Lee, 2016-11-10 Since 1997 when Hong Kong became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China a string of education reforms have been introduced to improve the quality of education and maintain Hong Kong's economic competitiveness in the age of globalization This book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of major issues and challenges faced by the education system ranging from pre school to higher education It analyses the prospects for educational development in Hong Kong It further addresses how the Hong Kong government has responded to the perceived challenges of the external environment and internal forces and explains the rationales for the actions taken Not only does it review how the reform initiative challenges have been dealt with it also reviews how effective these initiatives are and its implications on future directions

The Changing Legal Orders in Hong

Kong and Mainland China: Essays on "One Country, Two Systems" Albert H.Y. Chen, 2021 This collection of selected works by Professor Albert H Y Chen shows the contours of the author's scholarship as it developed over 35 years of his academic career from 1984 to the present. The essays are divided into three sections which cover the three major domains of Professor Chen's research. Part I covers the legal developments and controversies of One Country Two Systems since the Hong Kong interpretation on the right of abode in 1999 to the anti extradition movement of 2019. Part II shifts to focus on tradition and modernity in Chinese Law including China's Confucian and Legalist traditions and how the socialist legal system in China evolved and modernized in the era of reform and opening. Part III examines the transplantation of Western thinking and constitutionalism to East Asia in modern times and discusses the achievements and failures of these efforts. In conjunction with an introductory chapter that sets out the basic orientation and paradigm of these legal and constitutional studies and an epilogue that reflects on the main themes, this collection exemplifies the author's important contributions to the field and provides insight into how the legal orders in Hong Kong and mainland China have changed over the course of Professor Chen's academic career.

Crisis and Transformation in China's Hong Kong, Social Movements in China and Hong Kong Khun Eng Kuah, Gilles Guiheux, 2009 Het uitgangspunt van dit boek is dat Chinese individuen van hun eigen inzet uit moeten kunnen gaan ongeacht de beperkingen die hen door de staat worden opgelegd. Om hun belangen beter te kunnen verdedigen sluiten sommige individuen zich aan bij sociale bewegingen die tot sociale protesten kunnen leiden.

Public Administration in Southeast Asia Evan M. Berman, 2016-04-19 While public administration practice and education in general has become considerably professionalized in the last decade, existing knowledge on public administration in Southeast Asia is fragmented at best and often devoid of a useful reference. While journal articles and government reports provide decentralized information, Public Administration in Southeast Asia: Thailand, Philippines, Malaysia, Hong Kong and Macao takes a comprehensive and comparative look at the major components of administration systems. The selection of countries and regions included reflects the diversity of Southeast Asia. Organized by country, the handbook fills a critical need by bringing together leading scholars who provide an insider perspective and viewpoint on essential and advanced issues. Divided into five sections, each dedicated to a particular country, the text outlines topics relevant to modern public administration, including History and Political Context of Public Administration, Decentralization and Local Governance, Public Ethics and Corruption, Performance Management, Reforms, Civil Service System. Focusing on recent developments in public administration in these countries, which are among the fastest growing economies in the world, the book explores their practices and innovative approaches in public administration.
