The Scots Revised Reports Scotland. Court of Session, 1906 Sharpeville Tom Lodge, 2011-05-12 On 21 March 1960 several hundred black Africans were injured and 69 killed when South African police opened fire on demonstrators in the township of Sharpeville protesting against the Apartheid regime's racist pass laws The Sharpeville Massacre as the event has become known signalled the start of armed resistance in South Africa and prompted worldwide condemnation of South Africa's Apartheid policies The events at Sharpeville deeply affected the attitudes of both black and white in South Africa and provided a major stimulus to the development of an international Anti Apartheid movement In Sharpeville Tom Lodge explains how and why the Massacre occurred looking at the social and political background to the events of March 1960 as well as the sequence of events that prompted the shootings themselves He then broadens his focus to explain the long term consequences of Sharpeville explaining how it affected South African politics over the following decades both domestically and also in the country's relationship with the rest of the world Harper's Monthly Magazine ,1909 Cases Decided in the Court of Session Scotland.
