Accelerating Academic Achievement Ina V. S. Mullis, 1990 Data from 20 years 1970 90 of the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP are summarized The NAEP represents the nation's only ongoing assessment of the academic achievement of American students Its assessments of educational achievement of students in grades 4 8 and 12 are presented as The Nation's Report Card Chapter 1 of this report contains information about the students competency in subject matter across the curriculum and their ability to use their minds well Chapters 2 and 3 include information about the trends across time related to the performance of elementary school middle school and secondary school students in higher order reasoning problem solving and communication skills as well as information about the academic achievement of minority students Chapter 4 summarizes information about background variables related to education In general the data indicate that the educational performance of U S students is low and not improving It is estimated that more than half of the nation's elementary through high school students are unable to demonstrate competency in challenging subject matter in English mathematics science history and geography Fewer than half of all U S students appear to be able to use their minds well Although considerable progress has been made in closing the performance gaps among different racial ethnic and gender groups the gaps still remain too large to meet the nation's objective of close parallels between the performance of minority students and the student population as a whole Much that research has identified as effective in improving education is still not being implemented in the nation's schools Nineteen tables and five figures summarize NAEP data SLD

Grading the Nation's Report Card National Research Council, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Testing and Assessment, Committee on the Evaluation of National and State Assessments of Educational Progress, 1999-01-23 Since the late 1960s the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP the nation's report card has been the only continuing measure of student achievement in key subject areas Increasingly educators and policymakers have expected NAEP to serve as a lever for education reform and many other purposes beyond its original role Grading the Nation's Report Card examines ways NAEP can be strengthened to provide more informative portrayals of student achievement and the school and system factors that influence it The committee offers specific recommendations and strategies for improving NAEP's effectiveness and utility including Linking achievement data to other education indicators Streamlining data collection and other aspects of its design Including students with disabilities and English language learners Revamping the process by which achievement levels are set The book explores how to improve NAEP framework documents which identify knowledge and skills to be assessed with a clearer eye toward the inferences that will be drawn from the results What should the nation expect from NAEP What should NAEP do to meet these expectations This book provides a blueprint for a new paradigm important to education policymakers professors and students as well as school administrators and teachers and education advocates Evaluaciones nacionales del rendimiento académico Volumen 3

Vincent Greaney, Thomas Kellaghan, 2016-03-23 Implementing a National Assessment of Educational Achievement the third volume in the five part National Assessments of Educational Achievement series focuses on practical issues in the implementation of a national assessment These include the representation of key educational stakeholders required personnel and facilities and the sequence of administrative activities in implementing an assessment Particular attention is focused on sampling such as defining the population to be assessed elements of sampling theory and the selection of schools and students to take part in an assessment Readers are guided through the selection of a sample by working on a set of concrete tasks presented in the text using data files in an accompanying CD One section of Volume 3 is devoted to typical tasks involved in preparing validating and managing data Users are expected to develop competence in data preparation skills by carrying out the practical exercises in the CD They are also shown how to complete important pre analysis steps such as compute survey weights calculate means and their sampling errors and how to deal with non responses and oversize and undersize schools This volume is intended primarily for teams who are responsible for conducting national assessments and graduate students interested in technical aspects of large scale surveys

Assessment in Transition Robert Glaser, Robert Linn, George Bohrnstedt, 1997 This is the final report of the National Academy of Education's Panel on the Evaluation of the National Assessment of Education NAEP Progress Trial State Assessment In this report the Panel considers philosophical technical and policy issues concerning the NAEP in the immediate future and in the long term The high technical quality of the NAEP assessment and its independence from unwarranted influences and political pressures have enabled the NAEP to monitor trends in educational achievement reliably since its inception in 1969 In recent years the NAEP has expanded the number of students it assesses and has undergone substantial changes in content design and administration Taken together these changes have produced complexities that threaten the entire program This report suggests ways in which the NAEP should broaden its conceptualization assessment and reporting It asserts that educational achievement must be redefined in terms of what students need to know and be able to do for the 21st century and that education conditions must be created to support this vision of achievement The fundamental purposes of the NAEP should be to inform the public and policy makers about student achievement trends in the nation and the states and to stimulate democratic debate about how to improve education It is important that NAEP standards be set in defensible ways Details are provided for a program of innovation and research that will require substantial planning before the reauthorization of the NAEP in 1998 These chapters are included 1 The Central Purpose of the National Assessment of Educational Progress 2 What Should NAEP Measure 3 Measuring Achievement 4 Informing the Nation 5 Connecting to the Larger Network of Education Information and 6 Planning for the Long Term Contains 7 figures and 43 references SLD

Grading the Nation's Report Card National Research Council, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Testing and Assessment, Committee on the Evaluation of National and State Assessments of Educational Progress, 2000-04-23

The National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP known as the nation's report card has chronicled students' academic achievement in America for over a quarter of a century. It has been a valued source of information about students' performance, providing the best available trend data on the academic achievement of elementary, middle, and secondary school students in key subject areas. NAEP's prominence and the important need for stable and accurate measures of academic achievement call for evaluation of the program and an analysis of the extent to which its results are reasonable, valid, and informative to the public. This volume of papers considers the use and application of NAEP. It provides technical background to the recently published book Grading the Nation's Report Card: Evaluating NAEP and Transforming the Assessment of Educational Progress (NRC, 1999) with papers on four key topics: NAEP's assessment development, content validity, design, and use, and more broadly, the design of education indicator systems. Assessing National Achievement Levels in Education, 2008 National Assessments of Educational Achievement, 2008 Evaluaciones nacionales del rendimiento académico Volumen 1 Vincent Greaney, Thomas Kellaghan, 2016-02-02. La evaluación efectiva del desempeño de los sistemas educativos es un componente clave en la formulación de políticas para optimizar el desarrollo del capital humano en todo el mundo. Los cinco libros de la serie Evaluaciones nacionales del rendimiento académico presentan conceptos clave de las evaluaciones nacionales de los niveles de rendimiento estudiantil desde las cuestiones normativas que deben abordarse cuando se diseña y se lleva a cabo las evaluaciones hasta el desarrollo de las pruebas, el muestreo, la depuración de datos, las estadísticas, la redacción de informes y el uso de los resultados para mejorar la calidad de la educación. Este primer volumen describe los fines y las características de las evaluaciones nacionales, así como las cuestiones relacionadas con su diseño, su puesta en práctica, su análisis y su comunicación. Describe también las principales evaluaciones internacionales, regionales y nacionales llevadas a cabo en una serie de países. El libro va dirigido principalmente a gobiernos nacionales, regionales y estatales, instituciones de investigación y universidades.
