The pioneering TV news journalist shares her extraordinary story in this acclaimed memoir A very important book Dr Maya Angelou As the first black female television journalist in the western United States Belva Davis overcame the obstacles of racism and sexism and helped change the face and focus of television news over the course of five decades Born in the Great Depression to a fifteen year old Louisiana laundress and raised in the projects of Oakland California Davis persevered to achieve a career beyond her imagination Davis has seen profound changes in America from being verbally and physically attacked while reporting on the 1964 Republican National Convention in San Francisco to witnessing the historic election of Barack Obama in 2008 She reported on some of the most explosive stories in modern American history including the Vietnam War protests the rise and fall of the Black Panthers the mass suicides at Jonestown the onset of the AIDS epidemic and many others She encountered everyone from Malcolm X to Frank Sinatra James Brown Ronald Reagan Huey Newton Muhammad Ali Fidel Castro Condoleezza Rice and more Davis spent her career on the frontlines of the battle for racial equality bringing stories of black Americans into the light of day Still active in her seventies Davis hosted a news roundtable at one of the nation's leading PBS stations In this way she remained engaged in contemporary journalism while offering her unique perspective on the decades that have shaped us      The ^AFellowship Church Amanda Brown, 2021-06-16

The Fellowship Church is an essential read for anyone interested in the history of race in the United States American religion and nonviolent social activism The Fellowship Church established in wartime San Francisco in 1944 was the United States first interracial intercultural and interfaith church Co founded by the African American intellectual and theologian Howard Thurman it was an early expression of nonviolence within the long Civil Rights Movement Amanda Brown offers an exciting look into ways Americans have initiated grassroots activism during times when government has failed to protect its citizens civil liberties safety and overall wellbeing through judicial safeguards It is an important contribution to our understanding of modern American thought that can also inform contemporary social movement building      Black Republicans and the Transformation of the GOP Joshua D. Farrington, 2016-10-18

In his narrative history of black Republicans in the twentieth century Joshua Farrington reevaluates the relationship between black politicians activists and voters and the Republican Party challenging the assumption that African Americans abandoned the Party of Lincoln after 1936      Black Passports

Stephanie Y. Evans, 2014-05-15 A resource guide that uses African American memoir to address a variety of issues related to mentoring and curriculum development In this resource guide for fostering youth empowerment Stephanie Y Evans offers creative commentary on two hundred autobiographies that contain African American travel memoirs of places around the world The narratives are by such well known figures as Frederick Douglass W E B Du Bois Billie Holiday Maya Angelou Malcolm X James Baldwin Muhammad Ali Richard Pryor Angela Davis Condoleezza Rice and President Barack Obama as well as by many lesser known travelers The book addresses a variety of issues related to mentoring and curriculum development It serves as a tool for literary mentoring where students of all ages can gain knowledge and wisdom from texts in the same way achieved by one on one mentoring and it also provides ideas for incorporating these memoirs into lessons on history geography vocabulary and writing Focusing on four main mentoring themes life school work and cultural exchange Evans encourages readers to comb the texts for models of how to manage attitudes behaviors and choices in order to be successful in transnational settings This book provides a new and refreshing way to think about Black youth and issues of empowerment It will be a useful tool for teachers parents scholars and community organizers leaders and activists Valerie Grim Indiana University Bloomington

The Myth of Post-Racialism in Television News Libby Lewis, 2015-08-27 This book explores the written and unwritten requirements Black journalists face in their efforts to get and keep jobs in television news Informed by interviews with journalists themselves Lewis examines how raced Black journalists and their journalism organizations process their circumstances and choose to respond to the corporate and institutional constraints they face She uncovers the social construction and attempted control of Blackness in news production and its subversion by Black journalists negotiating issues of objectivity authority voice and appearance along sites of multiple differences of race gender and sexuality

Tear Gas Anna Feigenbaum, 2017-11-07 One hundred years ago French troops fired tear gas grenades into German trenches Designed to force people out from behind barricades and trenches tear gas causes burning of the eyes and skin tearing and gagging Chemical weapons are now banned from war zones But today tear gas has become the most commonly used form of less lethal police force In 2011 the year that protests exploded from the Arab Spring to Occupy Wall Street tear gas sales tripled Most tear gas is produced in the United States and many images of protestors in Tahrir Square showed tear gas canisters with Made in USA printed on them while Britain continues to sell tear gas to countries on its own human rights blacklist An engrossing century spanning narrative Tear Gas is the first history of this weapon and takes us from military labs and chemical weapons expos to union assemblies and protest camps drawing on declassified reports and witness testimonies to show how policing with poison came to be
