The Paston Letters, Vol. 1 James Gairdner, 2015-07-07 Excerpt from The Paston Letters Vol 1 A D 1422 1509 New Complete Library Edition Edited With Notes and an Introduction And in spite of all that was artificial and affected in his character in spite even of the affectation of pretending a snobbish interest in ancient duchesses Walpole was one of the fittest men of that day to appreciate such a publication Miss Hannah More was less easily pleased and she no doubt was the type of many other readers The letters she declared were quite barbarous in style with none of the elegance of their supposed contemporary Rowley They might perhaps be of some use to correct history but as letters and fine reading nothing was to be said for them 1 It was natural enough that an age which took this view of the matter should have preferred the forgeries of Chatterton to the most genuine productions of the fifteenth century The style of the Paston Letters even if it had been the most polished imaginable of course could not have exhibited the polish of the eighteenth century unless a Chatterton had had some hand in their composition Yet the interest excited by the work was such that the editor had no reason to complain of its reception The Paston Letters were soon in everybody s hands The work indeed appeared under royal patronage for Fenn had got leave beforehand to dedicate it to the King as the avowed patron of antiquarian knowledge This alone had doubtless some influence upon the sale but the novel character of the publication itself must have excited curiosity still more A whole edition was disposed of in a week and a second edition called for which after undergoing some little revision with the assistance of Mr George Steevens the Shakspearian editor was published the same year Meanwhile to gratify the curious the original ms letters were deposited for a time in the Library of the Society of Antiquaries but the King having expressed a wish to see them Fenn sent them to Buckingham Palace then called the Queen s Palace requesting that if they were thought worthy of a place in the Royal Collection His Majesty would be pleased to accept them About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Paston Letters A. D. 1422-1509, Vol. 2 James Gairdner, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from The Paston Letters A D 1422 1509 Vol 2 New Complete Library Edition Edited With Notes and an Introduction Before entering upon the correspondence of the Paston family in the reign of Henry VI we have thought it well to give the reader a brief note of such deeds and charters of an earlier date as appear either to have been preserved in the family or to have any bearing on its history The following is a list of those we have been able to meet with either in the originals or in other quarters such as Blomefield s History of Norfolk where notices are given of several documents which appear now to have got into unknown hands The documents seen by

Blomefield and those from the Paston and Dawson Turner collections now in the British Museum were probably all at one time part of the Paston family muniments The three Harleian charters seem to have been derived from a different source A Deed is cited by Blomefield Hist Norf vi 480 by which Anselm Abbot of St Benet s Hulme and the Convent there gave to Osbern the priest said by Blomefield to have been a son of Griffin de Thwait the founder of the Paston family the land of St Benet s of Paston terram Sancti Benedicti de Paston in fee for half the farm of one caruca as his ancestors used to pay for the same Also a Deed of William the Abbot who lived in King Stephen s reign granting to Richer de Pastun son of Osbern son of Griffin de Thwete all the land that the Convent held in Pastun with their men and other pertinencies Also a Deed of Covenant between Richer de Paston and Reginald the Abbot and Convent of St Benet s Holme that when peace should be settled in England and pleas held in the Court of our Lord the King the said Richer would at the request and at the expense of the Abbot give him every security in Court to release the lands in Pastun Ralph de Paston was son as I take it says Blomefield of this Richer and appears to have had two sons Richard and Nicholas About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Paston Letters A.
