

The background of the book cover is a textured, aged parchment-like surface. It features a faint, monochromatic illustration in shades of blue and brown. On the right side, a figure with a long beard and a tall, pointed hat (likely a Sema ceremony participant) is depicted in profile, looking towards the left. On the left side, another figure is shown in a more dynamic, possibly dancing or falling pose, also with long hair and a turban. The overall style is reminiscent of traditional Persian or Sema artwork.
