

VITA SACKVILLE-WEST

A woman's face, likely Vita Sackville-West, is the central focus, appearing as if she is part of a landscape. She is looking slightly to the right with a gentle expression. Her hand is visible near her chin. The background is a warm, orange-hued landscape with rolling hills and a single tree in the distance. The overall tone is nostalgic and artistic.

known writing Mark and Paul Eve-Marie Becker, Troels Engberg-Pedersen, Mogens Mueller, 2014-05-21 This volume brings together an international group of scholars on Mark and Paul respectively who reopen the question whether Paul was a direct influence on Mark On the basis of the latest methods in New Testament scholarship the battle over Yes and No to this question of literary and theological influence is waged within these pages In the end no agreement is reached but the basic issues stand out with much greater clarity than before How may one relate two rather different literary genres the apostolic letter and the narrative gospel How may the theologies of two such different types of writing be compared Are there sufficient indications that Paul lies directly behind Mark for us to conclude that through Paul himself and Mark the New Testament as a whole reflects specifically Pauline ideas What would the literary and theological consequences of either assuming or denying a direct influence be for our reconstruction of 1st century Christianity And what would the consequences be for either understanding Mark or Paul as literary authors and theologians How far should we give Paul an exalted a position in the literary creativity of the first Christians Addressing these questions are scholars who have already written seminal on the issue or have marked positions on it like Joel Marcus Margaret Mitchell Gerd Theissen and Oda Wischmeyer together with a group of up coming and senior Danish scholars from Aarhus and Copenhagen Universities who have collaborated on the issue for some years The present volume leads the discussion further that has been taken up in Paul and Mark ed by O Wischmeyer D Sim and I Elmer BZNW 191 2013 Women, Travel, and Writing in the Interwar Era Ann Catherine Hoag, 2024-07-31 Women Travel and Writing in the Interwar Era engages feminist temporal and narrative theories to offer fresh examinations of interwar era accounts by women about travel and movement and considers the use and limitations of time as a subversive force in their texts This book makes a significant contribution to the under examined study of women s travel writing between the wars and synthesises and applies a variety of feminist narrative and postcolonial theories to excavate new understandings of the intersection between women travel and time in writing The book studies the emergence of the aviatrix after the Great War and moves through to the representations of war in women s travel on the brink of World War II Each chapter offers a unique theoretical framework and examines how experiences of time impact perceptions of women s bodies and identities their engagement with history and discourse and the problematic influence on colonialism Women Travel and Writing in the Interwar Era is essential reading to any student or researcher in the field of women s travel writing as well as scholars of gender studies war and interwar history and cultural heritage Travels with Einstein Michelle Lynne Veenstra, 2010 □□ □□•□□□□, 2024-11-13 Discursos e Identidades en la Ficción Romántica / Discourses and Identities in Romance Fiction María Isabel González-Cruz, 2022-03-01 Despreciado por la crítica por su condición de literatura popular y femenina el género romántico no solo continúa imbatible en el mercado editorial con su elevado índice de ventas sino que en las últimas décadas está siendo objeto de interesantes estudios académicos Discursos e Identidades en la Ficción Romántica se suma a esta corriente al abordar el análisis interdisciplinar de un corpus de novelas publicadas en lengua inglesa entre 1955 y 2004 Ambientados en las islas atlánticas de Madeira y Canarias estos textos encierran una variedad de discursos que ponen de manifiesto una visión muy anglofona de los lugares visitados por las protagonistas Además del esperado discurso de género en sus páginas se detecta un discurso del paraíso que resalta el exotismo de las islas despertando en ocasiones la concienciación medioambiental aunque también se perciben actitudes lingüísticas e incluso raciales a medida que las autoras indagan en el descubrimiento del Otro Ni los personajes ni los narradores son ajenos al choque de identidades y al contacto lingüístico angloespañol y angloportugués de manera que los conflictos que generan la identidad nacional la identidad de género y la identidad étnica se vislumbran claramente tras la aparente sencillez de la intriga amorosa de este tipo de novelas Disdained by critics for its status as popular and feminine literature romance fiction not only remains unbeatable in the publishing market in terms of sales but has also been the subject of interesting academic studies in recent decades Discourses and Identities in Romance Fiction joins this trend by addressing the interdisciplinary analysis of a corpus of novels published in English between 1955 and 2004 Set on the Atlantic islands of Madeira and the Canaries these texts develop a variety of discourses that reveal a very Anglophone vision of the places visited by their protagonists In addition to the expected gender discourse these romances tend to include a paradise narrative that highlights the exoticism of the islands sometimes awakening environmental awareness Linguistic and even racial attitudes also come to the forefront as the writers explore and describe the features of the Other Neither the characters nor the narrators are oblivious to the clash of identities and the linguistic contact English Spanish and English Portuguese exposed in this type of novels revealing the conflicts generated by national gender and or ethnic identities behind the apparent simplicity of their love plots Publications of the Modern Language Association of America, 2007

Passenger to Teheran Victoria Sackville-West, 2007 Twelve Days in Persia Vita Sackville-West, 2009-10-13 A year after Vita Sackville West first travelled to Iran a journey described in the classic Passenger to Teheran she returned to the land that had so captured her imagination For twelve days with her husband and three friends she embarked on a difficult and often dangerous journey through the rugged and wildly beautiful Bakhtiari Mountains of south western Iran It was a landscape that affected Sackville West profoundly inspiring what is arguably some of her most lyrical prose in the same year she wrote her acclaimed poem The Land Interwoven with her magical descriptions of the landscape she also wrote of her encounters with the Bakhtiari tribe as they embarked on their epic annual migration The way of life of the Bakhtiari a people claiming descent from Fereydun hero of the Shahnameh has now all but disappeared the result of persecution by Reza Shah and the encroachments and temptations of modernity Sackville West's descriptions of their everyday life are thus a valuable and illuminating portrayal a vanished world A book that reveals as much about its author as the country through which she travelled Twelve Days in Persia is a classic of travel writing on Iran and a must have for all Bloomsbury devotees
