Metropolitan Universities An Emerging Model In American Higher Education:

Metropolitan Universities Daniel Milo Johnson, David Arnold Bell, 1995 A collection of articles forming a handbook of information on Metropolitan Universities their unique mission and characteristics It addresses the questions and concerns of faculty students administrators state educational policy makers and mayors or city managers all of whom are involved in institutions located in or near the urban center of a metropolitan area Johnson and Bell collected articles forming a handbook of information on metropolitan universities and their unique mission and characteristics It addresses the questions and concerns of faculty students administrators state educational policy makers and mayors or city managers all of whom are involved in institutions located in or near the urban center of a metropolitan area Current Issues in Higher Education Stanley D. Murphy, John Eddy, 1998 A collection of 13 studies based on research into ongoing changes in higher education in the US They cover leadership wellness and health programs student services administration curriculum technology athletics diversity volunteer service and international issues Discussion questions for each study are appended for use in a graduate education course Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Higher Education in America Derek Bok, 2015-03-22 A sweeping assessment of the state of higher education today from former Harvard president Derek Bok Higher Education in America is a landmark work a comprehensive and authoritative analysis of the current condition of our colleges and universities from former Harvard president Derek Bok one of the nation's most respected education experts Sweepingly ambitious in scope this is a deeply informed and balanced assessment of the many strengths as well as the weaknesses of American higher education today At a time when colleges and universities have never been more important to the lives and opportunities of students or to the progress and prosperity of the nation Bok provides a thorough examination of the entire system public and private from community colleges and small liberal arts colleges to great universities with their research programs and their medical law and business schools Drawing on the most reliable studies and data he determines which criticisms of higher education are unfounded or exaggerated which are issues of genuine concern and what can be done to improve matters Some of the subjects considered are long standing such as debates over the undergraduate curriculum and concerns over rising college costs Others are more recent such as the rise of for profit institutions and massive open online courses MOOCs Additional topics include the quality of undergraduate education the stagnating levels of college graduation the problems of university governance the strengths and weaknesses of graduate and professional education the environment for research and the benefits and drawbacks of the pervasive competition among American colleges and universities Offering a rare survey and evaluation of American higher education as a whole this book provides a solid basis for a fresh public discussion about what the system is doing right what it needs to do better and how the next quarter century could be made a period of progress rather than decline Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research Laura W. Perna, 2025-01-30 Published annually since 1985 the Handbook series provides a compendium of thorough and integrative literature reviews on a diverse array of topics of interest to the higher education scholarly and policy communities Each chapter provides a comprehensive review of research findings on a selected topic critiques the research literature in terms of its conceptual and methodological rigor and sets forth an agenda for future research intended to advance knowledge on the chosen topic The Handbook focuses on a comprehensive set of central areas of study in higher education that encompasses the salient dimensions of scholarly and policy inquiries undertaken in the international higher education community Each annual volume contains chapters on such diverse topics as research on college students and faculty organization and administration curriculum and instruction policy diversity issues economics and finance history and philosophy community colleges advances in research methodology and more The series is fortunate to have attracted annual contributions from distinguished scholars throughout the world

Community Engagement in Higher Education W.

James Jacob, Stewart E. Sutin, John C. Weidman, John L. Yeager, 2015-06-17 There seems to be renewed interest in having universities and other higher education institutions engage with their communities at the local national and international levels But what is community engagement Even if this interest is genuine and widespread there are many different concepts of community service outreach and engagement The wide range of activity encompassed by community engagement suggests that a precise definition of the community mission is difficult and organizing and coordinating such activities is a complex task This edited volume includes 18 chapters that explore conceptual understandings of community engagement and higher education reforms and initiatives intended to foster it Contributors provide empirical research findings including several case study examples that respond to the following higher education community engagement issues What is the community and what does it need and expect from higher education institutions Is community engagement a mission of all types of higher education institutions or should it be the mission of specific institutions such as regional or metropolitan universities technical universities community colleges or indigenous institutions while other institutions such as major research universities should concentrate on national and global research agendas and on educating internationally competent researchers and professionals How can a university be global and at the same time locally relevant Is it or should it be left to the institutions to determine the scope and mode of their community engagement or is a state mandate preferable and feasible If community engagement or community service are mandatory what are the consequences of not complying with the mandate How effective are policy mandates and university engagement for regional and local economic development What are the principal features and relationships of regionally engaged universities Is community engagement to be left to faculty members and students who are particularly socially engaged and locally embedded or is it or should it be made mandatory for both faculty and students How can community engagement be better integrated with the other two traditional missions of the university research and teaching Cover image The Towering Four fold Mission of Higher Education by Natalie Jacob

City Comp Bruce McComiskey, Cynthia Ryan, 2012-02-01 This is the first full length collection in composition studies to tell the story of teaching and writing in urban universities in cities such as Birmingham Pittsburgh Chicago San Francisco Las Vegas Atlanta and Detroit Bruce McComiskey and Cynthia Ryan visit the fascinating history of various urban universities to illustrate how specific writing programs and instructors have engaged in the changing missions and priorities of their institutions The authors address the complex interwoven components of city comp the identities of individuals and institutions that contribute to the writing of verbal visual and spatial texts the spaces that serve as resources for student writing analysis and critique and the curriculum practices implemented in programs that attempt to help students recognize and in some cases transform their understandings of the cities in which they live learn and compose Handbook of Theory and Practice of Sustainable Development in Higher Education Walter Leal Filho,Constantina Skanavis,Arminda do Paço,Judy Rogers,Olga Kuznetsova,Paula Castro,2016-11-23 This Handbook approaches sustainable development in higher education from an integrated perspective addressing the dearth of publications on the subject It offers a unique overview of what universities around the world are doing to implement sustainable development i e via curriculum innovation research activities or practical projects and how their efforts relate to education for sustainable development at the university level The Handbook gathers a wealth of information ideas best practices and lessons learned in the context of executing concrete projects and assesses methodological approaches to integrating the topic of sustainable development in university curricula Lastly it documents and disseminates the veritable treasure trove of practical experience currently available on sustainability in higher education Promise and Betrayal John I. Gilderbloom,R. L. Mullins Jr.,2012-02-01 Traditionally institutions of higher education have been viewed as the gateway to a better future despite the fact that so many of the neighborhoods surrounding them have been filled with hopelessness and despair In Promise and Betrayal the authors want nothing less than to start a revolution in higher education calling on partnerships between town and gown to create sustainable urban neighborhoods John I Gilderbloom and R L Mullins Jr detail how higher education institutions can play an important role in helping to revitalize our poor neighborhoods by forming partnerships with public private and nonprofit groups They advocate leaving the ivory tower and supplying the community with expert knowledge as well as creative and technical resources

Ethnography Unbound Stephen Gilbert Brown,Sidney I. Dobrin,2012-02-01 These provocative new essays redefine the goals methods and assumptions of qualitative and ethnographic research in composition studies making evident not only the crucial importance of ethnographic research but also its resilience As Ethnography Unbound makes evident critical ethnographers are retheorizing their methodologies in ways that both redefine ethnographic practices and values and at the same time have begun to liberate ethnographic practices from the often disabling stronghold of postmodern critique Showing how ethnography works through dialogic processes and moves toward political ends this collection opens the doors to rethinking ethnographic research in composition studies Resources in Education ,1998 New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture, V. 17 Clarence L. Mohr,Charles Wilson,2011 The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Beyond the Campus David J. Maurrasse, 2002-05-03 The role of the university and its relationship to the community has long been a highly debated topic among educators administrators and local business leaders David J Maurrasse offers a passionate appeal for community partnerships Going further than a simple explanation of the problems at hand Beyond the Campus offers a road map for both universities and local institutions to work together for the good of their communities Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research John C. Smart, Michael B. Paulsen, 2011-03-24 Published annually since 1985 the Handbook series provides a compendium of thorough and integrative literature reviews on a diverse array of topics of interest to the higher education scholarly and policy communities Each chapter provides a comprehensive review of research findings on a selected topic critiques the research literature in terms of its conceptual and methodological rigor and sets forth an agenda for future research intended to advance knowledge on the chosen topic The Handbook focuses on twelve general areas that encompass the salient dimensions of scholarly and policy inquiries undertaken in the international higher education community The series is fortunate to have attracted annual contributions from distinguished scholars throughout the world Handbook on Communicating and Disseminating Behavioral Science Melissa K. Welch-Ross, Lauren G. Fasig, 2007-10-03 The Handbook on Communicating and Disseminating Behavioral Science assembles for the first time in a single volume research scholarship and practices from across relevant disciplines and professions to give a coherent picture for both students in the classroom and scholars Designed as both a text and a handbook it provides insights into the main actors contemporary themes and approaches key challenges and the broader conditions that influence whether and how the work occurs Contributors include behavioral scientists journalism and communication scholars mass media reporters editors and producers from print television and radio representatives of think tanks and advocacy organizations and professional communicators from a university a scientific society and a national social issue campaign All bring an accomplished record of sharing behavioral science to inform policy mass media service professions and the public Though scholarly the book brings together leading authorities who are both doers and thinkers to offer insights into how the work is done and to illuminate the underlying conceptual and empirical issues The book also advances the dissemination and communication of behavioral research as an area of scientific inquiry in its own right one that holds vast opportunities for the field of behavioral science Contributors offer recommendations for programs of research that should be at the top of the research agenda As a book of core readings written to be accessible to both professionals and students the book is poised to be a staple of any serious attempt to introduce behavioral scientists to key issues in communicating and disseminating behavioral science and to advance their capacity to understand and conduct the work It is also an unrivaled resource for student and professional science communicators seeking to learn more about the challenges of communicating behavioral research New Lights in the Valley Tennant S. McWilliams, 2007-08-16 A scholarly narrative of The University of Alabama at Birmingham from its nascent beginnings through the mid 1990s University-Community Collaborations for the Twenty-First Century

Richard M. Lerner, Lou Anna K. Simon, 2014-02-04 This volume is a unique collection of original pieces chronicling diverse national examples of university community partnerships The Urban University and the Knowledge Economy Patrizia Ingallina, 2025-10-03 This book presents international experiences of territorial strategies and urban projects in which universities have played a major role over the past fifteen years through spatial planning and within a multiscalar approach This approach constitutes the book's first originality illustrating the complexity of certain cases such as New York London or the Greater Paris Metropolis by highlighting the significant interconnections between spatial and institutional scales The second innovative aspect lies in the selection of case studies some of which are addressed for the first time in international literature Benguerir in Morocco Bergamo in Italy Grenoble Lille Marseille and Lyon in France and Hanoi in Vietnam while others are still little known from the perspective of university planning and its political and economic role in major metropolitan areas Greater Paris Metropolis Seoul The third key point explores the opportunity to directly compare well established Western metropolises like New York and London with the evolving Greater Paris Metropolis It also highlights Montreal a city blending Anglo Saxon and French influences while seeking its own unique path Additionally Asia's dynamic role is explored from China's innovative university planning to Hanoi's ambitious projects and Seoul's tension between national policies and metropolitan ambitions All chapters have been designed to raise questions provoke reflections and develop a perspective on the ongoing evolution of territorial strategies that leverage universities and the research conducted within them as a means to drive economic growth and increase productivity These strategies also converge toward an image of the city as a knowledge hub facilitating relationships between universities businesses and city users Because We Live Here Eli Goldblatt, 2007 Because We Live Here offers a new vision of post secondary writing programs using the example of the Temple University writing program in Philadelphia In successive chapters on Temple's connections with schools community colleges and university community partnerships Goldblatt calls for literacy instruction embedded in mutual relationships among an array of institutions and across many levels BOOK JACKET Reforming Medical Education Winton U. Solberg, 2009 The University of Illinois College of Medicine has its origins in the 1882 opening of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Chicago In 1897 the College of Physicians and Surgeons became affiliated with the University of Illinois and began a relationship that endured its fair share of trials successes and even a few bitter fights In this fact filled volume Winton U Solberg places the early history of the University of Illinois College of Medicine in a national and international context tracing its origins crises and reforms through its first tumultuous decades Solberg discusses the role of the College of Medicine and the city of Chicago in the historic transformation from the late nineteenth century when Germany was the acknowledged world center of medicine and the germ theory of disease was not yet widely accepted to 1920 by which time the United States had emerged as the leader in modern medical research and education With meticulous scholarship and attention to detail this volume chronicles the long and difficult struggle to achieve that goal

Reconceptualizing Faculty Development in Service-Learning/Community Engagement Becca Berkey, Emily Eddins Rountree, Patrick M. Green, Cara Meixner, 2023-07-03

The role of educational developer in the realm of service learning and community engagement S LCE is multidimensional Given the potentially transformational nature for both faculty and students of the experiences and courses in whose design they may be directly or indirectly involved as well as their responsibility to the communities served by these initiatives they have to be particularly attentive to issues of identity values and roles As both practitioners and facilitators they are often positioned as third space professionals This edited volume provides educational developers and community engagement professionals an analysis of approaches to faculty development around service learning and community engagement Using an openly self reflective approach the contributors to this volume offer an array of examples and models as well as realistic strategies to empower readers to evolve their faculty development efforts in service learning and community engagement on their respective campuses It is also a call for recognition that the practice of S LCE needs to be institutionalized and improved The book further addresses the field s potential contributions to scholarship such as the scholarship of teaching and learning SoTL publicly engaged scholarship and collaborative inquiry among others The case studies provide an outline of program models and promising practices including an authentic analysis of the institutional context within which they operate the positionality of the practitioner scholars overseeing them the resources required and the evidence related to both successes and challenges of these approaches The contributed chapters are organized under four themes the landscape of faculty development and community engagement models of faculty development in S LCE challenges and opportunities in pedagogy and partnerships and engendering change in educational development
