Nice Book Cast Mind Relations Thoughts Feelings:

Teens Choosing to Read Gay Ivey, Peter Johnston, 2023 In a sea of troubling reporting about education teaching reading and the wellbeing of teens Ivey and Johnston bring some good news that shows what happens when we stop underestimating young people This accessible book offers an engaging account of a 4 year study of adolescents who went from reluctant to enthusiastic readers These youth reported that reading not only helped them manage their stress but also helped them negotiate happier more meaningful lives This amazing transformation occurred when their teachers simply allowed them to select their own books invited them to read with no strings attached and provided time for them to do so These students nearly all of whom reported a previously negative relationship with reading began to read voraciously inside and outside of school performed better on state tests and transformed their personal relational emotional and moral lives in the process This illuminating book leads readers on a tour of adolescents reading lives in their own words offering a long overdue analysis of students deep engagement with literature The text also includes research to inform arguments about what students should and should not read and the consequences of limiting students access to the books that interest them through censorship Book Features Links young adults reading engagement with socio emotional and intellectual development Provides nuanced descriptions of teaching practices that facilitate student agency in learning Features student voices that have been absent in debates about what is appropriate for young people to read and under what circumstances Connects student perspectives on reading with positive outcomes of reading to research from other disciplines Illuminates the breadth and depth of the responsibilities of teaching English language arts
