The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Mary Beth Werdel, 2023-10-24 The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Night Blooming introduces and bridges the gap between the psychological and spiritual perspectives and responses in trauma work illuminating the complexity of the human phenomenon of growth though suffering that is too easily misunderstood in the context of pastoral and spiritual care Through the hopeful metaphor of night bloomers rare plants that grow because of light but bloom in the darkness it is suggested that while psychological trauma is inherently negative and suffering creates a spiritual inner night moving through it may reveal a new complex reality of the human experience not previously understood We may see ourselves others or the world in a way that is stronger wiser deeper or more brilliant than we had known before The book presents the goal of pastoral and spiritual work is not to extinguish darkness Nor is it to solely focus on the light The work is to learn how to stay awake through the night without glorifying it Such a task is far easier when we believe there might be a rare and uniquely beautiful bloom to stay awake for and that witnessing such a bloom could have great consequences for living a meaningful life

Engaging the Sacred Kate A. Anderson, 2018 When Kate Anderson began her pastoral care work in a long term care facility for individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities she found that the standard pastoral assessment tools didn't meet the unique needs or take into account the lived experiences of the very people they were meant to support In response Anderson and her colleagues turned to Relational Spirituality an approach to the study of the soul that integrates psychology and theology Together they created a new pastoral care framework which focuses on the Divine Investment in each person on their soul identities and life stories to create meaningful engagement Through academic discussion and personal stories Engaging the Sacred explores not just Anderson's framework but also the evidence of its success

Encounter in Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Daniël Johannes Louw, Takaaki David Ito, Ulrike Elsdörfer, 2012 The International Council on Pastoral Care and Counseling ICPCC

met in August 2011 in Rotorua New Zealand for its 9th International Congress Various discussions in the field arose from actual challenges such as the earthquake in Japan social changes and mainly deprivations all over the world The ICPCC offers guidelines on how to cope with these situations which also include the indigenous traditions of the Maori culture projects on inter religious encounter etc all of which provoke a rethinking of traditional spirituality The Congress proceedings are presented in this book as a state of discussion within this globalized network Series Theologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 33 Transforming Self and Community Len Sperry, 2002 Offers a holistic approach to spiritual direction and pastoral counseling Counselling In The Pastoral And Spiritual Context Lyall, David, 1994-12-01 This book explores the practice of counselling not only in the context of traditional ministries of pastoral care within the Christian Church but also in the context of other world religions and among counsellors with a concern for the spiritual dimension of life A detailed account is given of the development of pastoral counselling in Britain parallel movements in other major world religions are examined An attempt is made to engage sympathetically with the theory and practice of a wide range of approaches to counselling in a context which embraces both the rapidly growing Christian counselling movement and more humanistic understandings of spirituality The author draws out the implications of metaphors which have shaped our understanding of pastoral care and counselling finding in a narrative understanding of religious faith and in the spiritual journey of Thomas Merton a model which respects the contribution of the secular therapies and affirms the integrating potential of faith This book will be of interest to clergy and lay people in churches and other faiths who seek an understanding of counselling in pastoral and spiritual contexts It will also have more general appeal to practitioners who wish to explore the relationship of counselling in this context to forms of counselling elsewhere Making Parish Councils Pastoral Mark F. Fischer, 2010 Making Parish Councils Pastoral traces the historical development of the pastoral style of council and shows how councils can more effectively embrace the church's vision of studying and reflecting on parish matters and recommending their conclusions to the pastor A New Old Spirituality? Tone Stangeland Kaufman, 2017-07-11 How do pastors live their spiritual lives both as private persons and as professionals How can their spirituality be characterized and understood Drawing on in depth interviews with Norwegian clergy as well as literature from the fields of Christian spirituality practical theology congregational studies and the sociology of religion this book offers a nuanced understanding of clergy spirituality Tone Stangeland Kaufman identifies three locations and sources of spiritual nurture for pastors the ministry itself vocational spirituality daily life everyday spirituality and spiritual practices located at the margins of daily life intentional spirituality The participants in this study engage in classic Christian practices yet approach them in a subjective and new way that also potentially revitalizes their spiritual lives Hence the author makes the case that their spirituality can aptly be described as a new old spirituality The book also seeks to nuance Paul Heelas's and Linda Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution claim and thus engages in the broader spirituality vs religion discourse A New Old

Spirituality is an exciting example of how qualitative empirical research can be used in creative ways to make a practical theological argument It is a book for scholars students and practitioners Religion as a Profession Hans

Schilderman,2005-09-01 This volume offers a conceptual and empirical study of the religious profession It takes as its point of departure professionalisation theory that is discussed and applied to a profession in mainstream religion in this case Dutch Catholic ministry The book entails a well documented empirical study of attitudes of clergy and lay personnel in the Dutch Roman Catholic Church regarding the pastoral profession Their attitudes towards church authority apostolicity sacramental efficacy accession to the office and spiritual role are described extensively The research clarifies the extent to which these religious attitudes act as a positive or negative motif to engage in policies that are aimed at a professional development of the occupation The book offers an excellent insight into basic characteristics of a religious profession Oxford Textbook of Spirituality in Healthcare Mark Cobb,Christina Puchalski,Bruce Rumbold,2012-08-09

The relationship between spirituality and healthcare is historical intellectual and practical and it has now emerged as a significant field in health research healthcare policy and clinical practice and training Understanding health and wellbeing requires addressing spiritual and existential issues and healthcare is therefore challenged to respond to the ways spirituality is experienced and expressed in illness suffering healing and loss If healthcare has compassionate regard for the humanity of those it serves it is faced with questions about how it understands and interprets spirituality what resources it should make available and how these are organised and the ways in which spirituality shapes and informs the purpose and practice of healthcare These questions are the basis for this resource which presents a coherent field of enquiry discussion and debate that is interdisciplinary international and vibrant There is a growing corpus of articles in medical and healthcare journals on spirituality in addition to a wide range of literature but there has been no attempt so far to publish a standard text on this subject Spirituality in Healthcare is an authoritative reference on the subject providing unequalled coverage critical depth and an integrated source of key topics Divided into six sections including practice research policy and training the project brings together international contributions from scholars in the field to provide a unique and stimulating resource Spiritual Mentorship for Pastors and Church Leaders Today Gabriel Amoateng-Boahen,2016-01-15 My timely book seeks to among others to appreciate and congratulate all men and women of God in ministry and also encourage them for their continued dedication in leading the flock under their pastoral care as Chief Shepherds Bravo On a more concerned and passionate note the book seeks to equip the pastor leader with some basic ministerial skills for sound fruitful untiring and ever lasting soul impacting ministry devoid of any abuses either covertly or overtly My final aim is to challenge the pastor leader to be professional and current for contemporary ministry because society is becoming more scientific technological academic intellectual argumentative and above all critical and skeptical Our local communities are increasingly becoming more violent confused frustrated socially darker and gloomy stressful and uncontrollable The pastoral services of the pastoral leaders thus become inevitable crucial and critical because communities look up to the spiritual leader Indeed the pastor leader is the radiant light of hope a beacon of light of inspiration and encouragement to many The challenge is for all pastors leaders to lead their respective local communities to greater heights as Gods ambassadors and the Called Chosen for our present generation and further work harder to hand over a better holistic legacy to the next generation The Gospel must be preached in its fullest entirety uncompromisingly in season and out of season devoid of any excuses Let the Body of Christ be more united than ever to build a New Church that is modeled after the life of Christ The Church that is anointed and empowered with answers to address the multiple problems and the myriad of challenges facing the 21st century and beyond
