 Internet venture headquartered in Beijing China faces fierce competition in online streaming wars in both China and global markets In September 2016 ByteDance introduced Douyin a short video mobile app to the Chinese market based on the success of artificial intelligence AI technology based news recommendation app Toutiao It achieved massive success surpassing 100 million users within one year With success in the Chinese market ByteDance launched TikTok the global version of Douyin in September 2017 Douyin and TikTok shared the same starting point but have developed into two different apps Because of the difference in user preference and language barriers the two apps have entirely different content While both apps provided the same core features such as the Hashtag Challenges HC Douyin tended to adopt a broader range of functions including live streaming and online commerce service In the Chinese market ByteDance or Douyin has competed with the three Internet giants Baidu Alibaba and Tencent the so called BAT companies and other short video apps In the global market ByteDance or TikTok has closely competed against global platforms such as YouTube Facebook and Netflix
