China and Africa Young-Chan Kim, 2017-01-20 This book encapsulates the New Normal Policy which has changed the regional policy between China and the African continent This volume emphasises China's role in Africa as a collaborator in an attempt to fulfil the Beijing consensus in emerging countries The contextual research encompasses how one can comprehend the influence of the Chinese model in Africa and her diplomatic relations with the continent China and Africa A New Paradigm of Global Business endeavours to define whether or not the Washington model has become weathered and the Beijing consensus more relevant in this specific continent Development Programmes Estimates of Expenditure

Namibia, 2011 African Military Geoscience Jacques Bezuidenhout, Hennie Smit, 2018-12-18 This eight chapter volume African Military Geosciences Military History and the Physical Environment is a tour de force covering nearly 500 years of African military geosciences It is a truly global book that reveals keen insights into regional national and international military forces activities centered in Africa and how the understanding of geosciences plays important roles It is written for the specialist but also attractive to the general military buff well referenced and illustrated with figures from primary sources historical catalogues and compendia The publication further explores the age of sail harbour defenses the trafficability of desert environments and marshes as well as climate controls on sailing or land battles There is even insight into an elite artillery unit staffed by women during Second World War essentially covering the whole gamut Ultimately the reader explores a nearly 500 year journey around the African continent and beyond A Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg, 2016-01-31 South Africa's armed forces invaded Angola in 1975 setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia The book does not only look at the war from an old South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants on the other side emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography Namibia Review, 2019-07

Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements Jocelyn Alexander, JoAnn McGregor, Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2020-05-21 Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements offers new perspectives on southern Africa's wars of national liberation drawing on extensive oral historical and archival research Assuming neither the primacy of nationalist loyalties as they exist today nor any single path to liberation the book unpicks any notion of a straightforward imposition of Cold War ideologies or strategic interests on liberation wars This approach adds new dimensions to the rich literatures on the Global Cold War and on solidarity movements The contributors trace the ways that ideas and practices were made adopted and circulated through time and space through a focus on African soldiers politicians and diplomats The book also asks what motivated the men and women who crossed borders to join liberation movements how Cold War influences were acted upon interpreted and used and why certain moments venues and relations took on exaggerated importance The connections among liberation movements between them and their hosts and across an extraordinarily diverse set of external actors reveal surprising exchanges and lasting legacies that have too often been obscured by the assertion of monolithic national histories Tracing an extraordinarily diverse set of interactions and exchanges Transnational Histories of Southern Africa s Liberation Movements will be of great interest to scholars of Southern Africa Transnational History the Cold War and African Politics The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies

Ruling Nature, Controlling People Luregn Lenggenhager, 2018-09-17 Recent nature conservation initiatives in Southern Africa such as communal conservancies and peace parks are often embedded in narratives of economic development and ecological research They are also increasingly marked by militarisation and violence In Ruling Nature Controlling People Luregn Lenggenhager shows that these features were also characteristic of South African rule over the Caprivi Strip region in North Eastern Namibia especially in the fields of forestry fisheries and ultimately wildlife conservation In the process the increasingly internationalised war in the region from the late 1960s until Namibias independence in 1990 became intricately interlinked with contemporary nature conservation ecology and economic development projects By retracing such interdependencies Lenggenhager provides a novel perspective from which to examine the history of a region which has until now barely entered the focus of historical research He thereby highlights the enduring relevance of the supposedly peripheral Caprivi and its military scientific and environmental histories for efforts to develop a deeper understanding of the ways in which apartheid South Africa exerted state power

Surviving the Ride Steve Camp, Helmoed-Römer Heitman, 2014-09-19 Mine protected and mine resistant ambush protected MRAP vehicles are today standard in the US most major western armed forces and many other armies as a result of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan The South African Army was already routinely using mine protected armored personnel carriers and patrol vehicles forty years ago even if they looked primitive and ungainly A few years later the South African Army had reached the stage where it could deploy entire combat groups into battle zones equipped with only mine protected vehicles including their ambulances and supply trucks By then the mine protected vehicles had also become effective for use in combat rather than just protected transport the Casspir being the chief example More to the point they saved countless soldiers and policemen from death or serious injury and the basic concepts now live on in the various MRAP types in service today The valuable lessons learned by the South Africans with their early designs of these combat proven vehicles has led the country to become one of the global leaders in the design of MRAPs which are locally manufactured and exported around the world Surviving the Ride is a fascinating pictorial account featuring more than 120 of these unique South African developed vehicles spanning a forty year period with over 280 photographs many of which are previously unpublished
