Nice Book Insurgent Testimonies Witnessing Anglophone Literature:

Insurgent Testimonies Nicole M. Rizzuto, 2015-12-01 During the second half of the nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth insurgencies erupted in imperial states and colonies around the world including Britain's As Nicole Rizzuto shows the writings of Ukrainian born Joseph Conrad Anglo Irish Rebecca West Jamaicans H G de Lisser and V S Reid and Kenyan Ngugi wa Thiong'o testify to contested events in colonial modernity in ways that question premises underlying approaches in trauma and memory studies and invite us to reassess divisions and classifications in literary studies that generate such categories as modernist colonial postcolonial national and world literatures Departing from tenets of modernist studies and from methods in the field of trauma and memory studies Rizzuto contends that acute as well as chronic disruptions to imperial and national power and the legal and extra legal responses they inspired shape the formal practices of literatures from the modernist colonial and postcolonial periods Insurgent Testimonies Nicole

Rizzuto, 2016 This book examines testimony in the works of Rebecca West Joseph Conrad E M Forster H G de Lisser V S Reid and Ngugi wa Thiong'o and argues that disruptions to imperial and national power and the legal and legal responses they inspired shape the formal practices of modernist and Anglophone literature Strolling in the Ruins Faith Smith, 2023-02-20

In Strolling in the Ruins Faith Smith engages with a period in the history of the Anglophone Caribbean often overlooked as nondescript quiet and embarrassingly pro imperial within the larger narrative of Jamaican and Trinidadian nationalism Between the 1865 Morant Bay Rebellion and World War I British imperialism was taken for granted among both elites and ordinary people while nationalist discourses would not begin to shape political imagination in the West Indies for decades Smith argues that this moment far from being uneventful disrupts the inevitability of nationhood in the mid twentieth century and anticipates the Caribbean's present day relationship to global power Smith assembles and analyzes a diverse set of texts from Carnival songs poems and novels to newspapers photographs and gardens to examine theoretical and literary historiographic questions concerning time and temporality empire and diaspora immigration and indigeneity gender and the politics of desire Africa's place within Caribbeanist discourse and the idea of the Caribbean itself Closely examining these cultural expressions of apparent quiescence Smith locates the quiet violence of colonial rule and the insistence of colonial subjects on making meaningful lives Irish Literature in Transition, 1940-1980: Volume 5 Eve Patten, 2020-03-12

This volume explores the history of Irish writing between the Second World War or the Emergency in 1939 and the re emergence of violence in Northern Ireland in the 1970s It situates modern Irish writing within the contexts of cultural transition and transnational connection often challenging pre existing perceptions of Irish literature in this period as stagnant and mundane While taking into account the grip of Irish censorship and cultural nationalism during the mid twentieth century these essays identify an Irish literary culture stimulated by international political horizons and fully responsive to changes in publishing readership and education The book combines valuable cultural surveys with focussed discussions of key literary moments and of individual authors such as Se n O Faol in Samuel Beckett Edna O'Brien and John McGahern

Animist Poetics Ryan Topper,2025-08-01 Argues that African literature conceptualizes trauma and regeneration as a more than human process offering an animist revision of psychoanalysis Psychoanalytic trauma theory largely disregards African perspectives Postcolonial criticism often filters these perspectives through a secular humanist lens Examining how African literature uses animism to address the traumas of colonization Animist Poetics offers a new understanding of the postcolonial condition From an animist viewpoint the self is not an individual but rather a regenerative process linking the living the dead and their ecosystems Looking at poetry fiction drama and visual art including archival manuscripts by Wole Soyinka and Yvonne Vera Ryan Topper argues that African literature reinvents these Indigenous ecologies in uniquely modern ways Animist Poetics takes Indigenous and literary knowledge seriously rethinking the foundations of psychoanalysis and charting new theoretical paths in posthumanism the environmental humanities new materialism biopolitics and memory studies
