Pastoral Care and Counseling Nancy Jean Ramsay, 2004 Pastoral Care and Counseling has changed radically since the publication of The Dictionary of Pastoral Care and Counseling Rapid changes have occurred in theological social and medical contexts broadening the understanding of care The shift from the living human document to the living human web both enriches and challenges the study and practice of pastoral theology Just as the Dictionary of Pastoral Care and Counseling defined the field of Pastoral Care this volume brings the field current Essays by Nancy J Ramsay Joretta L Marshall Emmanuel Y Lartey Christie C Neuger Bonnie J Miller McLemore and Loren L Townsend Topics include Pastoral Theology Public Theology Power and Difference Globalization Internationalization and Indigentization Training in Clinical Ministry Methodology Moving Beyond Individualism in Pastoral Care and Counseling Barbara J McClure, 2011-10-27 Despite astute critiques and available resources for alternative modes of thinking and practicing individualism continues to be a dominating and constraining ideology in the field of pastoral psychotherapy and counseling Philip Rieff was one of the first to highlight the negative implications of individualism in psychotherapeutic theories and practices As heirs and often enthusiasts of the Freudian tradition of which Rieff and others are critical pastoral theologians have felt the sting of his charge and yet the empirical research that McClure presents shows that pastoral counseling practitioners resist change Their attempts to overcome an individualistic perspective have been limited and ineffective because individualism is embedded in the field's dominant theological and theoretical resources practices and organizational arrangements Only a radical reappraisal of these will make possible pastoral counseling practices in a post individualistic mode McClure proposes several critical transformations broadening and deepening the operative theologies used to guide the healing practice expanding the role of the pastoral counselor reimagining the operative anthropology reclaiming sin and judgment nuancing the particular against the individual rethinking the ideal outcome of the practices and reimagining the organizational structures that support the practices Only this level of revisioning will enable this ministry of the church to move beyond its individualistic limitations and offer healing in more complex effective and socially adequate ways Pastoral Care and Counseling in Large/Mega Congregations Jean Beedoe, 2016-08-04 Church growth in metropolitan communities motivated a short study concerning the pastoral care and counseling of immigrants specifically Black Caribbean congregants in large mega congregations Culture denomination history and interpretations of scripture enter into the dynamics of defining not only the pastoral office of leaders but their perception of care The phenomenological cycle of care is said to exist as an exchange happens between caregivers and care receivers Such an exploration of three congregations opened up rare concepts of the psycho social and spiritual nature that guide interpersonal relationships of family systems across cultures Large mega congregations desire women's as well as men's style of nurturing and of fellowship that form the characteristics of a sharing caring congregation The study implicated a need for more comprehensive interdisciplinary teaching methods to train church leaders and clergy It signals for an approach in practical theology to develop curricula for spiritual health of cultural plurality in congregations and community Neuroplasticity, Performativity, and Clergy Wellness William D. Roozeboom, 2016-12-24 This book invites readers particularly clergy members to rethink their understandings of the human person in light of recent developments in neuroscience In addition to bringing together religion and neuroscience it engages narrative theory exercise physiology and constructions of wellness to raise crucial questions about human identity and relationality and argue for a model of care that connects self care and care for with others Furthermore it claims that human beings are whole intra inter relational dynamic plastic and performative agents who have the capacity to story themselves neurophysiologically in both top down and bottom up ways through their regular practices of wellness The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life A Postcolonial Political Theology of Care and Praxis in Ethiopia's Era of Identity Politics Rode Molla, 2022-12-15 The author argues that identity politics eliminates Ethiopians in between spaces and identities and defines in between spaces as political social religious and geographical spaces that enable Ethiopians to co exist with equity solidarity and justice The elimination of in between spaces and in between identities creates either or class religious ethnic and gender categories Therefore the author proposes an in between theology that invites Ethiopians to a new hybrid way of being to resist fragmented and hegemonic identities The author claims that postcolonial discourse and praxis of in between pastoral care disrupts and interrogates hegemonic definitions of culture home subjectivity and identity On the other hand in between pastoral care uses embodiment belonging subjectivity and hybridity as features of care and praxis to create intercultural and intersubjective identities that can co construct and co create in between spaces In the in between spaces Ethiopians can relate with the Other with intercultural competencies to live their difference similarity hybridity and complexity From Nazareth to Skid Row: The Real Reality of Skid Row: Systemic and Homiletic Insights Rev. Jeffrey R. Thomas, PhD, 2014-08-28 The Real Reality of Skid Row A Practical Theology Perspective looks with an unblinking eye at the details of the lives of homeless people and uses the portraits that emerge as the perspective from which to think theologically about the challenges they face and calling the church hears to offer its witness to them Rev Jeffrey R Thomas PhD drawing upon his time serving as a pastor of a congregation in Skid Row Los Angeles sketches out the contours of individuals lives analyzes the personal and societal factors that contribute to their circumstances and suggests approaches for shaping the church s responses in both word and deed

Encounter in Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Daniël Johannes Louw, Takaaki David Ito, Ulrike Elsdörfer, 2012 The International Council on Pastoral Care and Counseling ICPCC met in August 2011 in Rotorua New Zealand for its 9th International Congress Various discussions in the field arose from actual challenges such as the earthquake in Japan social changes and mainly deprivations all over the world The ICPCC offers guidelines on how to cope with these situations which also include the indigenous traditions of the Maori culture projects on inter religious encounter etc all of which provoke a rethinking of traditional spirituality The Congress proceedings are presented in this book as a state of discussion within this globalized network Series Theologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 33

Pastoral Identity as Social Construction Samuel Park, 2017-09-15 How do chaplains and counselors form their identities as pastoral caregivers in challenging clinical contexts such as institutional interdisciplinary postmodern inter cultural and multi faith work environments This book is a product of the fifteen year long journey towards answering a well known but hardly answered question about pastoral identity Based on narratives of many pastoral practitioners who work in hospitals or counseling settings the author puzzles through ways for helping professionals to form their identities in bewildering work environments Previous studies on pastoral identity have focused on an individual interiority of pastoral practitioners and have emphasized mainly the caregivers perceptions and practices from a developmental and training perspective Grounded in an empirical study of active pastoral care providers this book presents pastoral identity as a relational and interactional property socially constructed among pastoral care partners culture and God Findings of the empirical study support contemporary theological and social psychological discourses identity is embedded in and embodied by relationships This book will guide you through confusions worries insights and woes you have experienced while helping others in order to envision yourself more clearly as a spiritually embodied and pastorally tending caregiver You will find yourself to be more who you are and engage more with others as they become who they are

Joy and Human Flourishing Miroslav Volf, Justin E. Crisp, 2015-11-01 Joy is crucial to human life and central to God s relationship to the world yet it is remarkably absent from contemporary theology and increasingly from our own lives This collection remedies this situation by considering the import of joy on human flourishing These essays written by experts in systematic and pastoral theology Christian ethics and biblical studies demonstrate the promise of joy to throw open new theological possibilities and cast fresh light on all dimensions of human life With contributions from Jurgen Moltmann N T Wright Marianne Meyers Thompson Mary Clark Moschella Charles Mathewes and Miroslav Volf this volume puts joy at the heart of Christian faith and life exploring joy's biblical dogmatic ecclesiological and ethical dimensions in concert with close attention to the shifting tides of culture Convinced of the need to offer to the world a compelling Christian vision of the good life the authors treat the connections between joy and themes of creation theodicy politics suffering pastoral practice eschatology and more driven by the conviction that vital relationship with the living God is integral to our fullest flourishing as human creatures

Pastoral and Spiritual Care Across Religions and Cultures II Isabelle Noth, Claudia Kohli

Reichenbach, 2019-05-20 This diverse compilation of contributions explores the pressing topic of how to provide appropriate spiritual care in the context of human migration The psycho-spiritual dimensions of suffering particular to human migration such as social exclusion alienation and various types of trauma are considered from various disciplinary perspectives Complex but important questions are explored How might various methods of self-healing be better supported by spiritual caregivers How can faith communities cultivate more supportive contexts responsive to the particular needs prompted by migration The International Association for Spiritual Care IASC founded in 2015 in Bern Switzerland is dedicated to the promotion of richer interdisciplinary dialogue amongst people from different cultural and religious backgrounds The volume starts from the premise that failures to cultivate deeper respect for diversity risks cultural misunderstandings and relational harm in the context of helping relationships and therefore personal encounters and scholarly exchanges between Muslims Jews Christians Buddhists Hindus Sikhs people without religious affiliation and atheists are critically important and unquestionably valuable These contributions reflect the fruits of the inaugural conference of the IASC which was held at the University of Bern and in the House of Religions in June 2016

Postcolonial Practice of Ministry Stephen Burns, Kwok

Pui-lan, 2016-07-13 Postcolonial studies has challenged the Eurocentric frameworks and methodologies in the fields of biblical studies and theology Postcolonial Practice of Ministry is a groundbreaking anthology that enables a new engagement between postcolonial and practical theologies focused on three key areas of the practice of ministry pastoral leadership liturgical celebration and interfaith engagement Postcolonial Practice of Ministry will make an impact in at least two areas of theological reflection first among postcolonial scholars it will stretch postcolonial theology into an area where it has been neglected second it will provide a comprehensive resource for rethinking the practice of ministry Contributors to this volume are well-known scholars from different racial national and denominational backgrounds bringing with them experiences of hybrid identities and multicultural churches Many of them are pioneers in introducing postcolonial discourse to their fields

Recognizing Other Subjects Katherine E Lassiter, 2017-01-26 How do we care justly when the self suffers because of the identity that they inhabit Pastoral theologian Katharine E Lassiter approaches this interdisciplinary question from a feminist perspective in order to understand how suffering subject formation and social injustice are connected Lassiter identifies the challenges of identity in developing a pastoral theological anthropology reflecting on tensions in her own experiences of caring for selves Drawing from theories of recognition she argues that doing just care requires recognizing the need for recognition as well as acknowledging the impediments to receiving interpersonal social and theological recognition Bringing together resources from pastoral theology and social theory she develops a feminist pastoral theology and praxis of encounter in order to advance a care that does justice Scholars social justice practitioners and pastoral caregivers will be able to use this resource to discover not only how and why recognition affects human development but also how we might implement a liberative theological praxis that is attentive to the role of recognition in subject formation

Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White, 2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice

Soft Shepherd or Almighty Pastor Annemie Dillen, 2015-03-26 In Soft Shepherd or Almighty Pastor contributors seek to go beyond the taboo on power within pastoral contexts They not only discuss fundamental theological and philosophical questions about power but also develop ways to prevent power abuse in pastoral context Power is considered as omnipresent and is analyzed in its positive and negative aspects Not only the classical associations of power over or domination are discussed in relation to ecclesial and pastoral situations but also forms of power linked to

When Christ's Body Is Broken Leanna K. Fuller, 2016-03-03 When Christ's Body Is Broken tells the stories of two congregations in conflict Although these churches had very different problems they faced similar struggles to articulate a faithful response to their concerns and to cope with the discord that threatened to tear their communities apart Pastoral theologian Leanna K Fuller shares these stories as a way of exploring the sources and dynamics of conflict in congregations She argues that at the heart of such conflict lies anxiety triggered by encounters with difference Bringing together resources from pastoral theology psychodynamic theory and social psychology Fuller offers a theological reframing of conflict through categories of diversity vulnerability and hospitality categories that she argues can encourage human beings to sit with the anxiety stirred by communal life and remain connected across differences This reframing provides fertile ground out of which Fuller imagines concrete practices designed for conflicted communities and their leaders      Converging Horizons Allan Hugh Cole Jr., 2015-01-15 This collection of essays considers topics in pastoral theology pastoral care and counseling pastoral leadership and social work and attends to challenges and opportunities pertaining to the support and care of persons in need Of interest to ministers chaplains pastoral counselors and social workers these essays focus particularly on human experiences needs or concerns that relate to matters of mental health and religious faith or spirituality Converging Horizons demonstrates approaches to integrative work that draws on multiple fields of theory and practice in service to the goal of providing a range of caregivers with ways to both conceptualize and engage their important work      Christian Theology in Practice Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2012-02-02 For the past fifty years scholars in both pastoral and practical theology have attempted to recapture human religious experience and practice as essential sites for theological engagement redefining in the process what theology is how it is done and who does it In this book Bonnie J Miller McLemore shows how this trend in scholarship has led to an expanded subject matter alternative ways of knowing and richer terms for analysis in doing Christian theology Tracing more than two decades of her own search for a more inclusive discipline one that truly grapples with theology in the midst of life Christian Theology in Practice shows not only where Miller McLemore herself has traveled in the field but also how pastoral and practical theology has developed during this time Looking forward Miller McLemore calls on the academy and Christian congregations to disrupt conventional theological boundaries and to acknowledge the multiplicity of shapes and places in which the wisdom of God appears      Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures Heidi Neumark Henri Nouwen Gregory Boyle Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer gleaned their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion connection justice and freedom Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness beauty and love This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care This work is a scholarly engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology Heather Walton University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology July 2016 Based on biographies interviews and life stories Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter cultural emotion as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit In her research joy and reason are not ultimately opposed Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Professor of Pastoral Care Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University July 2016 This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy grief death and dying and vocational courses Carrie Doehring Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Iliff School of Theology Denver August 2016 Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who lives constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies Yale University
