Mind Of The Strategist Business Planning For Competitive Advantage Business Library:

The Mind of the Strategist Ken'ichi Ōmae, Kenichi Ohmae, 1983 When Sport Meets Business Ulrik Wagner, Rasmus K. Storm, Klaus Nielsen, 2016-10-19 Written by European professors and focusing on the specificities of European sport When Sport Meets Business analyses the growing commercialisation of professional sport in recent years and explains how it has developed into a major global industry Structured into four sections the book covers the key issues in the Business of professional sport The New Sport Environment Analysing the consequences of increasing commercialisation by looking at the multi billion dollar sports goods industry the effects of globalisation and how commercial influences have made running one of Europe's most popular sports Sport Marketing and Media Investigating the role media and marketing has in commercialisation with emphasis on the growth of sponsorship media rights in European club football and the growing influence of social media in sport Sport and Finance Relating to the economics of European sport there is an investigation into the financial policies employed by European Football clubs specifically in regards to the Financial Fair Play regulations and the topical issue of high level corruption Sporting Events Looking at additional factors that affect professional sport highlighting the impact an Olympic Games can have on a host city and the longevity of an Olympic urban legacy The authors have included insightful case studies from across the continent including anti RB Leipzig media campaigns in Germany financial policies at England's Chelsea FC French Tennis Federation corporate responsibility Media rights in Spain's LaLiga the sponsorship viability for Ukraine's Klitschko brothers and the case of Denmark's Viborg F.F. Suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate students in sport related courses including sport management sport economics sport marketing and the sociology of sport The Mind of the Strategist Ken'ichi Ōmae, 1983 The Excellent Manager's Business Library Philip Holden, 1999 The Globalisation of Non-Governmental Organisations John Maurice Baguley, 2005-05-20 Commercial companies and non governmental organisations NGOs are internationalising at an increasing pace Yet little is known about the management of NGOs during this process Indeed they have been neglected by comparison to the literature on companies This thesis draws on theories of how and why companies internationalise to determine whether the explanations they offer can be extended to cover NGOs It considers the driving forces experienced by NGOs the stages they pass through This was undertaken through a postal survey using results from 52 international NGOs from Europe and the US The findings were later considered in relation to four case studies of NGOs two relatively small NGOs which have internationalised slowly and two larger and faster NGOs to give practical examples and a wider insight into internationalisation The results indicate that for driving force theories to be applicable to NGOs they need to take into account NGOs strong internal motivation to meet needs the varying influence of drivers on different NGOs and the separate roles drivers play for NGOs For stage theories the results suggest that there are similarities and differences with companies and that Federations may follow a parallel route to other NGOs The results also suggest that NGO managers should pay critical attention to the range of driving forces both internal and external that apply to their organisation Managers should also be prepared for problems with their overseas branches before they reach the stage of being truly global NGOs however may be better suited to that stage than many companies

Management Communication Thomas Klikauer,2008-06-25 As managerial work regimes move continuously towards post industrialism forms of communication change with it and work relationships are increasingly becoming communicative relationships This book seeks to end communicative distortions by establishing a new model of communication that will set up practical and workable communication forums

Communication and Management at Work T. Klikauer,2007-04-11 Uniquely this book positions communication inside the historic development of work and management and shows how this development has led to the instrumental use of communication informed by the distinction between those who manage and those who are managed and directed towards the control and system integration of the workers

Managing Strategy

David C. Asch, Cliff Bowman, 1995-12-13 This text by Cliff Bowman and David Asch is designed for courses in strategic management business strategy and business policy It will be particularly suitable for MBAs post experience students and undergraduates taking a one semester course It will also appeal to practising managers in a wide range of organisations who are interested in developing a sound understanding of strategic issues The book avoids an overly theoretical approach concentrating instead on new ideas concerning the content and process of strategy and blending this with empirical findings in the area The result is a book which focuses on implementing strategy taking a more action oriented approach Case study material arising from many years of teaching in leading management schools world wide has also been included to make this an ideal text for a variety of courses Competitive Strategies for Service Organisations Neil Botten, John McManus, 1999
