue their own interests and aspirations within this unequal world The book makes an important contribution to the growing critique of development projects and of women's development projects in particular

Women in Israel Esther Hertzog, 2025-04-01 There are diverse and complex problems faced by women in Israel This book explores women's roles in teachers labor conflicts threatened motherhood within the welfare system bureaucratic encounters faced by Ethiopian immigrant women the lack of political representation amongst women feminist activism against the sex industry and gender power dynamics in gyms It is a comprehensive feminist examination of women's diverse experiences in Israeli society over four decades and analyzes society during this time As an ethnography the book emphasizes a commitment to social justice and equality and challenges prevailing social and gender research approaches

Prostitution, Pornography and Trafficking in Women Esther Hertzog, Erella Shadmi, 2019-01-15 This book critically analyzes the sex industry in Israel using feminist concepts and scholarship to elaborate on the power of prostitution to shape a world in which women are objects for fulfilling men's desires A comprehensive collection of research based articles that examine prostitution trafficking in women and pornography from divergent disciplinary angles it reveals the interconnectedness of these three aspects of the sex trade which objectifies commercializes and exploits human and in particular women's sexuality Showing these practices to be embedded in a capitalist and patriarchal oppressive context that is accommodated by state institutions this volume rejects the argument that it is possible to choose prostitution and that feminist pornography is possible With case studies including the conspicuous context of migration that attracts sex traffickers the liberal discourse introduced by cinema the media and the arts that serve to legitimate prostitution and pornography the chauvinist macho culture that perceives and treats women as sex objects and the issues of male prostitution and men as clients Prostitution Pornography and Trafficking in Women Israel's Blood Money constitutes a study of Israel as a unique context in which the sex trade can prosper in spite of geographical religious and institutional constraints As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology anthropology history cultural studies and gender

Nanda R. Shrestha, Keshav Bhattarai, 2017-02-08 Nepal is a living example of contrasts and contradictions It is a country that was born in medieval times grew up in the 16th century and now finds itself engulfed in the high tech gadgets and material marvels of the 21st century Nepal has its share of problem which include inadequate economic development and social infrastructure poverty and corruption plus worsening pollution but now it finally has relative peace and quiet after a hasty Maoist uprising Indeed it has passed through several democratic elections and finally seems to be getting on the right track This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Nepal contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Nepal Leisure and Cultural Change in Israeli Society Tali Hayosh, Elie Cohen-Gewerc, Gilad Padva, 2020-02-17

Providing an inclusive yet multi layered perspective on leisure cultures in dynamic hegemonic subcultural and countercultural communities this volume investigates the disciplinary and interdisciplinary aspects of leisure studies in the age of mass migration nationalism cultural wars and conflicted societies in Israel Israeli society has struggled with complicated geopolitical intercultural economic and security conditions since the establishment of the State of Israel Consequently the emergent leisure cultures in Israel are vibrant diversified exuberant and multifaceted oscillating between Western and Middle Eastern tendencies The chapters in this edited volume reflect dramatic influences of globalization on Israeli traditions on one hand and emergent local practices that reflect a communal quest of originality and authenticity on the other hand This book opens up a critical perspective on the tension between contested leisure cultures that are interconnected with spatial and temporal changes and interchanges Examining leisure as a part of social interethnic physical gendered and sexual changes the volume is a key text for scholars and students interested in leisure culture Israeli society education cultural and media studies and the Middle East     Humanitarian Rackets and their Moral Hazards Rayyar Marron,2016-04-14 The humanitarian crisis in the Palestinian refugee camps of Lebanon has become one of the most populist causes in the world yet the causes of the crisis have been misrepresented whilst on going humanitarian assistance could arguably be said to amplify problems that exist in the camps Shedding light on the disturbing occurrence of corruption rent seeking and racketeering together with the emergence of zones of privatised territory based on self enrichment this book challenges the conception of refugees in camps as helpless vulnerable individuals Based on detailed and sustained research at the camp of Shatila in Beirut Humanitarian Rackets and their Moral Hazards reveals that even the access of humanitarian agencies to the camp is determined by payment to certain refugee groups whilst the degree of humanitarian interaction has created a sense of entitlement amongst some based on a belief in their own exceptionalism as a displaced ethnic group Detailing the everyday economic transactions that transpire in refugee camps this book shows that far from being helpless victims with no power over their circumstances many Palestinian refugees have created lucrative ventures from humanitarian assistance A rich yet troubling study of refugee life and the cartelisation of camp space this book will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists and political scientists working in the fields of humanitarian intervention development criminology and informal economies     Embracing the Social and the Creative Miriam Ben-Peretz,2013-03-04 The guiding idea of this book concerns the nature of teacher education in the future viewing the understanding of the history of teacher education in different context as the basis for future development Special emphasis is given to matters of race and gender as well as on the special status and roles of teacher education in a globalized uncertain and anxiety ridden world Viewing teacher education as drama provides lenses and insights for the construction of teacher education The book is divided into two parts Part I is entitled Teacher education in the service of change This part presents cases of the role of teacher education in reform movements in different cultures and the impact of social changes across time on teacher education Part II A look into the future societal issues in teacher education focuses on several critical societal issues such as racism feminism and environmental sustainability     Resources in Education ,1990     Funding Virtue Marina Ottaway,2000 The United States and many other international donors have embraced civil society aid as a key tool of democracy promotion This collection of essays analyzes civil society aid in five regions South Africa the Philippines Peru Egypt and Romania focusing on crucial issues and dilemmas     India's Social Sector and SDGs Rangachar Govinda,Poornima M.,2019-10-24 This book explores the intersectional perspective of sustainable social development in key sectors such as education and skill development health and nutrition gender concerns and food security and agriculture in India It delves into contemporary concerns of poverty employment and inclusive growth and social marginalisation and inequality The volume brings together the contributions of various stakeholders from academia research organisations NGOs and policymakers to address social sector issues and sustainable development goals SDGs in the Indian context It reflects on policies strategies and performance in the context of Constitutional goals and the commitment to global SDGs and examines the character and contours of social development in the country Comprehensive and topical this volume will be useful to scholars researchers policymakers and practitioners of development studies political studies sociology and development economics Resources in Education ,1995 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Anthropology Newsletter ,1995 Sociological Abstracts ,1994

British Humanities Index ,1986 Why Eat Green Cucumbers at the Time of Dying? Anna Robinson-Pant,2001 The processes by which women living in rural areas of Nepal acquire literacy and deploy it for their own purposes were examined in an exploration of the diverse perspectives of policymakers fieldworkers and participants in gender literacy and development The study combined ethnography with a research methodology called participatory rural appraisal PRA which began as a development planning methodology based on an empowering process that allows all people including weaker and poorer people to collate present and analyze information The following were among the issues explored approaches to women s literacy in Nepal language policy in literacy programs nongovernmental organizations versus the classroom gender and language policy new versus old approaches to literacy and numeracy teaching and the role of literacy in development ideologies The study documented how factors outside literacy classrooms including facilitators educational background and local concepts about education necessitate adapting literacy practices developed in the West to the specific social contexts of rural areas in developing countries The following are among the items in the 13 appendixes a map of the case study areas examples of PRA activities conducted during fieldwork who s who in HIL Health Is Life and Save notes on the Nepali caste system HIL lesson sheet English name writing method Kosalee mathematics HIL mathematics sheets record forms to be completed by Save women s groups every month and an example of a Save USA funding proposal Contains 195 references MN Nepal Gender Equality and Empowerment of Women Project Asian Development Bank,2016-06-01 Women in Nepal have long experienced poverty social exclusion and marginalization because of their gender especially among ethnic minorities and low caste groups Between 2002 and 2013 the Asian Development Bank and the Government of Nepal developed and implemented the Gender Equality and Empowerment of Women Project to reduce poverty by empowering rural women and members of other disadvantaged groups through an integrated process of economic social legal and political empowerment This publication presents the case study of that project which contributed to Nepal s drive to eradicate gender based inequality Democracy, Gender Equality, and Women's Literacy Sushan Acharya,2004
