Maley, Hitomi Masuhara, Freda Mishan, 2017-03-07 This volume represents a unique addition to the growing body of empirical literature on materials development adopting a reverse approach to the topic Rather than applying theory to practice practitioners and researchers from 11 countries reappraise applied linguistics theories through practice The book also provides evidence for the diversity of materials development around the globe at different levels for different specialities and for different purposes Each chapter surveys the relevant literature such as task based learning and language and culture describes a specific research project reports the results of the project and discusses the implications of these results for the development of materials both in the local context and in general After each section there are editorial comments highlighting the issues emerging from the research and there is a conclusion which connects the findings of the various chapters and makes suggestions both for future research and for the principled development of materials for L2 learners The book will be suitable for teachers materials developers academics and students in post graduate courses in applied linguistics in TEFL TESOL and in the teaching of other languages as an L2

Conversation Analysis and Language Alternation

Anna Filipi, Numa Markee, 2018-10-15 This volume brings together researchers in conversation analysis who examine the practice of alternating between English and German Italian Spanish Swedish and Vietnamese in the classroom The collection shows that language alternation is integral to being and learning to become a bilingual and that being and learning to become a bilingual are accomplished through a remarkably common set of interactional objects and actions whose sequential organisations are quite similar across languages and educational sectors This volume therefore shows that having recourse to more than one shared language provides an important resource for getting the work of language learning and teaching done through an orderliness that can be described and evaluated The findings and the suggested pedagogical applications described in the volume will be of significant interest to researchers and teachers in a range of fields including second and foreign language teaching and learning conversation analysis teacher education and bilingualism
