Paths To Justice Paths To Justice:

Paths to Justice Hazel Genn, Sarah Beinart, 1999-11 Effective policy making in the administration of justice requires a solid understanding of public behaviour This book presents the results of the most wide ranging survey ever conducted by an independent body or government agency into the experiences of ordinary citizens as they grapple with the kinds of problems that could ultimately end in the civil courts Funded by the Nuffield Foundation the survey identifies how often people experience problems for which there might be a legal solution and how they set about solving them Revealing crucial differences in the approach taken to different kinds of potential legal problems the study describes the factors that influence decisions about whether and where to seek advice about problems and whether and when to go to law In addition to exploring experiences of courts tribunals and ADR processes the study also provides important insights into public confidence in the courts and the judiciary For the first time the study reveals the public s perspective on access to civil justice and makes a significant contribution to debate about how far civil justice reforms coincide with public experience and expectations about resolving justiciable problems Back cover The Path of Justice Becca Stevens, 2010-09-01 It s easy to get lost in the busyness of every day But taking a walk and discovering God s presence along the way will bring you back to where you need to be The Walking Bible Study a series of short readings and meditations is your field guide to learning more about Scripture as you travel through nature and life Wherever you walk take it along with you and follow the paths of God Walking changes us it can transport our spirits from being weighed down by life into the joy of God s presence Becca Stevens Each study consists of four sessions Sessions include prayer Scripture Becca s thoughts and stories questions to think about or discuss and activities The Path of Justice Becca teaches that God will let justice roll like a river and that the diversity of nature its order and chaos should call us to walk in humility Nature reveals a just God who will hold creation accountable for its behavior But because God s justice is balanced by love and mercy new creation is all around us and we have reason to celebrate all the springs in our lives Paths to International Justice Marie-Bénédicte Dembour, Tobias Kelly, 2007-10-18 This volume examines how international justice can take purchase despite social conflict and political violence A Handbook for Measuring the Costs and Quality of Access to Justice Martin Gramatikov, 2010 This handbook was developed by the Tilburg Institute for Interdisciplinary Studies of Civil Law and Conflict Resolution Systems The Netherlands It offers practical information on the use of a methodology for measuring the cost and quality of paths to justice from the perspective of users How do clients of justice systems like the way in which their needs and concerns are voiced Do they feel they received sufficient information about the procedure Do they think the outcome was fair and did it help to solve their problem Do they think the procedure was a value for their money How much time did they spend This methodology provides answers to such questions so that citizens using the justice system can voice their needs and providers of justice services can improve their processes Criminal Justice in Cleveland Cleveland Foundation, Raymond Blaine Fosdick, 1922

Cooper, 1890 Contemporary challenges and alternatives to international criminal justice Renata Barbosa, Francesco Mazzacuva, Megumi Ochi, 2022-11-01 The system of international criminal justice was established in response to gross human rights violations committed during World War II Despite its development over the past seven decades challenges and critiques remain unresolved or have subsequently emerged particularly in the context of the International Criminal Court ICC Key issues include amnesties immunities controversial acquittals non cooperation interpretative fragmentation and cultural clashes Criticism emerged as a reaction to the perception of impunity and the system's underachievement It is important to reflect on the extent to which such challenges are inherent to the system and whether they can be overcome What is the state of international criminal justice today What impact have these challenges had on the system's integrity currency and credibility To what extent can we prevent or remedy them This volume brings together major contributions to the 8th AIDP Symposium for Young Penalists which was organised by the AIDP Young Penalists Committee and convened on 10 and 11 June 2021 in telematic mode hosted by the Faculty of Law of Maastricht University The Theosophical Path Katherine Augusta Westcott Tingley, 1921 Crimes in Archival Form Prof. Dr. Ken MacLean, 2022-03-01 Crimes in Archival Form explores the many ways in which human rights facts are produced rather than found Using Myanmar as his case study Ken

MacLean examines the fact finding practices of a human rights group two cross border humanitarian agencies an international law clinic and a global NGO led campaign Foregrounding fact finding in critical yet constructive ways prompts long overdue conversations about the possibilities and limits of human rights documentation as a mode of truth seeking Such conversations are particularly urgent in an era when the perpetrators of large scale human rights violations exploit misinformation weaponize disinformation and employ outright falsehoods including deepfakes to undermine the credibility of those who document abuses and demand accountability in the court of public opinion and in courts of law MacLean compels practitioners and scholars alike to be more transparent about how human rights fact production works why it is important and when its use should prompt concern

Reimagining Justice, Human Rights and Leadership in Africa Everisto Benyera,2019-08-08 Failed attempts in Africa to develop democratised and instil virtues of a just state and society which promote benevolent leadership and advance political and economic rights and freedoms call for a new imagination By exploring a wide range of issues concerning justice human rights and leadership this book makes two major contributions to the extant literature in each of these areas Firstly as a project in decoloniality it constitutes an epistemic break from mainstream logics and approaches to understanding state society and development in Africa presenting an approach that is filtered through a Euro American lens that reifies the hegemony of a particular spatio temporality In other words it emphasises the importance of situatedness by thinking from rather than about or with Africa And secondly it addresses a fundamental shortcoming in decolonial thought which is often criticised for rejecting western paradigms of thought without providing viable alternatives The issues covered include state failure in Africa the geopolitics of US and NATO military interventions on the continent individual states responses to international law indigenous moral political leadership authentic inclusion of marginalised voices in development practice an endogenous approach to environmental ethics and a spiritualist reflection on the need for Africa to chart her own course to political social and economic redemption By searching for alternative paths to justice human rights and leadership this book represents an effort to actualise the core vision of the African Renaissance to find African solutions for African problems
