Williams, 2009-01-06 Terrie Williams knows that Black people are hurting She knows because she s one of them Terrie had made it she had launched her own public relations company with such clients as Eddie Murphy and Johnnie Cochran Yet she was in constant pain waking up in terror overeating in search of relief For thirty years she kept on her game face of success exhausting herself daily to satisfy her clients needs while neglecting her own Terrie finally collapsed staying in bed for days She had no clue what was wrong or if there was a way out She had hit rock bottom and she needed and got help She learned her problem had a name depression and that many suffered from it limping through their days hiding their hurt As she healed her mission became clear break the silence of this crippling taboo and help those who suffer Black Pain identifies emotional pain which uniquely and profoundly affects the Black experience as the root of lashing out through desperate acts of crime violence drug and alcohol abuse eating disorders workaholism and addiction to shopping gambling and sex Few realize these destructive acts are symptoms of our inner sorrow Black people are dying Everywhere we turn in the faces we see and the headlines we read we feel in our gut that something is wrong but we don't know what it is It's time to recognize it and work through our trauma In Black Pain Terrie has inspired the famous and the ordinary to speak out and mental health professionals to offer solutions The book is a mirror turned on you Do you see yourself and your loved ones here Do the descriptions of how the pain looks feels and sounds seem far too familiar Now you can do something about it Stop suffering The help the community needs is here a clear explanation of our troubles and a guide to finding relief through faith therapy diet and exercise as well as through building a supportive network and eliminating toxic people Black Pain encourages us to face the truth about the issue that plunges our spirits into darkness so that we can step into the healing light You are not on the ledge alone

The New York Times Chicken Chicken

Cookbook Linda Amster, 2005-08 The editors of The New York Times are cooking everyone's favorite meat chicken in a classic new cookbook

Extending Play Alyxandra Vesey, 2024 Despite the hypervisibility of a constellation of female pop stars the music business is structured around gender inequality As a result women in the music industry often seize on self-branding opportunities in fashion cosmetics food and technology for the purposes of professional longevity Extending Play examines the ubiquity of brand partnerships in the contemporary music industry through the lens of feminized labor to demonstrate how female artists use them as a resource for artistic expression and to articulate forms of popular feminism through self-commodification In this book author Alyxandra Vesey examines this type of promotional work and examines its proliferation in the early 21st century Though brand partnerships exist across all media industries they are a distinct phenomenon for the music business because of their associations with fan club merchandise concert merchandise and lifestyle branding often foregrounding women's participation in shaping these economies through fan labor and image management Through textual and discourse analysis of artists' songs music videos interviews social media usage promotional campaigns marketing strategies and business decisions Extending Play investigates how female musicians co-create branded feminine-coded products like perfume clothes makeup and cookbooks and masculine-coded products like music equipment as resources to work through their own ideas about gender and femininity as workers in industries that often use sexism and ageism to diminish women's creative authority and diminish the value of the recording in order to incentivize musicians to internalize the demands of industrial convergence By merging star studies popular music studies and media industry studies Extending Play proposes an integrated methodology for approaching contemporary cultural history that demonstrates how female-identified musicians have operated as both a hub for industrial convergence and as music industry professionals who use their extramusical skills to reassert their creative acumen
