Hell Is a Very Small Place: Voices from Solitary Confinement

Overview

First published in 2016 by The New Press, Hell Is a Very Small Place: Voices from Solitary Confinement is the first book to feature firsthand accounts—both writing and oral history—about the experience of solitary confinement in U.S. prisons, jails, and detention centers. It includes pieces by 16 currently and formerly incarcerated men and women.

Two of the book's three editors, Jean Casella and James Ridgeway, co-direct Solitary Watch, a watchdog project dedicated to investigating, publishing, and disseminating information on what was until recently a hidden part of the criminal justice system. Its third editor, Sarah Shourd, was herself held in solitary confinement in an Iranian prison, and has since addressed the issue through activism, writing, and art.

Way Down in the Hole Angela J. Hattery, Earl Smith, 2022-10-14 Based on ethnographic observations and interviews with prisoners correctional officers and civilian staff conducted in solitary confinement units Way Down in the Hole explores the myriad ways in which daily intimate interactions between those locked up twenty four hours a day and the correctional officers charged with their care custody and control produce and reproduce hegemonic racial ideologies Smith and Hattery explore the outcome of building prisons in rural economically depressed communities staffing them with white people who live in and around these communities filling them with Black and brown bodies from urban areas and then designing the structure of solitary confinement units such that the most private intimate daily bodily functions take place in very public ways Under these conditions it shouldn't be surprising but is rarely considered that such daily interactions produce and reproduce white racial resentment among many correctional officers and fuel the racialized tensions that prisoners often describe as the worst forms of dehumanization Way Down in the Hole concludes with recommendations for reducing the use of solitary confinement reforming its use in a limited context and most importantly creating an environment in which prisoners and staff co exist in ways that recognize their individual humanity and reduce rather than reproduce racial antagonisms and racial resentment Way Down the Hole Video 1 <https://youtu.be/UuAB63fhge0> Way Down the Hole Video 2 <https://youtu.be/TwEuwl1cTrcQ> Way Down the Hole Video 3 https://youtu.be/bOcBv\_UnHIs Way Down the Hole Video 4 https://youtu.be/cx\_l1S8D77c

Everything is Design: The Hidden Ethics of Our Objects and Public Spaces Alan J. Reid, 2025-05-06 Ethics to put it concisely is mindful well being It is a set of standards that guides how we treat ourselves one another and the environment When we design things for public use we also communicate an ethical perspective When we use things designed for us we adopt their ethics This book synthesizes several different disciplines as they relate to design ethics and the built environment Our objects according to philosophers like Ihde Verbeek and Latour mediate our experiences with the world around us Through their designs and by extension our perceived affordances we largely comply with what our objects and spaces want us to do At the micro level the phones in our pockets command our attentive processes in order to feed an attention economy At the macro level urban planning and infrastructure can both promote inclusivity and foment violence We are deeply intertwined with the objects and spaces that have been designed for us Baked into every object process system and environment are the remnants of the designer s morals ethics values and biases Importantly this book seeks to cultivate mindfulness of the reader s interactions with their surrounding world providing them with a line of inquiry that questions areas of unethical design in their built environment and offers useful critiques and new solutions to these ethical dilemmas We often have the power to reject those things that are irresponsibly designed and unethical in nature and it is through this agency as users that we can demand better from designers developers and companies It is imperative to understand our mediated relationships with the built environment that surrounds us and the objects within it this can help explain our behaviors and empower us to make ethical decisions that serve future generations
