Collaborating with Parents to Reduce Children's Behavior Problems Carolyn Webster-Stratton, 2012-07 Approximately 23% of all children referred to mental health agencies are labeled as having Oppositional Defiant Disorder Conduct Disorder or Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder These children are at increased risk for poor outcomes including academic failure deviant peer groups drug use violence and delinquency Identifying and treating these children as early as possible offers promise for strengthening child protective factors such as social emotional and academic competence and effective parenting thereby preventing and reducing the development of conduct problems and other secondary risk factors The book has two elements first it allows parents to tell their stories sharing what it is like to have a problem child as well as the long and painful route to finding support and recovery through parent and child training The book also elucidates in detail the collaborative process of therapists working together with families This process combines the knowledge and expertise of the clinician with the unique strengths perspectives culture and goals of parents Essentially the goal is to empower parents by making them active partners in the therapy process teaching them parenting strategies to cope effectively with their child and strengthen their relationship as well as build support networks The book uses case examples to illustrate these points and provides examples of how to tailor the parent programs for high risk populations and multicultural families Examples of when and how to add adjunct therapies such as child and teacher training are also discussed providing a comprehensive guide for the collaborative process for therapists using the Incredible Years programs A Parent-Partner Status for American Family Law Merle H. Weiner,2015-09-17 This book proposes a new parent partner legal status emphasizing obligations of parents to each other and to their children Parents as Partners in Education Eugenia Hepworth Berger,1987 No More Violence: All You Need To Do Is Speak Up Dr. Sanya Khan,2022-11-04 Domestic violence against women is a prevalent issue However determining its full extent is difficult It could be far higher than stated because many cases of domestic violence against women are not reported During the COVID 19 lockdown our country saw a significant surge in incidences of domestic violence A woman frequently believes that the abuse she experiences is her fault and that she has made a mistake This conclusion is incorrect abuse is the fault of the abuser not the victim Estimates of violence in our country are higher than official records Women may fail to report family violence for a variety of reasons Because they don t know how to deal with domestic abuse or whom to approach and what are the laws and schemes for their empowerment In contrast to this point of view the current book which is based on research in Doda contrasts this point of view by shedding light on the types signs and causes of domestic violence as well as its effects on women s mental health Additionally it brought to light the violence committed by parents against their daughters and the various women focused schemes run by the Ministry of Women and Child Development that assist women in coping with domestic violence and gaining independence so that they are not dependent on anyone Love: Making Relationships for over 50'S Freddie C. Holmes,2019-03-28 Love can be hard and meeting someone falling in love and growing old together isn t easy But it can be especially difficult when you re over fifty You may have never been able to find the right one or feel like it s too late or found the one who swept you off your feet but lost them due to an unfortunate life event such as an accident or sickness or you may have just grown apart For whatever reason if the looking finding and keeping have become harder with each passing year how do you find the love you desire How to Find and Keep a Partner after Fifty Step by Step provides a practical and encouraging guide for you if you are over fifty and have trouble looking for love Author Freddie C Holmes challenges you to look within at what has happened to you in the relationship department inviting you to change your mind set and take action You can then learn how to attract and embrace everything you desire in a meaningful relationship putting you on the path to a fun filled romance with a partner you can share your bucket list with Dating after fifty is an adventure The good news is that it is interesting and you have many opportunities The reason for this is that there are more potential partners available in your age group than you would have thought But before you can embark on meeting someone new as with any worthwhile enterprise there are preparations and due diligence to be done to succeed So let s not waste any more time Are you ready to meet a new partner New Ways to Engage Parents Patricia Edwards,Catherine Compton-Lilly,2016-05-06 Just as populations change ideas about how to encourage and work with parents also need to evolve This practical resource by bestselling author Patricia Edwards provides school leaders and classroom teachers with new and creative ways in which to welcome encourage and involve parents Enacting these types of practices requires a special kind of commitment from teachers and school leaders which often coincides with a particular kind of mindset about families and one's responsibility to engage them Educators often develop this mindset as they depend their understanding of families literacy language culture race class and themselves Edwards pulls these understandings together and presents them in a straightforward concise and easy to use guide that is perfect for professional learning communities and teacher preparation courses New Ways to Engage Parents is essential reading for all educators who care deeply about engaging a wide range of parents in today's schools The book features a stark look at the changing community demographics and what that means for teachers and administrators strategies for communicating with parents examples of how to bring parents together for meaningful activities the importance of understanding parental constraints and the need to meet them halfway and approaches for overcoming school ghosts as well as negative histories and perceptions in the community Powerful Parent Partnerships Robert Dillon, Melissa Nixon, 2018-09-03 It is essential that we work together to craft powerful parent teacher partnerships that meet the needs of today's students and schools In this important new book authors Robert Dillon and Melissa Nixon explain how schools and families can work together so that the needs of children are always met Whether you're a parent hoping to work more effectively with your child's teacher or a principal or teacher looking for ways to understand families needs you'll be able to use the strategies in this resource to improve your communication and build deeper connections Loaded with practical takeaways and sample stories this book will help you Clearly communicate a child's educational goals Make connections with other schools and school districts to build community and broaden your range of resources Hold educators accountable without alienating them Develop communication strategies to address difficult topics like underperformance and misbehavior Show compassion and gratitude And more With the practical suggestions in this book you'll be able to rekindle more engagement and excitement into students learning at school and at home
