Naked Airport A Cultural History Of The Worlds Most Revolutionary Structure:

Naked Airport Alastair Gordon, 2008-06 In Naked Airport critic Alastair Gordon ranges from global geopolitics to action movies to the daily commute showing how airports have changed our sense of time distance style and even the way cities are built and business is done

Naked Airport Alistair Gordon, 2004-01 The first full cultural history of the ultimate modern structure the airport revealed as never before Since its origins in the muddy fields of flying machines the airport has arguably become one of the defining institutions of modern life In Naked Airport critic Alastair Gordon ranges from global geopolitics to action movies to the daily commute showing how airports have changed our sense of time distance style and even the way cities are built and business is done Gordon introduces the people who shaped this place of sudden transition pilots like Charles Lindberg architects like Eero Saarinen politicians like Fiorello La Guardia and Hitler who built Berlin s Tempelhof as a showcase for Fascist power He describes the airport s futuristic contributions such as credit cards in the form of fly now pay later schemes and he charts its shift in popular perception from glamorous to infuriating Finally he analyzes the airport s function in war and peace its gatekeeper role controlling immigration its appeal to revolutionaries since the hijackings of the 1960s and its new frontline position in the struggle against terror Compelling and accessible Naked Airport is an original history of a long neglected yet central creation of modern reality and imagination

The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries

Atmospheric Noise Marina Peterson, 2021-02-05 In Atmospheric Noise Marina Peterson traces entanglements of environmental noise atmosphere sense and matter that cohere in and through encounters with airport noise since the 1960s Exploring spaces shaped by noise around Los Angeles International Airport LAX she shows how noise is a way of attuning toward the atmospheric through noise we learn to listen to the sky and imagine the permeability of bodies and matter sensing and conceiving that which is diffuse indefinite vague and unformed In her account the atmospheric encompasses the physicality of the ephemeral dynamic assemblages of matter as well as a logic of indeterminacy It is audible as well as visible heard as much as breathed Peterson develops a theory of indefinite urbanism to refer to marginalized spaces of the city where concrete meets sky windows resonate with the whine of departing planes and endangered butterflies live under flight paths Offering a conceptualization of sound as immanent and non objectified she demonstrates ways in which noise is central to how we know feel and think atmospherically

Politics at the Airport Mark B. Salter, 2008 Politics at the Airport brings together leading scholars to examine how airports both shape and are shaped by current political social and economic conditions Focusing on the ways that airports have become securitized the essays address a wide range of practices and technologies from architecture biometric identification and CCTV systems to no fly lists and the privatization of border control now being deployed to frame the social sorting of safe and potentially dangerous travelers

to the post 9 11 turn this book investigates how airports figure in the American cultural imagination Thinking Through Tourism Julie Scott, Tom Selwyn, 2021-01-14 The study of tourism has made key contributions to the study of anthropology This volume defines the current state of the anthropology of tourism examining political economic ideological and symbolic themes An extraordinarily rich collection of case studies illustrate topics as diverse as hospitality sex and tourism enchantment colonial and neo colonial consumption and the relation between tourism and gender and ethnic boundaries as well as questions of global economic and cultural systems modernism and nationalism The book also covers practical and policy issues relating to urban rural and coastal planning and development Thinking through Tourism assesses the enormous potential contribution that analysis of tourism can offer to mainstream anthropological thinking The volume opens up new avenues for enquiry and is an essential resource for students and scholars of anthropology geography tourism sociology and related disciplines

Spectral Spaces and Hauntings Christina Lee, 2017-02-17 This anthology explores the spatial dimension and politics of haunting It considers how the appearance of absence emptiness and the imperceptible can indicate an overwhelming presence of something that once was and still is t here At its core the book asks how and why do certain places haunt us Drawing from a diversity of mediums forms and disciplinary approaches the contributors to Spectral Spaces and Hauntings illustrate the complicated ways absent presences can manifest and be registered The case studies range from the memory sites of a terrorist attack the lost home a vanished mining town and abandoned airports to the post apocalyptic wastelands in literary fiction the photographic and filmic surfaces where spectres materialise and the body as a site for re corporealising the disappeared and dead In ruminating on the afteraffects of spectral spaces on human experience the anthology importantly foregrounds the ethical and political imperative of engaging with ghosts and following their traces

Cartoon Vision Dan Bashara, 2019-04-02 In Cartoon Vision Dan Bashara examines American animation alongside the modern design boom of the postwar era Focusing especially on United Productions of America UPA a studio whose graphic abstract style defined the postwar period Bashara considers animation akin to a laboratory exploring new models of vision and space alongside theorists and practitioners in other fields The links theoretical historical and aesthetic between animators architects designers artists and filmmakers reveal a specific midcentury modernism that rigorously reimaged the senses Cartoon Vision invokes the American Bauhaus legacy of L szl Moholy Nagy and Gy rgy Kepes and advocates for animation s pivotal role in a utopian design project of retraining the public s vision to better apprehend a rapidly changing modern world Making Spaces through Infrastructure Marian Burchardt, Dirk Laak, 2023-07-04 Infrastructures are fundamental means through which societies create spaces but little is known about the precise ways in which this occurs How have infrastructures animated certain understandings of space How do infrastructures stabilize or undermine the spatial formats in which we live which shape our everyday practices and which regulate access to services and resources And conversely how do spaces frame the ways infrastructural provision is organized How do existing spaces shape infrastructural development and the scope and forms of access to vital services such as transport and water In this volume historians and sociologists draw on a range of fascinating case studies and provide compelling answers to these questions Exploring among others the provision of irrigation water in nineteenth century Los Angeles the invention of airport transit zones and the infrastructural practices of homeless people in Berlin the book demonstrates how the making of spaces through infrastructure is deeply political Intent on revealing uneven geographies of provision and hierarchies of access the contributors highlight how infrastructures are products of global entanglements

The End of Airports Christopher Schaberg, 2015-11-19 A sequel and companion to the groundbreaking The Textual Life of Airports The End of Airports combines critical theory cultural studies and media studies to encourage readers to think differently about contemporary air travel

Air Travel Fiction and Film Erica Durante, 2020-08-03 Air Travel Fiction and Film Cloud People explores how over the past four decades fiction and film have transformed our perceptions and representations of contemporary air travel Adopting an interdisciplinary approach the book provides a comprehensive analysis of a wide range of international cultural productions and elucidates the paradigms and narratives that constitute our current imaginary of air mobility Erica Durante advances the hypothesis that fiction and film have converted the Airworld the world of airplanes and airport infrastructures into a pivotal anthropological place that is endowed with social significance and identity suggesting that the assimilation of the sky into our cultural imaginary and lifestyle has metamorphosed human society into Cloud People In its examination of the representations of air travel as an epicenter of today's world the book not only illustrates a novel perspective on contemporary fiction but fills an important gap in the study of globalization within literary and film studies

In the Meantime Sarah Sharma, 2014-02-07 Based on ethnographic research with taxi drivers frequent flyer business travelers devotees of the slow food and slow living movements and others Sarah Sharma argues that people's relations to labor shape their experiences of time

Literature of the Somali Diaspora Marco Medugno, 2024-07-11 The first study of Anglophone and Italian novels by Somali diasporic authors offering a new critical framework for multilingual and transnational analysis of Somali literature Building on the latest scholarship about multilingual contexts diaspora studies and the rapidly expanding field of Italian postcolonial studies Marco Medugno examines Somali diasporic literature with a comparative perspective Considering works written in English and Italian he argues that Somali diasporic authors share similar themes and aesthetics thus creating an interliterary community within the diaspora space By using multilingualism as a starting point Medugno provides significant insights into how Somali national and individual identities are constructed in diasporic global contexts through geography style form language and the re writing of national histories emerging out of colonization and independence Analysing acclaimed Somali novels such as Nuruddin Farah's Links and Crossbones Igiaba Scego's Adua and Cristina Ali Farah's Little Mother he questions any definition of local as provincial instead considering it a site for interrogating global concerns Literature of the Somali Diaspora is organized around three themes spatiality language and resistance help to contextualize authors forced by the decades long Somali Civil War to write outside Somalia and in different languages including Somali Italian English German Dutch and Arabic within global literary circuits Their work thus creates a literature not confined within national borders but an interliterary global community a transnational and multilingual space in which they share world aesthetic ideologies challenge and engage with literary traditions in different languages and show an interplay between diverse cultures

Research Methods in Critical Security Studies Mark B. Salter, Can E.

Mutlu, Philippe M. Frowd, 2023-05-12 This textbook surveys new and emergent methods for doing research in critical security studies filling a gap in the literature The second edition has been revised and updated This textbook is a practical guide to research design in this increasingly established field Arguing for serious attention to questions of research design and method the book develops accessible scholarly overviews of key methods used across critical security studies such as ethnography discourse analysis materiality and corporeal methods It draws on prominent examples of each method s objects of analysis relevant data and forms of data collection The book s defining feature is the collection of diverse accounts of research design from scholars working within each method each of which is a clear and honest recounting of a specific project s design and development This second edition is extensively revised and expanded Its 33 contributors reflect the sheer diversity of critical security studies today representing various career stages scholarly interests and identities This book is systematic in its approach to research design but keeps a reflexive and pluralist approach to the question of methods and how they can be used The second edition has a new forward looking conclusion examining future research trends and challenges for the field This book will be essential reading for upper level students and researchers in the field of critical security studies and of much interest to students in International Relations and across the social sciences

Empires of

the Sky Alexander Rose, 2021-05-25 The Golden Age of Aviation is brought to life in this story of the giant Zeppelin airships that once roamed the sky a story that ended with the fiery destruction of the Hindenburg Genius a definitive tale of an incredible time when mere mortals learned to fly Keith O Brien The New York Times At the dawn of the twentieth century when human flight was still considered an impossibility Germany s Count Ferdinand von Zeppelin vied with the Wright Brothers to build the world s first successful flying machine As the Wrights labored to invent the airplane Zeppelin fathered the remarkable airship sparking a bitter rivalry between the two types of aircraft and their innovators that would last for decades in the quest to control one of humanity s most inspiring achievements And it was the airship not the airplane that led the way In the glittery 1920s the count s brilliant protégé Hugo Eckener achieved undreamed of feats of daring and skill including the extraordinary Round the World voyage of the Graf Zeppelin At a time when America s airplanes rickety deathtraps held together by glue screws and luck could barely make it from New York to Washington D C Eckener s airships serenely traversed oceans without a single crash fatality or injury What Charles Lindbergh almost died doing crossing the Atlantic in 1927 Eckener had effortlessly accomplished three years before the Spirit of St Louis even took off Even as the

Nazis sought to exploit Zeppelins for their own nefarious purposes Eckener built his masterwork the behemoth Hindenburg a marvel of design and engineering Determined to forge an airline empire under the new flagship Eckener met his match in Juan Trippe the ruthlessly ambitious king of Pan American Airways who believed his fleet of next generation planes would vanquish Eckener's coming airship armada It was a fight only one man and one technology could win Countering each other's moves on the global chessboard each seeking to wrest the advantage from his rival the struggle for mastery of the air was a clash not only of technologies but of business diplomacy politics personalities and the two men's vastly different dreams of the future Empires of the Sky is the sweeping untold tale of the duel that transfixed the world and helped create our modern age

1938: Modern Britain Michael John Law, 2017-12-14 In 1938: Modern Britain Michael John Law demonstrates that our understanding of life in Britain just before the Second World War has been overshadowed by its dramatic political events 1938 was the last year of normality and Law shows through a series of case studies that in many ways life in that year was far more modern than might have been thought By considering topics as diverse as the opening of a new type of pub the launch of several new magazines the emergence of push button radios and large screen television sets and the building of a huge office block he reveals a Britain both modern and intrigued by its own modernity that was stopped in its tracks by war and the austerity that followed For some life in Britain was as consumerist secular Americanized and modern as it would become for many in the late 1950s and early 1960s Presenting a fresh perspective on an important year in British social history illuminated by six engaging case studies this is a key study for students and scholars of 20th century Britain

From the Lighthouse: Interdisciplinary Reflections on Light Veronica Strang, Tim Edensor, Joanna Puckering, 2018-04-27 What is a lighthouse What does it mean What does it do This book shows how exchanging knowledge across disciplinary boundaries can transform our thinking Adopting an unconventional structure this book involves the reader in a multivocal conversation between scholars poets and artists Seen through their individual perspectives lighthouses appear as signals of safety beacons of enlightenment phallic territorial markers and memorials of historical relationships with the sea However the interdisciplinary conversation also reveals underlying and sometimes unexpected connections It elucidates the human and non human evolutionary adaptations that use light for signalling and warning the visual languages created by regularity and synchronicity in pulses of light how lighthouses have generated a whole family of related material objects and technologies and the way that light flows between social and material worlds

Sweet Spots Teresa A. Toulouse, Barbara C. Ewell, 2018-05-17 Contributions by Carrie Bernhard Scott Bernhard Marilyn R Brown Richard Campanella John P Clark Joel Dinerstein Pableaux Johnson John P Klingman Angel Adams Parham Bruce Boyd Raeburn Ruth Salvaggio Christopher Schaberg Teresa A Toulouse and Beth Willinger Much has been written about New Orleans's distinctive architecture and urban fabric as well as the city's art literature and music There is however little discussion connecting these features Sweet Spots a title drawn from jazz musicians name for the space in between performers and dancers where music best resonates

provides multiple connections between the city's spaces, its complex culture, and its future. Drawing on the late Tulane architect Malcolm Heard's ideas about interstitial spaces, this collection examines how a variety of literal and represented in-between spaces in New Orleans have addressed race, class, gender, community, and environment. As scholars of architecture, art, African American studies, English history, jazz philosophy, and sociology, the authors incorporate materials from architectural history and practice, literary texts, paintings, drawings, music, dance, and even statistical analyses. Interstitial space refers not only to functional elements inside and outside of many New Orleans houses, high ceilings, hidden staircases, galleries, and courtyards, but also to compelling spatial relations between the city's houses, streets, and neighborhoods. Rich with visual materials, Sweet Spots reveals the ways that diverse New Orleans spaces take on meanings and accrete stories that promote certain consequences both for those who live in them and for those who read such stories. The volume evokes, preserves, criticizes, and amends understanding of a powerful and often missed feature of New Orleans's elusive reality.

London's Turning Michael J. Rustin, 2016-12-14 The Thames Gateway plan is the largest and most complex project of urban regeneration ever undertaken in the United Kingdom. This book provides a comprehensive overview and critique of the Thames Gateway plan, but at the same time it uses the plan as a lens through which to look at a series of important questions of social theory, urban policy, and governmental practice. It examines the impact of urban planning and demographic change on East London's material and social environment, including new forms of ethnic gentrification, the development of the eastern hinterlands, shifting patterns of migration between city and country, the role of new policies in regulating housing provision, and the attempt to create new cultural hubs downriver. It also looks at issues of governance and accountability, the tension between public and private interests, and the immediate and longer-term prospects for the Thames Gateway project, both in relation to the Olympics effect and the growth of new forms of regionalism.
