Crime, HIV and Health: Intersections of Criminal Justice and Public Health Concerns Bill Sanders, Yonette F. Thomas, Bethany Griffin Deeds, 2012-09-12 Carefully selected to reflect the latest research at the interface between public health and criminal justice in the US these contributions each focus on an aspect of the relationship How for example might a person's criminal activity adversely affect their health or their risk of exposure to HIV infection The issues addressed in this volume are at the heart of policy in both public health and criminal justice The authors track a four fold connection between the two fields exploring the mental and physical health of incarcerated populations the health consequences of crime substance abuse violence and risky sexual behaviors the extent to which high crime rates are linked to poor health outcomes in the same neighborhood and the results of public health interventions among traditional criminal justice populations As well as exploring these urgent issues this anthology features a wealth of remarkable interdisciplinary contributions that see public health researchers focusing on crime while criminologists attend to public health issues The papers provide empirical data tracking for example the repercussions on public health of a fear of crime among residents of high crime neighborhoods and the correlations between HIV status and outcomes and an individual's history of criminal activity Providing social scientists and policy makers with vital pointers on how the criminal justice and public health sectors might work together on the problems common to both this collection breaks new ground by combining the varying perspectives of a number of key disciplines

American Televangelism and Participatory Cultures Denis J. Bekkering, 2018-10-12 This book examines unintended participatory cultures and media surrounding the American televangelists Robert Tilton and Tammy Faye Bakker Messner It brings to light heavily ironic fan followings print audio and video projects public access television parodies and other comedic participatory practices associated with these controversial preachers from the 1980s onwards For Tilton's ministry some of these activities and artifacts would prove irksome and even threatening particularly an analog video remix turned online viral sensation In contrast Bakker Messner's campy fans gay men attracted to her ludicrous tragedy would provide her unexpected opportunities for career rehabilitation Denis J. Bekkering challenges supply side religious economy and branding approaches suggestions of novelty in religion and new media studies and the emphasis on sincere devotion in research on religion and fandom He also highlights how everyday individuals have long participated in public negotiations of Christian authenticity through tongue in cheek play with purported religious fakes

club scene where sex drugs and murder were part of everyday experience in one of the most shocking and fascinating true crime books ever written Clubland Confidential Frank X. Owen,2004-09 CLUBLAND CONFIDENTIAL is the true story of the rise and fall of a decadent nocturnal empire that stretched over several American cities and spawned its own subculture of celebrities and wannabes Journalist Frank Owen spent nearly a decade inside the nightclubs of the 1990s an era when disco gave way to more unsettling dance music cocaine was supplanted by Ecstasy and heroin clubkids mingled with bully boys transvestites danced with stockbrokers and celebrities looked on But as the drugs got out of control their world became murkier and slowly began to implode As clubland decadence turned to darkness its self publicised king Michael Alig committed one of the most notorious crimes of New York s recent history the violent murder of Angel Melendez With his friends fleeing for cover a tangled web of mafia related crimes begins to emerge and the secrets of New York nightlife are dragged through the courts Dressing the Monster Ernie Glam,2018-04-22 Between 1989 and 1993 Ernie Glam made party clothes for Michael Alig the New York City nightclub promoter who became known for his outlandish parties and then for the grisly death of a friend in 1996 Dressing the Monster is a fashion memoir about the garments parties and ideas behind Glam s and Alig s collaboration to promote and define the club kids a group of New York City party people whose antics became widely publicized in the early 1990s Green Eyed Monster Brian Lee Tucker,2017-04-23 It starts with a thrumming in Shanda s ears a sound very much like the thick coursing current of a river swelling its banks Gradually she becomes aware that the frantic pulse is not water but blood rushing through her veins echoing in the pitch black cavern of her inner ear The deafening thunder grows louder terror wrapping its icy fingers around her pounding heart until she fears she may drown in her own blood Louder and fiercer it doubles and triples in intensity Abruptly all falls silent Except for the laughter Still entombed in flames she gasps for breath but instead of fresh air she swallows fire And then it starts A scream pierces her to the core And then another Another Her own screaming as she knows she is burning alive And in the distance but still audible the laughter again Then mercifully she lapses into unconsciousness The nightmare that 12 year old Shanda Sharer had to endure was beyond horrifying Kidnapped and beaten stabbed tortured and then burned alive by her assailants one can only imagine the horror she suffered in the last moments of her life Her attackers four teenagers who following the instructions of a girl who was motivated just by pure selfish jealousy gladly joined in the horrible murder plot without even an inkling of sorrow or remorse for their victim Based on the true story of 12 year old Shanda Sharer whose murder gained nationwide notoriety GREEN EYED MONSTER provides a terrifying glimpse into the minds of her killers young girls who had led such horrible home lives themselves victims of sexual and ritual abuse and eventually descended into a life of sexual promiscuity drugs alcohol self harm and physical violence The Stranger In My Bed Michael Fleeman,2003 Blood in the Sand Clifford L. Linedecker,2000-08-15 The Seductress Sexy siren Amy DeChant had a lifelong habit of finding men rich men who would take care of her And when the money ran out so did Amy When she met wealthy bookie Bruce Weinstein at a poker room in Las Vegas she had found the perfect prey The Bookie 300 pound Bruce Weinstein was the most successful sports bookie in Las Vegas When he met the red haired blue eyed Amy DeChant he was smitten Amy immediately moved in with Bruce and he showered her with expensive gifts But cars furs and jewelry didn't hold a candle to the horde of cash Bruce had stashed in a hole in the wall of his home or the glittering fortune he kept in a safety deposit box The Sin City Murder Hoping to get her hands on Bruce's fortune Amy murdered him and dumped his body in the Nevada desert then she poured industrial strength cleaning fluid on his corpse to further decomposition When police found the body and identified it as Weinstein's the search for Amy was on Finally with the help of America's Most Wanted the lethal lady was captured and found guilty of first degree murder Read all about his fascinating case of greed deception and cold blooded murder in the most outrageous city in the world
