Hope for the Oppressor Patrick Oden, 2019-07-26 The liberating work of God calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing The challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts Patrick Oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression Part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others Part two examines the biblical and early Christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of God about being co-opted by society Part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg Jürgen Moltmann Sarah Coakley and Jean Vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community Truth, 1899

The Literary Construction of the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Mitzi J Smith, 2012-06-28 Mitzi Smith engages the reader in explaining how as in the real world the characterization of the Others is used negatively in the biblical texts Smith shows how the concept of difference is constructed in order to distinguish ourselves from proximate others indeed the other who is most similar to us is most threatening and most problematic The process of Othering or Otherness is a synthetic and political social construct that allows us to create and maintain boundaries between them and us Thus this work demonstrates how proximate characters are constructed as the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Charismatics Jews and women are proximate others who are constructed as the external and internal Others Backpacker, 2000-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker's Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured
