The Art of Freedom: Teaching the Humanities to the Poor Earl Shorris, 2013-02-18 A conversation in a prison cell sparks an ambitious undertaking to attack the roots of long term poverty Seeking answers to the toughest questions about poverty in the United States Earl Shorris had looked everywhere At last one resounding answer came from a conversation with a woman in a maximum security prison the difference between rich and poor is the humanities Shorris took that idea and started a course at the Clemente Family Guidance Center in New York With a faculty of friends he began teaching the great works of literature and philosophy from Plato to Kant from Cervantes to Garcia Marquez at the college level to dropouts immigrants and ex prisoners From that first class came two dentists a nurse two PhDs a fashion designer a drug counselor and other successes Over the course of seventeen years the course expanded to many U S cities and foreign countries Now Earl Shorris has written the stories of those who teach and those who study the humanities a tribute to the courage of people rising from unspeakable poverty to engage in dialogue with professors from great universities around the world This year in a high school on the South Side of Chicago a Clemente Course has begun that may change the character of public education in America and perhaps the world
