Behind Daily devotion 398 pages The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre: i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc. as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

Two competing groups of human civilizations must compete and struggle with each other and alien races for their place in the galaxy. Life is Absurd Michael Dirubio, 2021-08-20 A down on his luck comedian has hit rock bottom. In jail, burned out, drugged out, and emotionally spent, Frankie Sparks realizes that Life is Absurd. A burst of creativity produces his best material yet. Honest, open, and most importantly, funny. He seizes on the last gasp of a dying career. Can he get the fame and adulation he had been chasing for twenty years? More importantly, what type of human will he be if he does. The Epworth Herald, 1901
