Newbery Award Winning Authors, The Newbery and Caldecott Awards Association for Library Service to Children, 2001. With its vivid annotations for all winning medal and honor books since the inception of the awards, Newbery in 1922 and Caldecott in 1938, librarians and teachers everywhere rely on this indispensable guide for quick reference, collection and curriculum development, and readers advisory. Indexed by title and author/illustrator, the 2001 edition includes background on the awards and photos of the new medalists and their books. If you serve young people, the 2001 edition will help you to introduce children to outstanding literature and illustration in creative ways and to make literature selections on your own from the criteria used for these distinguished awards. New to this edition is an essay, Reflections and Thoughts of the 2000 Newbery Committee by Carolyn Brodie, who in collaboration with her fellow judges reminisces about an intense year of reading for this esteemed appointment. The Newbery and Caldecott Awards Association for Library Service to Children, 1993. While the Newbery Award is eighty-one years old this year and the Caldecott is sixty-five, retirement is hardly an option. Still going strong, these honored awards recognize exemplary works of literature for children published each year selected by annual panels of dedicated librarian members of the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC). In this annual annotated reference, children's and youth librarians, educators, teachers, parents, and others can access easy-to-use summaries of the winning books over the decades. These pre-eminent award-winning works of literature for children are core lists for developing curricula and library collections, creating reader advisories, and quick reference for a good read. The 2003 edition features an essay, That Big Gold Sticker: Children Talk about the Newbery Award by children's literature expert Kathleen Horning. In it, she shares surprising guesses and insights revealing what third, fourth, and fifth graders from

Abraham Lincoln Elementary School in Madison Wisconsin think about these awards as well as sharing their favorite winners
