the same time in recent years the Europeanization of Holocaust memory and a growing sense of the need to stage a more self critical memory has significantly changed the way in which western Europe commemorates and memorializes the past The increasing dissatisfaction among scholars with the blanket undifferentiated use of the term collective memory is evolving in new directions This volume brings the tension into focus while addressing the state of memory theory itself

these opponents of Britain's policy To date studies of Britain's unsuccessful bid for entry have focused on high political analysis of diplomacy and policy formulation In most accounts only passing reference is made to domestic opposition This book redresses the balance by providing a more complete depiction of the opposition movement and a distinctive approach that proceeds from a low political viewpoint As such the book emphasises protest and populism of the kind exercised by among others Fleet Street crusaders at the Daily Express pressure groups such as the Anti Common Market League and Forward Britain Movement expert pundits like A J P Taylor Sir Arthur Bryant and William Pickles as well as constituency activists independent parliamentary candidates pamphleteers letter writers and maverick MPs In its consideration of a group largely overlooked in previous accounts the book provides essential insights into the intellectual structural populist and nationalist dimensions of early Euroscepticism The book will be of significant interest to both scholars and students of national identity Britain's relationship with Europe and the Commonwealth pressure groups and party politics and the trajectory of the Eurosceptic phenomenon

The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema Temenuga Trifonova, 2020-07-09 The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema explores contemporary debates around the concepts of Europe and European identity through an examination of recent European films dealing with various aspects of globalization the refugee crisis labour migration the resurgence of nationalism and ethnic violence neoliberalism post colonialism with a particular attention to the figure of the migrant and the ways in which this figure challenges us to rethink Europe and its core Enlightenment values citizenship justice ethics liberty tolerance and hospitality in a post national context of ephemerality volatility and contingency that finds people desperately looking for firmer markers of identity The book argues that a compelling case can be made for re orienting the study of contemporary European cinema around the figure of the migrant viewed both as a symbolic figure representing post national citizenship urbanization the gap between ethics and justice and as a figure occupying an increasingly central place in European cinema in general rather than only in what is usually called migrant and diasporic cinema By drawing attention to the structural and affective affinities between the experience of migrants and non migrants Europeans and non Europeans Trifonova shows that it is becoming increasingly difficult to separate stories about migration from stories about life under neoliberalism in general

Multiplicity of Nationalism in Contemporary Europe Ireneusz Paweł Karolewski, Andrzej Marcin Suszycki, 2010-01-01 Nationalism remains one of the key political societal and socio psychological phenomena in contemporary Europe The international scholars assembled in this edited collection suggest that the use of three perspectives supranationalism boundary making nationalism and regional nationalism may be promising as an explanatory framework for the analysis of nationalism in Europe The volume distances itself from older dichotomies such as civic and ethnic nationalism and questions the one sided normativity of nationalism in particular regarding the concept of liberal nationalism It argues that a promising approach to contemporary nationalism should reflect the multiplicity of nationalism
