U.S.I.S. Video Library Catalog United States Information Agency, Landscape Dreams, A New Mexico Portrait, 2012-10-15 This collection of elegantly composed black and white images by one of New Mexico's most accomplished photographers celebrates the state's captivating physical variety and enduring allure. With subject matter ranging from some of the state's most iconic landforms including the White Sands desert and Carlsbad Caverns to the people who work the land, Varjabedian's images pay homage to New Mexico's ancient history and to the homely details of everyday life. In photographing his subjects whether epic or mundane, Varjabedian seeks the moments when the light, shadow, composition, and other elements combine to express the beauty of the place. Marin Sardy's wide-ranging essay provides historical and cultural contexts in which to understand Varjabedian's work. Scholar-poet Jeanetta Calhoun Mish defines the particular quality of the artist's imagery. Portrait and Biographical Record of the State of Colorado, 1899 Portrait and Biographical Album of Newaygo County, Mich, 1884 Annual List of New and Important Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1906 Portrait and Biographical Album of Newayco[sic] County, Mich, 1884 Portrait and Biographical Record of Waukesha County, Wisconsin, 1894 Portrait and Biographical Album of Otoe and Cass Counties, Nebraska, 1889 Portrait and Biographical Record of Johnson and Pettis Counties, Missouri, 1895 Portrait and Biographical Album of Calhoun County, Michigan, 1891 Portrait and Biographical Album of Jo Daviess and Carroll Counties, Illinois Brookhaven Press, 1889 Annual List of New and Important Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston, 1907 Portrait and Biographical Record of Lee County, Illinois, 1892 Affirming Students' Right to their Own Language Jerrie Cobb Scott, Dolores Y. Straker, Laurie Katz, 2009-06-02 A Co-publication of the National Council of Teachers of English and Routledge. How can teachers make sound pedagogical decisions and advocate for educational policies that best serve the needs of students in today's diverse classrooms? What is the pedagogical value of providing culturally and linguistically diverse students greater access to their own language and cultural orientations? This landmark volume responds to the call to attend to the unfinished pedagogical business of the NCTE Conference on College Composition and Communication 1974 Students Right to Their Own Language resolution. Chronicling the interplay between legislated, litigated education policies and language and literacy teaching in diverse classrooms, it presents exemplary research-based practices that maximize students' learning by utilizing their home-based cultural language and literacy practices to help them meet school expectations. Pre-service teachers, practicing teachers, and teacher educators need both resources and knowledge including global perspectives about language variation in PreK-12 classrooms and hands-on strategies that enable teachers to promote students' use of their own language in the classroom while also addressing mandated content and performance standards. This book meets that need. Visit <http://www.ncte.org> for more information about NCTE books, membership, and other services. Enterprising Women Virginia G. Of the hundreds of foreign students who attended the Munich Art Academy between 1910 and 1915 Walter Ufer 1876 1936 and E Martin Hennings 1886 1956 returned to the United States to foster the development of a national art. They ultimately established their reputations in the American Southwest. The two German American artists shared much in common and both would gain membership in the celebrated Taos Society of Artists. Featuring nearly 150 color plates and historical photographs A Place in the Sun is a long overdue tribute to the lives, achievements and artistic legacy of these two important artists. In tracing the lifelong friendship and intersecting careers of Ufer and Hennings the contributors to this volume explore the social and artistic implications of the artists' German heritage and training. Following their training in Munich both men hoped to build careers in the spirited art environment of Chicago. Both were sponsored by wealthy businessmen many of German descent. The support of these patrons allowed Ufer and Hennings to travel to the American Southwest where they like so many other talented artists fell under the spell of Taos and its picturesque scenery. They also encountered the region's Native peoples and Hispanic culture that inspired many of their paintings. Despite their mutual interests Ufer and Hennings were not identical by any means. Each artist had a distinct artistic style and as the essays in this volume reveal the two men could not have had more different personalities or career trajectories. Connoisseurs of southwestern art have long admired the masterworks of Ufer and Hennings. By offering a rich sampling of their paintings alongside informative essays by noted art historians A Place in the Sun ensures that their significant contributions to American art will be long remembered. A Place in the Sun is published in cooperation with the Denver Art Museum.
