Are We Alone? P. C. W. Regan, Terrence J. Captured by Aliens Joel Achenbach, 2003 The great minds of the human race employing ever more fabulous technology have peered into the depths of space and discovered that we exist on a tiny speck in a universe that is vast beyond comprehension But there is one thing we have yet to discover a single scrap of extraterrestrial life We have heard no signals found no alien picnic trash The aliens who allegedly abduct people in the middle of the night have a strange way of evaporating in the harsh glare of scientific scrutiny And so at the turn of the millennium we are in an intellectual fix we know the universe only through its structure its physical properties its chemistry Of its biology we can only guess Are there creatures out there like us with big brains and restless spirits Or are we for all intents and purposes alone If aliens exist if there really are intelligent creatures zooming around the galaxy then where in our nation are they Washington Post reporter Joel Achenbach the author of Why Things Are and a commentator for National Public Radio puts the ET debate into the context of the space program discoveries in astronomy and the hunger for meaning and spiritual nourishment in an era when science often doesn't provide the answers that people desire He finds that the topic of extraterrestrial life is poisoned by wishful thinking by the natural human yearning to make contact with our brothers and sisters in space But he also finds some fascinating admirable and maddening characters who have pursued the truth about extraterrestrial life Carl Sagan the brilliant astronomer who brought the cosmos to the masses Dan Goldin the cantankerous head of NASA who still believes in the dream of the Space Age Henry Harris a former Las Vegas lounge singer who is assigned the job of figuring out how to get a spaceship to Alpha Centauri and various and sundry ufologists experiencers spiritualists and channelers for whom the aliens are an ever present reality In this fascinating funny and spirited book Achenbach discovers that the search for life elsewhere leads us on a looping road back to the fundamental questions about life on Earth To think coherently about extraterrestrial life we first must come to terms with who we are why we exist and what it means to carry around in our cells an evolutionary history that took four billion years to unfold Achenbach's message is that it is a wonderful and thrilling thing to be a sentient human being a creature capable of foolish romanticism in a universe that is mostly rocks and gas and dust and empty space

The Believing Brain Michael Shermer, 2011-05-24 A wonderfully lucid accessible and wide ranging account of the boundary between justified and unjustified belief Sam Harris New York Times bestselling author of The Moral Landscape and The End of Faith In this work synthesizing thirty years of research psychologist historian of science and the world's best known skeptic Michael Shermer upends the traditional thinking about how humans form beliefs about the world

Simply put beliefs come first and explanations for beliefs follow The brain Shermer argues is a belief engine From sensory data flowing in through the senses the brain naturally begins to look for and find patterns and then infuses those patterns with meaning Our brains connect the dots of our world into meaningful patterns that explain why things happen and these patterns become beliefs Once beliefs are formed the brain begins to look for and find confirmatory evidence in support of those beliefs which accelerates the process of reinforcing them and round and round the process goes in a positive feedback loop of belief confirmation Shermer outlines the numerous cognitive tools our brains engage to reinforce our beliefs as truths Interlaced with his theory of belief Shermer provides countless real world examples of how this process operates from politics economics and religion to conspiracy theories the supernatural and the paranormal Ultimately he demonstrates why science is the best tool ever devised to determine whether or not a belief matches reality A must read for everyone who wonders why religious and political beliefs are so rigid and polarized or why the other side is always wrong but somehow doesn't see it Dr Leonard Mlodinow physicist and author of The Drunkard's Walk and The Grand Design with Stephen Hawking Philosophy of Science Geoffrey Gorham, 2012-12-01 So the world didn't end on 10 September 2008 but maybe it got you thinking The world didn't end on 10 September 2008 but the possibility may have got you thinking was it worth the risk What is the point of science actually Geoffrey Gorham considers these questions and explores the social and ethical implications of science by linking them to issues facing scientists today human extinction extraterrestrial intelligence space colonization and more The Story of Science: Aristotle Leads the Way Joy Hakim, 2016-04-26 Readers will travel back in time to ancient Babylonia Egypt and Greece They will meet the world's first astronomers mathematicians and physicists and explore the lives and ideas of such famous people as Pythagoras Archimedes Brahmagupta al Khwarizmi Fibonacci Ptolemy St Augustine and St Thomas Aquinas Hakim will introduce them to Aristotle one of the greatest philosophers of all time whose scientific ideas dominated much of the world for eighteen centuries In the three book The Story of Science series master storyteller Joy Hakim narrates the evolution of scientific thought from ancient times to the present With lively character driven narrative Hakim spotlights the achievements of some of the world's greatest scientists and encourages a familiar spirit of inquiry in readers The books include hundreds of color photographs charts maps and diagrams informative sidebars suggestions for further reading and excerpts from the writings of great scientists The Search for Aliens: A Rough Guide to Life on Other Worlds Rough Guides, 2012-05-24 The Search for Aliens A Rough Guide to Life on Other Worlds provides the first vivid and completely accessible guide to the most exciting field of modern science the search for extraterrestrial life All the latest research projects are identified located and described everything from radio dishes searching for intelligent alien signals to deep oceanic research seeking links between terrestrial organisms and the broader cosmos It also explores the idea of Panspermia the notion that asteroids and comets brought biological building blocks to the early earth plus exactly which factors must align for life to arise across our galaxy and the universe The Search for Aliens A
