Building Blocks Sharon Snow, 2007-06-30 Librarians can stay relevant in the twenty first century when they build on those areas where they have excelled Service to children is one of those and a hot topic is emergent literacy the earliest phases of literacy development Because parents are a child's first teacher they need to understand that children who enter school with a larger vocabulary are more likely to succeed in school and that they can offer experiences for their pre school children to prepare them for school This book provides six sessions for a children s librarian to use to introduce literacy skills to parents of preschool children These sessions teach parents how to give their child an opportunity to explore and experience new things Designed to be conducted in two simultaneous units one for parents and one for children handouts and activities are included These are especially helpful for helping parents who will be able to make most of the teaching devices rather than purchasing expensive commercial items The hot topic for children s librarians building their pre school programming is emergent literacy the earliest phases of literacy development A brief introduction to the research in emergent literacy and some examples of successful programs are given Because parents are a child s first teacher they need to understand that children who enter school with a larger vocabulary are more likely to succeed in school and that they can offer experiences for their pre school children to prepare them for school This book provides six sessions for a children s library to use to introduce literacy skills to parents of preschool children These sessions teach parents how to give their child an opportunity to explore and experience new things Designed to be conducted in two simultaneous units one for parents and one for children handouts and activities are included These are especially helpful for parents who will be able to make the most of the teaching devices rather than purchasing expensive commercial items This would be especially helpful as a training manual for solo children s librarians who must use volunteers to conduct the children s workshop

Arms and the Woman Helen M. Cooper,Adrienne Auslander Munich,Susan Merrill Squier,2000-11-15 Although the themes of women s complicity in and resistance to war have been part of literature from early times they have not been fully integrated into conventional conceptions of the war narrative Combining feminist literary criticism with the emerging field of feminist war theory this collection explores the role of gender as an organizing principle in the war system and reveals how literature perpetuates the ancient myth of arms and the man The volume shows how the gendered conception of war has both shaped literary texts and formed the literary canon It identifies and interrogates the conventional war text with its culturally determined split between warlike men and peaceful women and it confirms that women s role in relation to war is much more complex and complicitous than such essentializing suggests The contributors examine a wide range of familiar texts from fresh perspectives and bring new texts to light Collectively these essays range in time from the Trojan War to the nuclear age The contributors are June Jordan Lorraine Helms Patricia Francis Cholakian Jane E Schultz Margaret R Higonnet James Longenbach Laura Stempel Mumford Sharon O Brien Jane Marcus Sara Friedrichsmeyer Susan Schweik Carol J Adams Esther Fuchs Barbara Freeman Gillian Brown Helen M Cooper Adrienne Auslander Munich and Susan Merrill Squier
