New Social Ties Contemporary Connections In A Fragmented Society:

New Social Ties Deborah Chambers, 2006-10-12 Deborah Chambers draws on the metaphor of friendship as a strategy for exploring contemporary changes in informal social ties. She traces the shift from fixed and permanent ties of family, neighbourhood and community to fluid and transient ties typified by computer-mediated communication. Personal Relationships and Intimacy in the Age of Social Media Cristina Miguel, 2018-11-11 This book examines how intimate relationships are built, negotiated and maintained through social media. The study takes a cross-platform approach, analysing three social media platforms of different genres: Badoo, Couchsurfing and Facebook, and exploring two interactive forces that shape the way people communicate through social media: the platforms' architecture and policies and actual practices of use. Combining analysis of the political economy of social media with users' perspectives of their own practices as well as exploring the tensions between the two, the book provides a detailed picture of intimacy as a complex structure of continuity and change. Social Media and Personal Relationships D. Chambers, 2013-02-21 This book explores how digital communication generates new intimacies and meanings of friendship in a networked society, developing a theory of mediated intimacies to explain how social media contributes to dramatic changes in our ideas about personal relationships through themes of self, youth, families, digital dating and online social capital. Among Friends? Agnes Brandt, 2013 By tracing out people's friendship worlds in their wider societal context, the author takes up current debates surrounding issues of identity and sociality, indigeneity and diversity. By furthering our understanding of the social dynamics of friendship in New Zealand, the study not only contributes to the growing field of friendship studies. Infertility and Intimacy in an Online Community Paulina Billett, Anne-Maree Sawyer, 2018-09-29 This book explores an online support group for women who are infertile. Offering a close-up view of the women's identities and emotions as they navigate the roller coaster world of infertility, a range of questions are addressed: How do the women seek support? How do they offer support to one another? How are intimacies produced in the online space? Through narrative analysis of online journals and posts, the authors examine the impact of infertility on women's perceptions of their bodies, their struggles with medical professionals on their relationships with family and friends, and the challenges that a diagnosis of infertility presents to couples. Infertility and Intimacy in an Online Community will appeal to social scientists, students from a range of health science disciplines, counsellors and health professionals, and women and men who are dealing with infertility. Personal Media and Everyday Life T. Rasmussen, 2014-05-26 This book addresses the widespread use of digital personal media in daily life.
