New Trends in Audiovisual Translation Jorge Díaz Cintas, 2009-04-15 New Trends in Audiovisual Translation is an innovative and interdisciplinary collection of articles written by leading experts in the emerging field of audiovisual translation AVT In a highly accessible and engaging way it introduces readers to some of the main linguistic and cultural challenges that translators encounter when translating films and other audiovisual productions The chapters in this volume examine translation practices and experiences in various countries highlighting how AVT plays a crucial role in shaping debates about languages and cultures in a world increasingly dependent on audiovisual media Through analysing materials which have been dubbed and subtitled like Bridget Jones s Diary Forrest Gump The Simpsons or South Park the authors raise awareness of current issues in the study of AVT and offer new insights on this complex and vibrant area of the translation discipline

Topics in Audiovisual Translation Pilar Orero, 2004-01-01 The late twentieth century transition from a paper oriented to a media oriented society has triggered the emergence of Audiovisual Translation as the most dynamic and fastest developing trend within Translation Studies The growing interest in this area is a clear indication that this discipline is going to set the agenda for the theory research training and practice of translation in the twenty first century Even so this remains a largely underdeveloped field and much needs to be done to put Screen Translation Multimedia Translation or the wider implications of Audiovisual Translation on a par with other fields within Translation Studies In this light this collection of essays reflects not only the state of the art in the research and teaching of Audiovisual Translation but also the professionals experiences The different contributions cover issues ranging from reflections on professional activities to theory the impact of ideology on Audiovisual Translation and the practices of teaching and researching this new and challenging discipline In expanding further the ground covered by the John Benjamins book Multi Media Translation 2001 this book seeks to provide readers with a deeper insight into some of the specific concepts problems aims and terminology of Audiovisual Translation and by this token to make these specificities emerge from within the wider nexus of Translation Studies Film Studies and Media Studies In a quickly developing technical audiovisual world Audiovisual Translation Studies is set to become the academic field that will address the complex cultural issues of a pervasively media oriented society Media and Translation Dror Abend-David, 2014-07-31 Over the last decade there has been a dramatic increase in publications on media and translation In fact there are those who believe that so much has been published in this field that any further publications are superfluous But if one views media and translation as anything ranging from film and television drama to news casting commercials video games web pages and electronic street signs it would seem that research in media and translation has barely scratched the surface The research in this field is shared largely by scholars in communication and translation studies often without knowledge of each other or access to their respective methods of scholarship This collection will rectify this lack of communication by bringing such scholars together and creating a context for a theoretical discussion of the entire emerging field of Media and Translation with a preference for theoretical work rather than case studies on translation and communications of various forms and through various media Topics in Audiovisual Translation Pilar Orero, 2004-10-20

The late twentieth century transition from a paper oriented to a media oriented society has triggered the emergence of Audiovisual Translation as the most dynamic and fastest developing trend within Translation Studies The growing interest in this area is a clear indication that this discipline is going to set the agenda for the theory research training and practice of translation in the twenty first century Even so this remains a largely underdeveloped field and much needs to be done to put Screen Translation Multimedia Translation or the wider implications of Audiovisual Translation on a par with other fields within Translation Studies In this light this collection of essays reflects not only the state of the art in the research and teaching of Audiovisual Translation but also the professionals experiences The different contributions cover issues ranging from reflections on professional activities to theory the impact of ideology on Audiovisual Translation and the practices of teaching and researching this new and challenging discipline In expanding further the ground covered by the John Benjamins book Multi Media Translation 2001 this book seeks to provide readers with a deeper insight into some of the specific concepts problems aims and terminology of Audiovisual Translation and by this token to make these specificities emerge from within the wider nexus of Translation Studies Film Studies and Media Studies In a quickly developing technical audiovisual world Audiovisual Translation Studies is set to become the academic field that will address the complex cultural issues of a pervasively media oriented society Audiovisual Translation Luis Perez-Gonzalez, 2014-08-27

New perspectives in Audiovisual Translation Laura Mejías Climent, José Fdo. Carrero Martín, 2022-03-01 The aim of this book is to contribute to the dissemination of current research carried out by young scholars who are starting to build promising careers in the field of audiovisual translation Although it is by no means an exhaustive collection of state of the art approaches to AVT this publication offers a carefully chosen list of research perspectives that are worth exploring in the current technologised landscape that this area of translation has become. Therefore it represents a select yet judicious group of studies with the added strength that the contributions presented here are not limited to academic circles but rather offer different points of view from various angles given the diverse profiles that characterize the authors. Thus each chapter deals with the subject of AVT from an academic, educational or professional perspective. As diverse as their approaches are, all the young authors who have collaborated to create this volume offer enriching perspectives that reflect the potential that AVT still has today and the prospective studies that are worth undertaking to continue enriching the field of AVT.

Reception Studies and Adaptation Giulia Magazzù, Valentina Rossi, Angela Sileo, 2020-07-22. Offering compelling insights into the Italian adaptation of diversified English products, this volume is addressed to both scholars and students wishing to delve into the field of reception studies. It focuses on literary multimedia and audiovisual translation due to the conviction that the modalities through which the imprinting of Italianness is marked upon several English hypertexts are still worth investigating today. The contributions here highlight how some choices may in some instances alter the meaning as much as the success of some English aesthetic texts by directing if not possibly undermining the audience reception.

The Routledge Handbook of Audiovisual Translation Luis Pérez-González, 2018-10-10. The Routledge Handbook of Audiovisual Translation provides an accessible, authoritative and comprehensive overview of the key modalities of audiovisual translation and the main theoretical frameworks, research methods and themes that are driving research in this rapidly developing field. Divided in four parts, this reference work consists of 32 state-of-the-art chapters from leading international scholars. The first part focuses on established and emerging audiovisual translation modalities, explores the changing contexts in which they have been and continue to be used, and examines how cultural and technological changes are directing their future trajectories. The second part delves into the interface between audiovisual translation and a range of theoretical models that have proved particularly productive in steering research in audiovisual translation studies. The third part surveys a selection of methodological approaches supporting traditional and innovative ways of interrogating audiovisual translation data. The final part addresses an array of themes pertaining to the place of audiovisual translation in society. This Handbook gives audiovisual translation studies the platform it needs to raise its profile within the Humanities research landscape and is key reading for all those engaged in the study and research of Audiovisual Translation within Translation studies.

Audiovisual Translation Frederic Chaume, 2020-11-28. Audiovisual Translation: Dubbing is an introductory textbook that provides a solid overview of the world of dubbing and is fundamentally interactive in approach. A companion to Audiovisual Translation: Subtitling, it follows a similar structure and is accompanied by downloadable resources. Based on first-hand experience in the field, the book combines translation practice with other related tasks usually commissioned to dialogue writers and dubbing assistants, thus offering a complete introduction to the field of dubbing. It develops diversified skills, presents a broad picture of the industry engages with the various controversies in the field and challenges prevailing stereotypes The individual chapters cover the map of dubbing in the world the dubbing market and professional environment text segmentation into takes or loops lip syncing the challenge of emulating oral discourse the semiotic nature of audiovisual texts and specific audiovisual translation issues The book further raises a number of research questions and looks at some of the unresolved challenges of this very specific form of translation It includes graded exercises covering core skills that can be practised in class or at home individually or collectively The accompanying downloadable resources contain sample film material in Dutch English French Italian and Spanish as well as a range of useful material related to professional practice

Translations In Times of Disruption David Hook, Graciela Iglesias-Rogers, 2017-10-06 This book throws light on the relevance and role played by translations and translators at times of serious discontinuity throughout history Topics explored by scholars from different continents and disciplines include war the disintegration of transnational polities health disasters and revolutions be they political social cultural and or technological Surprisingly little is known for example about the role that translated constitutions had in instigating and in shaping political crises at both a local and global level and how these events had an effect on translations themselves Similarly the role that translations played as instruments for either building or undermining empires and the extent to which interpreters could ease or hamper negotiations and foster new national identities has not been adequately acknowledged This book addresses all these issues among others through twelve studies focused not just on texts but also on instances of verbal and non verbal communications in a range of languages from around the world This interdisciplinary work will engage scholars working in fields such as Translation Studies History Modern Languages English Law Politics and Social Studies

Humour in Audiovisual Translation Margherita Dore, 2019-12-06 This book offers a comprehensive account of the audiovisual translation AVT of humour bringing together insights from translation studies and humour studies to outline the key theories underpinning this growing area of study and their applications to case studies from television and film The volume outlines the ways in which the myriad linguistic manifestations and functions of humour make it difficult for scholars to provide a unified definition for it an issue made more complex in the transfer of humour to audiovisual works and their translations as well as their ongoing changes in technology Dore brings together relevant theories from both translation studies and humour studies toward advancing research in both disciplines Each chapter explores a key dimension of humour as it unfolds in AVT offering brief theoretical discussions of wordplay culture specific references and captioning in AVT as applied to case studies from Modern Family A dedicated chapter to audio description which allows the visually impaired or blind to assess a film s non verbal content using examples from the 2017 film the Big Sick outlines existing research to date on this under explored line of research and opens avenues for future study within the audiovisual translation of humour This book is key reading for students and scholars in translation studies and humour studies

Linguistic Labor and Literary Doulas Remy Attig, 2024-09-05 An examination of Spanglish Portu ol and Judeo

Spanish literatures that builds on sociolinguistic understandings of the intersections of language nation and identity to develop the theoretical frameworks of linguistic labor and literary doulas Connecting the metaphor of labor to the human life cycle Remy Attig introduces the notion of literary doulas These doulas accompany a community as a body of literature is born akin to the doula as midwife or in the case of Judeo Spanish writes the language as a form of linguistic palliative care for a community whose historical language is facing imminent death the death doula Presenting three case studies of Spanglish Portu ol and Judeo Spanish the first part of Linguistic Labor and Literary Doulas places the emergence of these languages in their respective geographies and contexts Attig discusses the work of authors and literary doulas including Susana Ch vez Silverman Gloria Anzald a Fabi n Severo and Matilda Ko n Sarano The framework of linguistic labor relates the creation of a literary corpus in an undervalued or stigmatized language context to other forms of domestic or gendered labor often the responsibility of women and queer people In the second part of the book Attig places these literatures and theories in discussion with emerging scholarship in translinguistics queer theories and translation studies By applying the notion of translinguistics to useful case studies that challenge traditional understandings of the frontiers between languages Linguistic Labor and Literary Doulas models productive ways that we can discuss real world linguistic practices as valuable aspects of culture and identity

Khuddro, 2019-01-17 Due to a dearth of academic references in the area of English Arabic audiovisual translation AVT this book represents a unique resource in that it explores dubbing and subtitling into Arabic a topic hardly discussed among academics both in the Arab world and worldwide The book starts with some linguistic and audiovisual background and lays new foundations for a discussion about the similarities between the translation of drama texts and AVT It then moves on to highlight some grammatical syntactic semantic and functional challenges faced in subtitling with examples from various recent audiovisual material as deictics exophora idiomatic language register negation duality and plurality and subject predicate agreement in the target subtitled text The book's originality is manifest in its investigation of the obstacles encountered by new anonymous subtitlers by providing evidence in the form of genuine samples of their work The book concludes with some original subtitling quality assessment reports and presents effective strategies of subtitling The Spoken Language in a Multimodal Context Jenny Brumme, Sandra Falbe, 2013-11-20 Recently research in the Humanities is showing an increasing interest in exactly how language and other semiotic resources support each other The eighteen articles of this book focus on the interplay between spoken language and other modalities and address a spectrum of cross modal resources and their functions They also discuss how multimodal resources are exploited to increase communicative effectiveness and broaden accessibility to knowledge This is illustrated with examples from discourse types including dramatic literary and audiovisual texts Facebook communication and chats comics and audio guides The volume will be of interest to scholars of linguistics translation studies museology and education and for readers interested in the wide array of possibilities that multimodal texts open up for meaning making Audiovisual Translation and Media Accessibility at the Crossroads, 2012-01-01 This third volume in the Media for All series offers a diverse selection of articles which bear testimony to the vigour and versatility of research and developments in audiovisual translation and media accessibility The collection reflects the critical impact of new technologies on AVT media accessibility and consumer behaviour and shows the significant increase in collaborative and interdisciplinary research targeting changing consumer perceptions as well as quality issues Complementing newcomers such as crowdsourcing and potentially universal emoticons classical themes of AVT studies such as linguistic analyses and corpus based research are featured Prevalent throughout the volume is the impact of technology on both methodologies and content The book will be of interest to researchers from a wide range of disciplines as well as audiovisual translators lecturers trainers and students producers and developers working in the field of language and media accessibility The Palgrave Handbook of Audiovisual Translation and Media Accessibility Łukasz Bogucki, Miłkołaj Deckert, 2020-07-31 This handbook is a comprehensive and up to date resource covering the booming field of Audiovisual Translation AVT and Media Accessibility MA Bringing together an international team of renowned scholars in the field of translation studies the handbook surveys the state of the discipline consolidates existing knowledge explores avenues for future research and development and also examines methodological and ethical concerns This handbook will be a valuable resource for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students early stage researchers but also experienced scholars working in translation studies communication studies media studies linguistics cultural studies and foreign language education New Trends in Early Foreign Language Learning Maria González Davies, 2012-01-17 This volume is the result of the presentations and discussions carried out at the Conference on Early Foreign Language Learning in Educational Contexts Bridging Good Practices and Research organized by the University Ramon Llull the University of Bari and LEND Lingua e Nuova Didattica in March 2010 At the Conference both teachers and researchers met to examine recent language teaching theories and practices from a transnational and intercultural perspective on the one hand and on the other to fill the gap in the field of English as a Foreign Language EFL in schools and to pave the way for a wider platform of discussion between School and University Since these two institutions have often had little contact and as there is excellent work carried out in both our attempt was to build more solid bridges across their contexts engaging school teachers in ongoing research and bringing everyday classroom practice nearer to university theoreticians in an open exchange forum so that the reflection on teaching and learning becomes relevant and rewarding for the participants involved in Early Foreign Language Learning in 21st century contexts Drawing on the main topics presented throughout the Conference this book has been structured around three main thematic areas 1 the Age Factor 2 CLIL and Content based research and practices and 3 developing intercultural competence use of the L1 and translation as mediation skills Each of these sections encompasses high quality contributions all informed by salient and recent research clear and justified theoretical standpoints and good practices which are appealing to an international audience and setting The editors sincerely hope that this volume contributes to widen the field of foreign language teaching and learning to include studies on young learners perceptions and performance At the same time they would like to highlight the decisive new focus on language learning adopted in the 21st century the inclusion of a wider vision of language acquisition one that highlights the relevance of using languages not only to communicate but more relevantly to mediate between cultures as a means to bring together the plurilingual and pluricultural citizens of our future
