New School Chemistry By Ababio:

New School Chemistry Osei Yaw Ababio, 1985      Surviving SAJOMACO Bunmi Asaolu, 2021-08-27 Question What do you do when the kitchen wall collapses into the vat of beans being cooked for a horde of hungry schoolboys Answer You serve it up anyway Why let a few lumps of clay and the odd metal screw spoil a decent meal When Bunmi Asaolu arrived at the grand gates of St John Mary s Unity Secondary School SAJOMACO as a first year student you d be forgiven for assuming he was swapping life on the serene university campus he grew up on for another of equal civility Wrong Behind the gates of SAJOMACO lay a world of contradictions unspoken but strict hierarchical codes juxtaposed with utter chaos Asaolu presents a wry satirical and at once serious look at a Nigerian public boarding school in the 1990s through the eyes of a sheltered child navigating its brutal corridors In Surviving SAJOMACO Asaolu s experiences and those of his contemporaries are laid bare giving the reader a raw and at times jarring insight into the incongruencies of school life whilst subtly tracking the story of Nigeria itself      Media and Communication in Nigeria Bruce Mutsvairo, Nnamdi T Ekeanyanwu, 2021-12-30

Communication is changing rapidly around the world particularly in Africa where citizens are embracing digital technologies not only to improve not only interpersonal communication but also the state of their financial well being This book investigates these transformations in Nigeria s booming communication industry The book traces communications in Nigeria back to pre colonial indigenous communications through the development of telecommunication broadcasting networks the press the Nigerian film industry Nollywood and on to the digital era At a time when Western voices still dominate the academic literature on communication in Africa this book is noteworthy in drawing almost exclusively on the expertise of Nigerian based authors critiquing the discipline from their own lens and providing an important contribution to the decolonisation of communication studies The authors provide a holistic analysis of the sector encompassing print journalism broadcast journalism public relations advertising film development communication organisational communication and strategic communication Analysis of the role of digital technologies is woven throughout the book concluding with a final section theorising the future of communication studies in Nigeria in the light of the digital media revolution Robust in its theoretical and methodological underpinnings this book will be an important reference for researchers of media and communication studies and those working on Africa specifically      Nigerian Books In Print 1996 ,1996      Nigerian

Books in Print ,1996      African Books in Print ,1978      Communication and Language Skills Iyabode Omolara Akewo Daniel, 2018-09-30 This book will serve to provide the reader with the communicative and language skills necessary to function in modern society discussing the language and communication enterprise within the current usages of the modern English language It identifies the descriptive functioning of language as well as the communicative processes involved in its usage The book takes a new look at traditional language skills from a modern perspective focusing on their importance as communication tools for the twenty first century learner of the English language The reality of technology as part of the modern life is also brought to bear on the discussions in the book showing that its application to reading can serve to fast track the mastery of reading efficiency As the book will serve to make the user of the English language in the twenty first century effective in all their endeavours that require its usage it will be particularly useful for learners of English as a second language
