Duvalier's Ghosts Jana Evans Braziel, 2017-05-24 Urgently pursues those nameless ghosts of Haitians lost in the liminal space of the Black Atlantic New West Indian Guide Foregrounds the experiences of refugees particularly those refused asylum and detained in camps the political mobilization of the diaspora in the United States the ramifications of the policies and adjustment programmes imposed on Haiti by the World Bank the

International Monetary Fund and USAID Bulletin of Latin American Research Theoretically sound and well researched Brazil has written a compelling book on the literatures of post Duvalier Haiti Millery Polyne New York University A very original study a tour de force that crisscrosses the disciplinary boundaries typically separating the social sciences and the humanities It is richly researched beautifully written and will surely attract much critical attention and praise Valerie Kaussen University of Missouri From a position of urgent political engagement this provocative book offers novel and compelling interpretations of several well known Haitian born authors particularly regarding U S intervention in their homeland Drawing on the diasporic cultural texts of several authors such as Edwidge Danticat and Dany Laferrière Jana Evans Brazil examines how writers participate in transnational movements for global social justice In their fictional works they discuss the United States many interventionist methods in Haiti including surveillance foreign aid and military assistance Through their work they reveal that the majority of Haitians do not welcome these intrusions and actively criticize U S treatment of Haitians in both countries Brazil encourages us to analyze the instability and violence of small nations like Haiti within the larger frame of international financial and military institutions and forms of imperialism She forcefully argues that by reading these works as anti imperialist much can be learned about why Haitians and Haitian exiles often have negative perceptions of the U S

Downtown Ladies Gina A. Ulysse, 2008-09-15 The Caribbean market woman is ingrained in the popular imagination as the archetype of black womanhood in countries throughout the region Challenging this stereotype and other outdated images of black women Downtown Ladies offers a more complex picture by documenting the history of independent international traders known as informal commercial importers or ICIs who travel abroad to import and export a vast array of consumer goods sold in the public markets of Kingston Jamaica Both by products of and participants in globalization ICIs operate on multiple levels and since their emergence in the 1970s have made significant contributions to the regional national and global economies Gina Ulysse carefully explores how ICIs determined to be self employed struggle with government regulation and other social tensions to negotiate their autonomy Informing this story of self fashioning with reflections on her own experience as a young Haitian anthropologist Ulysse combines the study of political economy with the study of individual and collective identity to reveal the uneven consequences of disrupting traditional class color and gender codes in individual societies and around the world

Borders of Visibility Jennifer L. Shoaff, 2017-11-21 An anthropological study of Haitian migrant women's experiences of marginality and violence as they endeavor to make a living and life in the Dominican Republic Book jacket

Cartographies of Race and Social Difference George J. Sefa Dei, Shukri Hilowle, 2018-12-04 This book critically examines how race is constructed globally to intersect gender class sexuality language ability and religion and answers some very important questions like how does anti black racism manifest itself within various contexts Chapters in the book use the Black and White paradigm as a lens for critical race analysis examining how for example the saliency of race and Blackness shape the post colony as well as the various post colonial nations The paradigm centers Whiteness as the lens of defining what and what is different The negative portrayal of difference is anchored in the sanctity of Whiteness It is through such analysis that we can understand how historically colour has been a permanent marker of differentiation even though it has not been the only one It is through conversations and dialogue in the classroom that the book was created given the current political shift in American and the rise of Anti Blackness anti Indigeneity Islamophobia and xenophobia The book critically examines White supremacy racialization of gender post racial false narratives and other contemporary issues surrounding race

Therapeutic Worlds

Daniel Nehring, Dylan Kerrigan, 2019-02-04 This book builds a fresh perspective on therapeutic narratives of intimate life Focusing on the question of how popular psychology organises everyday experiences of intimacy its argument is grounded in qualitative research in Trinidad in the Anglophone Caribbean Against the backdrop of Trinidad's colonial and postcolonial history the authors map the development of therapeutic institutions and popular therapeutic practices and explore how transnationally mobile commercial forms of popular psychology mostly originating in the Global North have taken root in Trinidadian society through online social networks self help books and other media In this sense the book adds to social research on the transnational spread of a digital attention economy and its participation in the proliferation of popular psychological discourse Drawing on in depth interviews with self help readers the book considers how popular psychology organises their everyday experiences of intimate life It argues that the proliferation of self help media contributes to the psychologisation of intimate relationships and obscures the social dimensions of intimacy in terms of gender race ethnicity and other social structures and inequalities At the same time the book draws on anthropological arguments about the colonisation of consciousness in the Global South to interpret the insertion of transnationally mobile popular psychology into Trinidadian society An innovative contribution to scholarship on therapeutic cultures which explores the widely under researched dissemination of popular psychology in the Global South the book adds to a sociological understanding of the ways in which therapeutic narratives of self and intimate relationships come to be incorporated into everyday experience As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural studies anthropology and the sociology of gender sexuality families and personal life

Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora Aubrey W. Bonnett, Calvin B. Holder, 2009-07-16 Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora is a response to a 1990 publication that studied the persistence and resilience of black African diasporic populations in the Caribbean Latin America North America and the United Kingdom In that book the authors used the themes of persistence and resilience to interrogate the social processes and the coping repertoire of these diasporic populations This volume investigates the often overlooked African presence in Asia Researchers sought to determine how many of these diasporic populations have fared in the context of political independence globalization economic marginalization and the presence of ethnic conflict and institutional racism even with positive class formations and declining significance of race in other geographical areas Prescriptions for the continued viability of these diasporic populations are provided India and China are undergoing a global renaissance emerging as potentially significant economic political and cultural actors on the world scene Meanwhile ancestral Africa is still socially politically and economically fragmented thereby causing a new migratory push to North America and Europe

Handbook of Civil Society and Social Movements in Small States Lino Briguglio, Michael Briguglio, Sheila Bunwaree, Claire Slatter, 2023-02-22 This volume is unique because of its focus on small states There are many studies on civil society and social movements but none that specifically deal with this category of countries As is well known small states have particular characteristics including a limited ability to reap the benefits of economies of scale a high degree of exposure to forces outside their control and the proximity of politicians to the voters often leading to clientelistic relationships and patronage networks The small island developing states have the additional problem of high environmental vulnerability with some also dealing with disproportionate ecological footprints These factors have a bearing on the organization and performance of civil society organizations and social movements as explained in several chapters of this book The volume is organized in three parts dealing with aspects of civil society and social movements in small states in the political social and environmental spheres respectively Various definitions of civil society are proposed in the chapters but most authors associate the term with organized groups operating in the interest of citizens independently of government and commercial business including various forms of non governmental organizations NGOs Civil society also encompasses social movements which are considered to be loosely organized collective campaigns in pursuit of social goals These two terms are sometimes used interchangeably however some authors argue that social movements tend to engage in contentious politics including protests while NGOs engage through more organized and institutional routes

Black Feminist Constellations Christen A. Smith, Lorraine Leu, 2023-12-05 In essays poems and dialogues the writers in Black Feminist Constellations reimagine liberation from the perspectives of radical South American and Caribbean Black women thinkers The volume's methodologically innovative approach reflects how Black women come together to theorize the world and challenges the notion that the university is the only site where knowledge can emerge A major work of intellectual history Black Feminist Constellations makes legible the epistemologies that sustain radical scholarship art and political organizing by Black women everywhere Nor-tec Rifa!

Alejandro L. Madrid, 2008-03-21 At the dawn of the twenty first century the Nor tec phenomenon emerged from the border city of Tijuana and through modern Internet technology quickly conquered a global audience Marketed as a kind of ethnic electronic dance music Nor tec samples sounds of traditional music from the north of Mexico transforming these sounds through computer technology used in European and American techno music and electronica In Nor tec Rifa Alejandro L. Madrid crafts a fascinating account of this music and the city that fostered its birth With an impressive hybrid of musicology ethnomusicology cultural and performance studies urbanism and border studies Nor tec Rifa offers compelling insights into the cultural production of Nor tec as it stems from norte a banda and grupera traditions Marxism and Intersectionality Ashley J. Bohrer, 2019-08-28 What does the development of a truly robust contemporary theory of domination require Ashley J. Bohrer argues that it is only by considering all of the dimensions of race gender sexuality and class within the structures of capitalism and imperialism that we can understand power relations as we find them nowadays Bohrer explains how many of the purported incompatibilities between Marxism and intersectionality arise more from miscommunication rather than a fundamental conceptual antagonism As the first monograph entirely devoted to this issue Marxism and Intersectionality serves as a tool to activists and academics working against multiple systems of domination exploitation and oppression

Comparative Education Carlos Alberto Torres, Robert F. Arnove, Lauren Ila Misiaszek, 2022-08-10 Now in its fifth edition Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local has established itself as the state of the art comprehensive as well as sophisticated framework for taking into account the dynamic interactions of local national regional and transnational factors shaping education systems around the world Our theoretical and methodological strategy for this volume has proven effective as a standard textbook for introducing the field of comparative education from various theoretical and methodological perspectives
