The Visible and the Invisible Daniela Hammer-Tugendhat,2015-03-10 The book addresses the scientific debates on Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer and Hoogstraten that are currently taking place in art history and cultural studies These focus mainly on the representation of gender difference the relationship between text and image and the emotional discourse They are also an appeal for art history as a form of cultural studies that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices Dutch painting of the seventeenth century reflects its relationship to visible reality It deals with ambiguities and contradictions As an avant garde artistic media it also contributes to the emergence of a subjectivity towards the modern bourgeois It discards subject matter from its traditional fixation with iconology and evokes different imaginations and semantizations aspects that have not been sufficiently taken into account in previous research The book is to be understood as an appeal for art history as a form of cultural science that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices and at the same time demonstrates its relevance today Works by Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer Hoogstraten and others serve as exemplary case studies for addressing current debates in art history and cultural studies such as representation of gender difference relationship between text and image and emotional discourse

Moody's International Manual ,1995 Emptiness John Corrigan,2015-05-27 For many Christians in America becoming filled with Christ first requires being empty of themselves a quality often overlooked in religious histories In Emptiness John Corrigan highlights for the first time the various ways that American Christianity has systematically promoted the cultivation of this feeling Corrigan examines different kinds of emptiness essential to American Christianity such as the emptiness of deep longing the emptying of the body through fasting or weeping the emptiness of the wilderness and the emptiness of historical time itself He argues furthermore that emptiness is closely connected to the ways Christian groups differentiate themselves many groups foster a sense of belonging not through affirmation but rather avowal of what they and their doctrines are not Through emptiness American Christians are able to assert their identities as members of a religious community Drawing much needed attention to a crucial aspect of American Christianity Emptiness expands our understanding of historical and contemporary Christian practices

The Chronology of American Literature Daniel S. Burt,2004 If you are looking to brush up on your literary knowledge check a favorite author s work or see a year s bestsellers at a glance The Chronology of American Literature is the perfect resource At once an authoritative reference and an ideal browser s guide this book outlines the indispensable information in America s rich literary past from major publications to lesser known gems while also identifying larger trends along the literary timeline Who wrote the first published book in America When did Edgar Allan Poe achieve notoriety as a mystery writer What was Hemingway s breakout title With more than 8 000 works by 5 000 authors The Chronology makes it easy to find answers to these questions and more Authors and their works are grouped within each year by category fiction and nonfiction poems drama literary criticism and publishing events Short concise entries describe an author s major works for a particular year while placing them within the larger context of that writer s career The result is a fascinating glimpse into the evolution of some of America s most prominent writers Perhaps most important The Chronology offers an invaluable line through our literary past tying literature to the American experience war and peace boom and bust and reaction to social change You ll find everything here from Benjamin Franklin s Experiments and Observations on Electricity to Davy Crockett s first memoir from Thoreau s Civil Disobedience to Edith Wharton s Ethan Frome from meditations by James Weldon Johnson and James Agee to poetry by Elizabeth Bishop Also included here are seminal works by authors such as Rachel Carson Toni Morrison John Updike and Arthur Schlesinger Jr Lavishly illustrated and rounded out with handy bestseller lists throughout the twentieth century lists of literary awards and prizes and authors birth and death dates The Chronology of American Literature belongs on the shelf of every bibliophile and literary enthusiast It is the essential link to our literary past and present
