Cassell,2005-10 The year is 1969 a time when the youth of America is standing up to its elder rulers when minorities are demanding their fair share of the American pie a time when an eternal war fought for misbegotten motives and fueled by a continuous stream of some of the most outrageous lies ever fed to a

people by its leadership over the previous eight years continues to gut an entire generation a time when the old values the old expectations the old imperatives are knocked flat Seen through the eyes of 21 year old college senior John Cassell always out of money and soon to be out of college it is a saga of coming of age at a time when the younger generation accepted very little of the old yardsticks and guideposts which traditionally helped that process along Based on a true story and the stories of others the book follows the young man into the year 1969 as he struggles with the decisions expected of him by elders and demanded of him by life The story leads to a factory job in the pine barrens of his native New Jersey thence overseas to the stimulating atmosphere of a youthful community of international wanderers in Great Britain to an Ireland torn by age old divisions to France whose gendarmerie remain brooding and vengeful in the wake of the bloody Sorbonne riots of the previous year to the Spain of General Franco and finally to the turbulence of North Africa

Sports in America Peter Stine,1995 America's fascination with sports is the topic of this literary anthology Through their fiction poetry and essays nearly forty writers reflect on sports as an illumination of our ordinary lives rather than as a livelihood a world of celebrities or a means of escape As Siv Cedering Maxine Kumin and John Ed Bradley demonstrate often the concerns we bring to sports are profoundly personal Our performance both as participants and spectators is a way of marking our past our moral urgencies our lost childhood our role as parents our pursuit of excellence our fear of failure our very identity and place in the chain of generations Sports inevitably graze and illuminate our culture as well Heather Ross Miller's memories of half court women's basketball become a powerful metaphor for sexual attitudes during the 1950s George Garrett's reflections on college football during World War II provide images that symbolize an era and Neil Isaacs delightful essay on major league batboys chronicles the American Dream
