Narrative Means To Therapeutic Ends:

Narrative Means To Therapeutic Ends Michael White, David Epston, 1990-05 Starting from the assumption that people experience emotional problems when the stories of their lives as they or others have invented them do not represent the truth this volume outlines an approach to psychotherapy which encourages patients to take power over their problems

Narrative Means to Therapeutic Ends Michael White (psicoterapia), 1990 Narrative Means to Therapeutic Ends David Epston, Michael White, 2023-11-28 Use of letter writing in family therapy Poststructural and Narrative Thinking in Family Therapy Victoria Dickerson, 2016-04-25 This brief applies variations in poststructural thinking and practice to the field of family therapy Poststructural thinking pervades the world of therapeutic practice in ways that are often invisible to both the theoretician as well as the practitioner In this brief the authors focus on what poststructuralism has brought to our understanding What follows are chapters that speak to training and teaching principles as well as to practices that draw on ideas about becoming relationality and the aesthetics of engagement Each chapter builds on the other with the last one reprising a key component of narrative understanding From a teaching institution in Auckland NZ to an online training program in Minneapolis from new thinking about auto ethnography to a de centered practice to poetic resistance the chapters in this brief offer exciting ideas and practice possibilities Various Aspects of Worship in Deuterocanonical and Cognate Literature Géza G. Xeravits, József Zsengellér, Ibolya Balla, 2017-06-26 The volume contains papers read at the International Conference of the ISDCL held in Budapest in 2015 The contributors explore various aspects of worship as reflected in the literature of Judaism from the Second Temple period to Late Antiquity The volume provides a fresh reading of various crucial issues especially within Old Testament Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha Rabbinic literature Gnostic traditions and the emerging synagogue The papers analyse texts and artefacts that reveal how various groups of Judaism understood the concept of worship a pre eminent form of expressing religious identity and interpreting fundamental traditions The Experience of Meaning in Life Joshua A. Hicks, Clay Routledge, 2013-05-27 This edited volume takes an in depth exploration into the burgeoning field of meaning in life in the psychological sciences Each chapter features leading scholars who describes current empirical findings in a thorough and accessible manner highlighting important issues and controversies facing the scientific study of meaning in life The book covers an exhaustive range of topics including conceptual and methodological issues core psychological mechanisms that contribute to a sense of meaning as well as important antecedents environmental cognitive and personality variables that bear on the experience of meaning in life This volume is a must read for any researcher student or clinician interested in the state of meaning in life in the psychological sciences The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work Terry Altilio, Shirley Otis-Green, John G. Cagle, 2022 It is so important to advocate for things that may not always seem possible Getting to work with patients families at the end of their life is the ultimate honor Lauren G Markham MSW LCSW APHSW C In this work one witnesses both depths of human suffering and heights of human transcendence that can inspire both awe and fear At those times I have found that surrendering my need to be an expert and instead allow myself to simply be a human is the wisest action Kerry Irish LCSW OSW C FAOSW Integrative

Essays on Mediation Ian Macduff, 2016-09-16 Across a range of jurisdictions in differing legal systems mediation is achieving evergreater institutional and statutory force and what not long ago was a marginal technique for dispute resolution is becoming mainstream and orthodox But how firm a sense do we have about the social formation we call mediation Through reflections and case histories this distinctive collection of essays by experienced mediators from across the globe provides a clearer understanding than we have had heretofore of what mediation is and what it can offer as a practical accessible and positive alternative in civil justice systems The authors each address ways mediation has been or can be applied to dispute resolution in such pressing contexts as the following enduring and intense conflicts planning and environmental issues conflicts arising between refugee and host communities elder care intercultural settings online communication science based disputes and public policy disputes The questions raised as to access to justice identifying unmet needs improving the provision of services and fostering an ongoing conversation on mediation go well beyond the confines of commercial dispute resolution and the walls of courtrooms Through the practical experiences described useful and insightful perspectives emerge on the practice principles and legitimacy of mediation These invaluable reports and reflections on the powerful resources that mediation and mediators can bring to the table will be welcomed by a diversity of legal practitioners and jurists as well as academics

A Resilience-Enhancing Stress Model Roberta Greene, Nicole Dubus, Nancy Greene, 2022-08-23 Social work practice has evolved to meet the needs of the time the problems that are present and the knowledge and skills available Given the more recent rapidly changing stressful environments political economic demographic sociocultural and ideological change has affected how practice is defined Now it is even more essential for there to be innovative theoretical concepts and intervention strategies to support current practice This textbook addresses today's context of social work practice that needs to deal with the complexity of personal and social relationships the continuing historical flux of the times and the constant anxiety or threats and pulls of daily life The text is based on the idea that social work practice requires a research and theoretical base that allows practitioners to build on a client's ability to persist in the face of life's challenges and to proceed positively with life events The Resilience Enhancing Stress Model RESM is an outgrowth of the profession's interest in strength based person environment approaches grounded in generalist social work practice that offers a range of intervention practice methods with diverse individuals families groups organizations and communities RESM was developed to provide the skill set for working with clients and constituencies across the individual family community configuration during times of distress It also can be a welcomed addition to social work practice with people undertaking life transitions and overcoming disruption to individual family and community function Topics explored include An Evolving Resilience Enhancing Stress Model Interviewing to Promote Resilience Among Marginalized Populations Co creating a Grand Narrative The Intersection of Individual Family and Community Practice Connecting Communal Living Ecology and Resilience A Resilience Enhancing Stress Model A Social Work Multisystemic Practice Approach is a timely text for human behavior and practice methods at the generalist or advanced generalist levels in social work It can also be used at the doctoral level of social work education depending on the professor's attention to the depth of theoretical concepts Practitioners in the field may find the contents useful to their professional enrichment

Family Therapy Beyond Postmodernism Carmel Flaskas, 2003-09-02 Postmodernist ideas are widely used in family therapy However it is argued that these ideas have their limits in meeting the richness and complexity of human experience and therapy practice Family Therapy Beyond Postmodernism examines postmodernism and its expressions in family therapy raising questions about reality and realness the subjective process of truth the experience of self Alongside identifying the difficulties in any sole reliance on narrative and constructionist ideas this book advocates the value of selected psychoanalytic ideas for family therapy practice in particular attachment and the unconscious transference projective identification and understandings of time psychoanalytic ideas about thinking and containment in the therapeutic relationship Family Therapy Beyond Postmodernism offers a sustained critical discussion of the possibilities and limits of contemporary family therapy knowledge and develops a place for psychoanalytic ideas in systemic thinking and practice It will be of great interest to family therapists psychotherapists and other mental health professionals Enjoying Research in Counselling and Psychotherapy Sofie Bager-Charleson, Alistair McBeath, 2020-12-23 This textbook provides a guide to the development of a rigorous and creative research supported practice for students practitioners and researchers in counselling and psychotherapy With an emphasis on critical thinking and research mindedness it introduces practical research skills and links them to self awareness and critical reflection Learning how to creatively and effectively use oneself in the treatment process is an essential component in therapy training and this level of self awareness has long been a neglected area in research until now With examples ranging from private therapeutic practice to psychiatric related research each chapter combines how to do it advice with illustrative real life examples The authors outline the use of a broad range of research methods embracing Arts as well as RCT based research and covering qualitative quantitative pluralistic and mixed methods approaches Whether you are engaging with research for the first time or already developing your own research projects if you are a student at diploma level or taking a Postgraduate research course for counsellors psychotherapists and counselling psychotherapists this is essential reading for anyone looking for a book that combines self awareness with analytical and practical skills
