

Praise for F. X. Toole and ROPE BURNS

"ROPE BURNS is the best boxing fiction since Leonard Gardner's FAT CITY. It's the best boxing short fiction ever written. F. X. Toole is the brilliant love child of Sonny Liston and a rabid pit bull. ROPE BURNS is a hymn to ferocious longing and loss."

—James Ellroy

"F. X. Toole is a writer to break the heart. ROPE BURNS is utterly fascinating. . . . These stories are funny, disturbing, unpredictable, and suspenseful, but most of all they are achingly real. Toole reads like one who has journeyed to Hades and back, bursting with tales to tell of what he has seen. He's the Archie Moore of his craft."

—Joyce Carol Oates

Hollywood's elder statesman and its conscience He is the standard by which other films and filmmakers are judged He represents both classical Hollywood and an entirely modern uncompromising and unfussy directorial presence There are those who adore him as a cowboy a superstar the rugged unyielding yet introspective face of American machismo There are those who read him as a great American auteur fashioning uncompromising fascinating intellectual films about his country about life about whatever the hell takes his fancy No single figure in all of Hollywood operates so freely outside of the strictures of commercial pressure And yet or perhaps that is because he makes hit after hit Separation of actor and director is almost impossible They are intimately related cross pollinating but he has become in the latter half of his career to be viewed as one of the great American artists While drawing connections from his wider work as an actor and those who have influenced him it is his identity as a director that this book will celebrate This is not a career it is a landscape Classic
