Custodians of the Internet Tarleton Gillespie,2018-06-26 A revealing and gripping investigation into how social media platforms police what we post online and the large societal impact of these decisions Most users want their Twitter feed Facebook page and YouTube comments to be free of harassment and porn Whether faced with fake news or livestreamed violence content moderators who censor or promote user posted content have never been more important This is especially true when the tools that social media platforms use to curb trolling ban hate speech and censor pornography can also silence the speech you need to hear In this revealing and nuanced exploration award winning sociologist and cultural observer Tarleton Gillespie provides an overview of current social media practices and explains the underlying rationales for how when and why these policies are enforced In doing so Gillespie highlights that content moderation receives too little public scrutiny even as it shapes social norms and creates consequences for public discourse cultural production and the fabric of society Based on interviews with content moderators creators and consumers this accessible timely book is a must read for anyone who's ever clicked like or retweet before it's too late

MAP OF DREAMS Carolina Cohen dreams of traveling the world. She works a multitude of jobs during Carolina Cove's tourist season to travel the winter months until her cash runs out. Snagging her dream job as an international house sitter to a company catering to the elite would enable her to do so much more. Too bad it's as likely as winning the lottery. Silas Fletcher is a single dad of an eight-year-old genius daughter who doesn't have time for games. He works long hours and does all he can to be the dad his daughter deserves. Carolina is a walking disaster. She's gorgeous and funny, intriguing but flaky. Still, when he's in desperate need of childcare, Carolina comes through for him, and the animosity felt after a disastrous first meeting ends up turning into something more. Much more. But as school begins and the tourist season draws to a close, Carolina must choose: Does she stay with the sexy single dad and precocious kid who've stolen her heart, or follow her map of dreams?

WORTH THE RISK Frankie Cohen can't believe that some invisible magnet or higher plan has brought Grayson Carter back in her life yet again. But no matter how gorgeous or charming she isn't giving Grayson another chance to break her heart. Not after she'd barely survived the last time. Grayson has made some big mistakes where Frankie is concerned, but he's not about to let her get away again without telling her everything. He regrets hurting her and wants to make things right, but when they finally get close and he learns the full extent of the pain he's caused her, he knows the best thing he can do for her is let her go. Frankie knows Grayson's guilt is the source of his fear. So how can she convince him love is worth the risk?

LOST LOVE FOUND Holland Cohen has a love-hate relationship with her job. It's a dream profession: traveling the world to value list and sell items the rich no longer want. She's seen the best and worst of their private lives, but she wonders if she'll ever find a love like that described in the love letters hidden in one of her latest assignments. Maximilian Bane is jaded by the attention his family's wealth brings out in the opposite sex, but Holland Cohen seems to be the exception. Time will tell, and time is something they have as she works through his grandmother's estate. Holland's fascination with the old letters is matched by her growing feelings for Max, but when the truth results in his grandmother's disappearance, Max and Holland go head-to-head in a battle of wills that could cost them any hope of a future together. Once hearts are broken, can lost love be found again?
